Session 1941.

Vol. 25.

HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1941.

No. 71.

SENATE

FRIDAY, June 13, 1941.

The Senate met at 12:01 oclock, a. m., E. S. T.
The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, the gentleman from Butler, Mr. CARR, offered the prayer.

Our Heavenly Father, we pause at this the beginning of a new day, with the realization in our hearts that out of that Eternity which belongs unto Thee, Thou hast given us time, and while we realize, oh God, time is a most unsubstantial thing, yet help us to realize it is our greatest possession, that out of it all that we can do may be done for human kind. Grant, our Heavenly Father, that we may use it in such a way that it shall redound to Thy Name's honor and glory. We ask it in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WADE and Mr. GELTZ, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I understand this is a bill that carries an appropriation, and I would like to know whether it requires a two-thirds majority?

The PRESIDENT. Thirty-four votes are required.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, votes how?

Mr. BARR. I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, voting under a misapprehension, I would like to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I would like to insist on my motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair must take the position the Chair can not entertain a motion of this kind after the roll has been called. The roll call must be completed. The proper procedure then would be to move to reconsider the vote by which the bill either passes or falls.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask permission to address the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection the gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. In a statement to the General Assembly which the Governor made yesterday, he said, "I have carefully refrained from injecting political considerations into the situation." He refers, of course, to the controversy arising over the budget estimates. But I call attention to the fact that the Governor has forgotten that on May 17, dealing with the same situation, he said,

"If Pennsylvania's government is thrown into turmoil for lack of the necessary legislation to keep it in operation, the entire responsibility for that will be upon the shoulders of a little handful of so-called leaders in the Democratic party who now appear to be setting themselves up as financial experts.

"In connection with their budget, my principal hope is that the estimates of the State's income were not made by the same Democratic gentlemen who in Pennsylvania in 1938 estimated a Democratic victory by more than half a million votes."

I said yesterday, and I repeat today, I shall make every effort to discuss this matter calmly and without injecting personalities or politics, but I must state at the outset that I do not agree that the Governor has "carefully refrained from injecting political considerations into the situation." The statement which he made on May 17th and the language he used in referring to those of us who had anything to do with the preparation of the budget may be fitting for soap-box ward politicians, but are beneath the dignity of the high office which he occupies.

It is neither good manners nor dignified to invite people to listen to you and when they accept your invitation to insult them.

This is not the address of a Governor who wants to focus the attention of the legislators on their public duty, but rather the statement of a Governor who wants to focus the attention of the public on the legislators with whom he does not agree in order to put them in an unfavorable light.

Since my colleagues, Senator Mundy and Senator Dent, have very ably answered the political implications of his speech, I propose to turn my attention to the few, and I may say very few, factual allegations which appear in the address concerning the budget. I find it very difficult, however, to cull out from this political speech any particular point which has been developed with sufficient clarity to understand and completely answer. It is impossible to understand what the Governor means.

This I know, it is not true that the delay in action on the budget will compel the State to stop payment to the first, second and third class school districts, to 200 State-aided hospitals and homes, to State-aided welfare institutions, or to State-aided universities and medical colleges.

This I also know, it is not true that the failure to pass the budget has prevented long overdue checks from being sent to these institutions "weeks and months ago." And, this I also know, it is not true that the failure to pass the budget before June 1st justifies the Governor in stating that thousands of teachers' salaries are still unpaid and in gratuitously adding that this was the "result of the vicious political tactics of these representatives of Pennsylvania's men and women."

And, I also know that any one who has the slightest knowledge of the fiscal program of this Commonwealth knows that the total amount that this Commonwealth is obligated to pay the schools and colleges up to June 1, 1941, was fully provided for in the 1939 budget, and everyone with the slightest knowledge of the fiscal program of this Commonwealth also knows that the moneys payable to these same institutions out of the 1941-43 budget are not yet due.

What checks, therefore, can be long overdue, which could have been sent "weeks and months ago"? What $85,445,700, which the Governor describes as a "staggering total" prevents the payments of these checks which could have been sent "weeks and months ago"? What pledge was made by both Democratic and Republican members of the Legislature which borrowed from certain Funds to maintain relief? And, what did that pledge have to do with preventing the checks being sent to these institutions "weeks and months ago"?

If the Governor refers to the transfer acts in the 1940 special session he knows, or should know, that most, if not all, the Democratic members of the Legislature voted against the transfers and specifically because there was no provision for their repayment within the biennium.

If the Governor means that the failure to pass the 1941-43 budget has prevented the repayment of these borrowed funds, he is correct; but when he states that the failure to repay these moneys to these Funds has resulted in long overdue checks which could have been sent out to these institutions "weeks and months ago" he must know that that statement is absolutely untrue, because these funds must be repaid not to the General Fund but to the special Funds; and their repayment has absolutely nothing to do with the payment or nonpayment of funds to institutions.

The Governor well knows that there are, or at least that there should be, no funds due or long overdue to these institutions because the appropriations in the 1939-41 budget made ample provision for these payments. What, then, does the Governor mean when he makes the statement that "today is the last day on which action can be taken without violating our specific pledge as to the time when these borrowings are repaid"? To whom was this pledge made and to whom is this repayment to be made? And, the pledge is not to repay any money to institutions. The pledge was made to repay to the Motor License Fund and the other special Funds listed by the Governor in his address on Page 3, which were diverted from these Funds in the 1940 session to meet relief requirements.

These deliberate and wilful misstatements of fact and confusion of ideas make it difficult for me to either understand the Governor's address or withhold criticism of his political vituperation. I can only explain his address on the theory that "him whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad."

Delving into the Governor's statement, I find that the theme song of the whole address is, to use the words of the Governor, that "this situation is due to the deliberate action of a group of Democrats in the House of Representatives who bottled up the budget program when it was presented last February 3, and kept it under lock and key until the closing days of May, when it was changed to a form not acceptable under the laws of this Commonwealth and passed by the House too late for the necessary and proper corrections to be made before this biennium began."

I charge, with full knowledge of what I am saying, that this is an attempt to create an issue based on a false premise in an attempt to cover up the picture, which is unpleasant to the Governor, of the Democratic Party carrying out the promises of a Republican Governor by reducing the taxes which he promised to eliminate. My proof positive of that statement is this:

The Governor of this Commonwealth, when he made the statement that we, the Democratic Party, have bottled up the appropriation bill until it is too late, knew and shut his eyes to the fact that in 1939 he did not present his budget message until February 17th, and that in 1939 he did not introduce the budget appropriation until May 17th, and that his Legislature, controlled in both Houses by the Republicans, did not pass the general appropriation act until May 29, 1939. Was the 1939 budget bottled up? Why is May 29th not too late in 1939, but much too late in 1941?

I have confidence in the good sense and in the memory of the American people and Pennsylvanians are no exception to that rule. Most of them, in determining whether they will accept the Governor's budget without question and reject the budget prepared by the Democratic Party as the product of "amateurs" will probably bring to mind this picture: First, the 1939 budget with the Governor's experts' estimate of $121,000,000 for relief; second, the unnecessary expenditures of $350,000 to pay for a special session in order to correct the mistake of the Governor's expert budget makers; third, the diversion of the road money and the depriving of local governments of their share of the liquid fuel tax in order to hide the first mistakes of the Governor's expert budget makers; fourth, they will remember the estimate of the expert budget makers of the Governor, prepared for the 1940 special session, that $71,000,000 was all that would be necessary for relief; fifth, they will recall that on February 3, 1941, the Governor, in his budget message told the General Assembly that $71,000,000 was not enough and that $14,500,000 additional would be needed—mistake number three. They will then recall that since that date the Governor has asked for and received an additional $6,150,000 for relief to the end of this biennium—mistake of the expert budget makers number four. They will recall also that in that same message on February 3, 1941, the Governor said that there would be an increase of $5,000,000 in the revenue over the estimates for the current biennium. They will recall that on May 21st of this year the Governor issued a statement that instead of the increase in estimate of revenue of $5,000,000 for the past biennium his expert budget makers now estimate, with equal expertness, that there will be a deficit of $9,000,000—mistake number five. We were told this mornnig, however, that the deficit is but $5,400,000.

The question I ask now is, "What have these expert budget makers done to provide for the shortage which now exists in the Governor's budget of $10,400,000 arising out of the difference between the estimated $5,000,000 increase in revenue for the last biennium and the now estimated deficiency of $5,400,000, or a total of $10,400,000?"

This succession of continual mistakes or misstatements in the budgets made by so-called experts ought to convince a fair-minded person to be cautious in his criticism.

Actually there is very little difference between the budget estimates prepared by the Governor's experts and those prepared by the Democratic Party. The real difference lies in the fact that we claim, from as thorough an investigation as possible and from the information made available—in many instances by the Department heads themselves that there will be an increase in several of the major taxes—principally in gasoline taxes, net corporate income tax, and the liquor tax.

The best way to answer this question is for the Departments to present all the available information to the Conference Committee for their consideration. If this is done I am sure that no member of the Committee will be stubborn enough to ignore the facts. There is no occasion for name calling and there is no justification for perverting the facts.

The failure to act on this budget has not caused any of the delays or the failure to pay the moneys due the schools, hospitals and institutions, as the Governor has said. What really happened was this:

As far back as February, 1941, although the money was available, payments to these schools and institutions have been withheld by the Governor of this Commonwealth for the purpose of maintaining the cash position in anticipation of a disagreement between a Democratic House and a Republican Senate. But the fact is that the revenue was provided under the 1939 budget and the money was always available, and is there now, to pay the schools, hospitals and institutions. I challenge any one to produce the proof to the contrary. It may very well be that the condition has been aggravated by an estimated deficiency of $5,400,000 in the 1939-41 revenue as against the estimated increase of $5,000,000.

But that does not change the fact concerning the procedure, which was begun in February, 1941, when the Governor anticipated an increase in receipts.

Frankly, I suggest that the procedure adopted in February made cooperation more difficult. To anticipate a disagreement before a discussion in governmental affairs is never conducive of good government. I have always believed and shall continue to believe that after the political battle is over, irrespective of whose candidate the Governor may have been, he is the Governor of all the people. I believe that the Governor of this Commonwealth has the duty of paving the way for cooperation between the two legislative bodies. It was his duty and it would have been extremely helpful if he had initiated proceedings along those lines immediately after the Legislature convened. There can be no doubt that to engender strife is not one of his obligations or prerogatives, but that, on the contrary, he should use the power of his office to pour water on the flames of Party differences.

My beliefs on this subject I have stated and shown frequently in various ways. I have repeatedly suggested a conference between the leaders of both branches of the Legislature in which the Governor should participate, to the end that we may reach a common ground. Not only have these suggestions been ignored, but the Governor of this great Commonwealth, by his address yesterday, has added fuel to the flames which he should have extinguished. In spite of all that I submit that it is still not too late. But the next move should come from the other side.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I have listened to the address of the gentleman from Philadelphia with a very great deal of interest and there are two comments I would like to make thereon.

The first has to do with the gentleman's criticism of the Governor's budget for the past biennium, which arises out of the fact that there is now ten million dollars that is due to various agencies of local government from the state and which has not yet been paid to them, as follows:

To second and third class school districts, $2,426,000; to first class school districts $1,475,000; to state aided universities and colleges, $2,492,000; to state aided hospitals, $2,248,000; which, roughly speaking, is about nine million dollars.

That money has not been paid to them according to legislative promise, and it is a pity it has not been paid to those institutions relying upon receiving punctually the money they get from the state, but where the gentleman from Philadelphia goes wrong is where he confuses the budget with the cash position of the Commonwealth. It is perfectly true there is money in the treasury to pay these debts; it is also perfectly true there is an obligation on the part of the Commonwealth to pay weekly the checks for assistance and if the cash position of the Commonwealth is impaired too greatly it might have the very serious effect of postponing weekly payments for assistance, which is needed by a great many families.

My feeling, therefore, is that in curtailing payments to the various school districts and other agencies to which we have appropriated money, and in curtailing them in order to build up a proper cash position in the state, the Governor was acting very wisely.

Our colleague from Philadelphia says he did so in anticipation of a disagreement between the two Houses. I think it was wise for the Governor to do so in anticipation of anything. As a matter of fact, there has been a disagreement between the two Houses and today the situation is still where it is because of the fact that the Democratic House has passed a tax anticipation note bill, from which extra cash could be secured, basing it upon a budget which has been made by the members of the House and not upon the budget that has been made by the proper law officers of the Commonwealth.

Mr. President, I want to say a word or two with reference to the method of making a budget. It happens to be a part of the history of Pennsylvania with which I have been personally familiar for many years. Down to 1921 the budgets that were presented to the General Assembly were very crude, and in large measure consisted of nothing but letters from the Governor or the State Treasurer or the Auditor General, each of whom reported upon what the income might be from the various taxes that were under their control.

In 1921 there was passed an act whereby the state assumed a large portion of the salaries of public school teachers. That added, according to estimates, thirty-five millions of dollars to the expenditures of the state. A number of fresh taxes were imposed to provide that, but the Legislature had no definite estimates as to what amounts would be produced and the consequence was, when the end of that biennium was reached, the state had made good on its obligations to the public schools but the income of the state had not been sufficient to pay the others. That produced what was called a mess and on the basis of cleaning up that mess Pinchot ran for the governorship, the first time, in 1922, and among the promises he made at that time, if he were to be elected governor, was that he would not only clean up the financial mess but he would institute a budget system in the Commonwealth.

There was a great demand in the Legislature of 1923, of which Senator Woodward was a member and Senator Henry I. Wilson was too, I think, a member, and I was also a member of the House—there was a very great demand that the promise of Governor Pinchot should be carried out. I have on my desk a copy of the Administrative Code passed in 1923, which has the first provision for a budget officer, and which established a budget officer as a branch of the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth and prescribed the methods that were to be adopted in framing a budget each year.

Then, years after that time, the Department of Revenue was created, in a large measure as a result of a series of recommendations of the Pennsylvania Tax Commission of 1923 to 1927, and when the Department of Revenue was created the provisions for making a budget were renewed strongly and revised.

I ask my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, to read the act of 1929, which is the Fiscal Code, particularly sections 601, 602 and 603, which relate to the framing of the budget, and I will take the time myself—or I wonder if Senator Mallery would be good enough to read two paragraphs for me; my voice is not quite as strong as I would like it to be—Senator Mallery, if you will read those two paragraphs I would appreciate it very much, and then I want briefly to comment on them.

(Mr. Mallery read the following:)

"The Budget Secretary may, under the direction of the Governor, make further inquiries and investigations as to the financial needs, expenditures, estimates, or revenues, of any department, board, commission, institution, or other agency. The Governor may, after giving to each department, board, commission, institution, or other agency, an opportunity to be heard, approve, disapprove, or alter the estimates. The Budget Secretary shall, on or before the first day of January next succeeding, submit to the Governor, in writing, the above information, and any additional information requested by the Governor, as a basis for the Governor's estimates for appropriations for the next succeeding biennium.

"As soon as possible, and not later than four weeks after the organization of the General Assembly, the Governor shall submit a state budget, embracing therein the amounts recommended by him to be appropriated to the General Assembly, the Judicial Department, the Governor, and the several administrative departments, boards, and commissions of the state government, and to institutions within the state, and for all other public purposes, the estimated revenues or receipts from any and all sources, and an estimated amount to be raised by taxation or otherwise. Together with such budget, the Governor shall transmit the estimates of receipts and expenditures, as received by the Budget Secretary from the officers in the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Departments."

Mr. EDMONDS. Now, Mr. President, I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia to point out one particular in which this law has not been complied with. The law directs the budget secretary to secure the estimates of income and expenditures, it directs that those figures shall be given to the Department of Revenue, which shall then assemble them and deliver them to the Governor, and if the Governor approves, he shall deliver them to the General Assembly, and that way we have a budget. In February of 1941 we received a budget in that way. What then is causing the trouble? That is the way it has been done for the last eleven years, in fact, since 1923, taking the original office of the budget secretary when he was attached to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, but this year it happens that two or three of the members of the General Assembly—and I think I can name and look at one gentleman of the General Assembly in the Senate, and I think I can name also and find without too much difficulty another member of the General Assembly over in the House—these two gentlemen have proceeded to make up a budget of their own, and having made that budget, they insist the Governor must accept their budget for his standard of expenditures.

In my judgment, Mr. President, that is a procedure wholly unknown to law in Pennsylvania and I say to my friend one of the things I think characterizes the difference between the body on the left and that on the right is that over on this side we have a great deal of respect for doing things in an orderly manner.

If in the first place what you had wanted to do was to make suggestions you should have adopted a resolution inquiring from the Governor whether there were any changes in his figures, if you wanted to consider this or that element, and that would have been the orderly way.

The orderly way in Pennsylvania of making a budget is to have figures assembled by the budget secretary, to have the estimates of revenue computed by the Department of Revenue, to have the approval of the Governor, and then have the whole thing submitted to the General Assembly.

Now, that has been done as far as the executive department is concerned, but the House has not accepted it. Instead they have preferred to send to us another budget, the Shapiro-Achterman budget, which has been developed by these gentlemen from their own economic study. I have no quarrel with them for making that economic study. I rather admire their industry in proceeding along that line but I call attention to the fact that there is nothing in the law that makes the Shapiro-Achterman budget have higher standing than the budget submitted by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We on this side stand for an orderly and legal method of establishing a budget, and we say to the gentlemen on the other side you shall not break the law in this particular and we will not; we know very well we will not and we know very well you shall not.

Under those circumstances when the House says "we will take an immature budget worked out by a few of our members and make that the figure on which tax anticipation notes may be borrowed," we must say we will not agree with that; we stand absolutely by the budget prepared by law and we ask you whether you have not sworn to observe that law as much as we did when you took your oaths of office, and if that is the case is it not binding upon you just as much as it is upon us?

That seems to us to be clear, and under those circumstances, while not attempting to enter into the personal reflections mentioned by the gentleman from Philadelphia, I will say to him very frankly on the fundamental question that ours is the budget prescribed by law and under those circumstances ours is the budget which ought to be accepted as the basis of financing for the next biennium.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the Senators ought to keep order and ought not make any demonstrations.

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be in order. The Chair suggests the gentleman from Philadelphia make use of the microphone, so that the Chair may hear.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not propose to allow the gentleman from Montgomery to switch the subject of my statement, which was that the Governor has misrepresented the situation. If the Governor wants to maintain a cash position by not paying monies provided for in the budget at the time provided in the budget, that is up to him, but he has no right subsequently to say that because we do not pass the budget in 1941, which has nothing to do with the 1939 payments, that we, by failing to pass it on time, have withheld or prevented payments to institutions and thereby stopped the functions of those institutions. That, in my opinion, is a political statement based on a misrepresentation of facts, and that is what I said.

Secondly, Mr. President, I want to answer the gentleman's statement that we, on the other side, as he says should observe the law. He had the gentleman from Altoona, Senator Mallery, read section 602 of the 1929 pamphlet laws, 177, called the Administrative Code, with which I am very familiar, and the gentleman read that the Governor, among other things—

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, it was the fiscal code of 1929.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I said 1929.

Mr. EDMONDS. The gentleman called it the Administrative Code.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I called it the Administrative Code, Mr. President, and that is what I thought it was. The Fiscal Code was passed in 1929 also, but not 177. Section 602 may have been read from the April Act, which I believe was passed the same year and Section 602, as the gentleman will recall, says the Governor "shall, not later than four weeks after the General Assembly convenes, present a budget," and this other side, which so strictly adheres to the law, started out the 1939 administration by violating the law, in not filing a budget until seven weeks afterwards, February 17, 1939, and when we called that to the attention of the gentleman on the other side they just paid no attention, as if they were not interrupted. That certainly is not following the law.

When the budget requirements for hospitals, and payments therefor, require they shall be made by certain dates and the Governor for his own purposes changes the payments to preserve his cash position, that is a violation of the law, and when the Governor gets information from his budget secretaries, which he ignores, in my opinion that is a violation of the law, that provision of the law which governs the procedure for making up the budget. I have indicated in every session we have had that the Governor has misstated the amount of the budget, the amount of the necessities for relief, and I have indicated that the Governor, instead of accepting, instead of going through any budgetary proceedings provided for under the Fiscal Code, first has ascertained how much money it is possible to raise and then has proceeded to spend only so much money as he thought he could get, irrespective of the necessities.

I mean by that when the Governor was told in 1939 he would need two hundred million dollars for relief he disregarded those estimates and made it $121,000,000. He really made it $129,000,000 but when he ran short of funds he changed it to $121,000,000.

In 1940, when the Governor was told he would need $93,000,000 for relief, he disregarded those figures and he changed that to $71,000,000, and he then caused the expenditure of $350,000 by not following the procedure which the gentleman from Montgomery has referred to. The proof of that is that we are now appropriating that same twenty million dollars which he was told would be needed in this session, because when the Governor provides for the taking of funds out of special funds, out of one session, and not paying them back in cash until the next session, that in my opinion violates the law.

Now, Mr. President, to get back to my original statement. I am answering the gentleman from Montgomery not because this has nothing to do with the statement I made, but I deny the other side follows the law and I charge that the Governor disregarded every rule of procedure of the law in the making of his budget and I have proof of it by the statement I have made and his record on relief and his record on his own budget.

I say there is no law on any of the statute books which says this Legislature is powerless to meet a situation, such as when the Governor says we will only receive four million dollars from a certain item and the facts show we will receive forty million dollars. I say there must be no restriction in the law that the Legislature must continue to impose taxes at $27,000,000 if the income of the government does not require it. If we are right, that the income will be more than the Governor says it will be, and if that income will enable a reduction in taxes, it would be a sad state of affairs, assuming that was true, that somebody should dig up a procedure which was set up for the purpose of estimating those figures, and say to the gentlemen of the Legislature "you are powerless, the people of Pennsylvania must continue to pay four mills personal property tax," even though three mills is only necessary on the figures.

Let us stick to that subject and let us not confuse it with the question as to who is violating the law. I stated the Governor made a misrepresentation of the facts and I think I have proved that. The money that has not been paid to institutions has been held up because he has refused to pay them with the money that he has and proposes to use it for what he thinks, in his opinion, a better way to do it. That may be his right, and he can assume the responsibility, but he has no right to say that the reason the money is not being paid is because we fail to pass the budget.

Mr. President, I deny that this Legislature is powerless to cut taxes, to three mills from four, if the revenue is there; and if the revenue is there all we have to do is prove it to the Governor and as a practical proposition he had better accept the new revenue.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, if I understood my colleague from Philadelphia correctly, I understood him to stress the fact that there will be a considerable increase in the revenue derived from the gasoline tax. I should like to remind the Senator from Philadelphia that the Senate has passed a bill that would appropriate, by reason of this increased revenue from the gasoline tax, money to the various cities, including Philadelphia and all of the cities of the Commonwealth, as well as all of the boroughs and townships of the first-class. That I consider as making good use of that increased revenue.

Properly, I consider, the Legislature in years heretofore has appropriated money to townships of the second-class. I can conceive of no reason why appropriately the Legislature should not have appropriated money to townships of the first-class, boroughs and to cities.

Now the Senate has taken, I believe, appropriate action allocating a fair proportion of the gasoline taxes to all of the various municipalities of this state. That, I think, possibly would account for the Governor's action. That bill remains in a committee in the House.

The Senate decisively took the position that a reasonable proportion of the gasoline tax should be appropriated not only to townships of the second-class but also to townships of the first-class and to the boroughs and to all of the cities in the Commonwealth, including the City of Philadelphia and the City of Pittsburgh, and all of the cities of the third-class.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think we are getting to that hour in the morning when most of us are a little tired, and being the youngest man in the Senate I think if I am tired some of you oldsters are a darn sight more tired than I am.

However, Mr. President, I can not help but think that if the law prescribes the method and the manner in which the budget is established, then there is not much sense in the Legislature discussing the fiscal affairs of the state if the law prescribes the manner and the method in which the budget is computed—that is a cold I have; I do not know where I got it; it is sort of like the Governor's budget; I can not regulate it; but seriously, Mr. President, tonight we have witnessed for the first time where the second team was called in. I will still carry the ball myself.

If what the gentleman from Montgomery said is true, then that part of this so-called democracy that the gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Watkins, is disturbed about, that first part of the democracy, that triumvirate, if you please, the legislative branch, loses its identity because it no longer acts in its proper sphere; it does not have the right to criticize the Governor or to amend the Governor's figures or the budget.

Suppose we get a scoundrel for Governor—I did not say "got," I said "get"—suppose we get a scoundrel for Governor who does not care about the facts, who takes figures that are not true and gives this Legislature a budget based upon figures that are not right. Then, Mr. President, does this Legislature have to sit idly by and obey a law allowing him to create a budget—in his own words, "It is a humbug and a fraud"?

I am convinced from past experience, since Governor James was elected, that we Democrats have been right. We called the turns; we have said that certain things would happen and they happened. I said last night and I repeat again that the Governor's figures are not right, that within the next year he will find, you will find, that there will be a great deal more returned from the taxes imposed upon the people in the industries of Pennsylvania than what he accounts for in his budget.

We Democrats, in the interest of saving the expenses of a special session, are trying to point out to him now that if he will take cognizance of the fact that there is an increased activity in all the industrial fields, that more money will be returned to the coffers of the State of Pennsylvania than he thinks there will be, and if he will recognize that fact we will not have to spend $350,000 or $400,000 for a special session, in order to reduce taxes then that we can reduce now.

So I say that the legislature and the Democratic controlled house is acting in its proper sphere, within the jurisdiction provided by law, and it is pointing out to the Governor, if you please, that his budget, in their estimation, is wrong and I think that is proper.

Mr. President, I heard the law read by the eminent gentleman from Blair County and I still think the Legislature has the right to say to the Governor "you are wrong in your figures; these are the figures we think are right." If he does not want them that is his business, but I want to assure the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Edmonds, that we believe in law over here; in fact we believe in it more than you do because when you recessed in 1939 you violated the law, because we were out of session and the Governor could not report to the Legislature as prescribed by law. When I pointed that out on the floor of the Senate there was not one voice raised to protect the position you put yourselves in.

Now, as I have stated before, it is getting late and I have to drive two hundred some miles to get home and incidentally—this is beside the point, but there are a couple of kids back there that would like to see their pop now and then.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, may I say to the gentleman from Westmoreland I hope very much he goes home and enjoys his family life over the week end, but I want him to take this thought home with him and think it over: we in Pennsylvania have an executive budget and that executive budget is fixed by the law and our statutes. There are states that have legislative budgets. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, has tried from time to time to get some sort of a bill introduced which would provide for a legislative examination. That has never been put on the statute books of Pennsylvania.

If you can get a change in the law that would put in the law that all future budget revenue estimates should be made by the Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations and the Senate Minority Leader, if you could once put that on the Statute books, we will acknowledge you are proceeding in an orderly manner, but until that time you are proceeding in a disorderly manner.

I do not think the budget estimates have been anything like as bad as the gentleman from Philadelphia has said. We come to the end of the 1939-41 biennium with a $5,400,000 shortage, with something like $358,000,000 of collections, and that I think is remarkably good budget-making, and I think the estimates which have come from the Department of Revenue in the past have been estimates which were as accurate as could have been made by any group of men, and therefore I am not willing to have it said the Governor's estimates are faulty all the way through.

It seems to me what we have is a situation in which a couple of members of the Legislature have gone out and made an investigation of their own, and I commend them for that—but having done that they insist it must be read into the law, and they can not do that under the budget law as it is established here in Pennsylvania. We stand for a regular method of doing things and in doing that I think we are all united.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Fayette will proceed.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in my remarks of June 5th, on the passage of the "box-car" trucking bill, I stated substantially that the bill was the offspring of bribery, conspiracy and corrupt party leadership; that it had been sponsored and promoted through the Assembly by vicious and powerful interests with the aid of cash paid on the barrel-head to influence its passage; that even though the plain provision of the Constitution made doubtful their right to participate in the vote or discussion upon the bill, some members of the Assembly displayed no concern or hesitancy to so participate; that a non-legislative Democratic leadership centered in Philadelphia and Allegheny contributed their influence and coercion to effect the passage of the bill notwithstanding its knowledge that tremendous sums of money were on the barrel-head to promote this purpose; and that I honestly felt that a criminal conspiracy existed within this Democratic leadership to control and influence pending legislation. Since the date of my remarks, a member of this Senate, like a Shylock, has impetuously, mercilessly and inconsiderately demanded the pound of flesh nearest my heart. In kindness to the gentleman, I refrain at this time to explore his motives in this particular. It is justice, however, that I acknowledge my supreme gratitude to those of my colleagues, both Republican and Democrat, who have calmly, mercifully and considerately allowed me to plead the case within my constitutional prerogatives and those of this Senate. As a courtesy and a token to better judge my remarks, I trust the gentleman from Philadelphia will view me without hate as one who needs not put the hand in the riven side in order to believe. I strongly urge the gentleman to modify his superior and dictatorial mood so that prejudgment may be avoided and, so that the gentleman may hear the case with fairness and with the astuteness, intelligence and resourcefulness with which the gentleman is so abundantly endowed.

As to conspiracy. During the early stage of this present session there was formed in Allegheny and Philadelphia Counties two combinations consisting of Democratic leaders. These two combinations are respectively known as the Allegheny County Democratic Legislative Caucus and the Philadelphia Democratic Legislative Caucus. It is known, and public property, that Democratic members of the Assembly participate in meetings held by these combinations in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, respectively, and that these members act in concert and to a common end with non-legislative participants of the combinations. Proof of the existence and the doings of these combinations have long become public property. The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph writes:

"The Allegheny County Democratic legislative caucus has approved tax abatement legislation provided it includes all taxing bodies and is made optional with the authorities.

"City Treasurer James P. Kirk favors an abatement bill in the belief that it will enable many persons recently re-employed to save their homes by paying off back taxes without the burden of penalties and interest.

"County Commissioner John J. Kane is not enthusiastic over the abatement bill. He recently expressed belief that the principal ones to benefit so far have been corporations and speculators.

"The caucus delayed action on the House resolution for investigation of smog conditions in Pittsburgh, on the bill setting up an eight-hour day for Pittsburgh firemen, and the Brown resolution to investigate the County and Common Pleas Court set-up.

"Liquor legislation. Representatives of the Retail Liquor Dealers were given a hearing on amendments dealers seeking to the state liquor laws.

"The dealers are asking extensions of the selling hours, a tightening of entertainment restrictions to make 800 square feet of floor space necessary for such activity instead of 400, and an increase in club license fees.

"In Pittsburgh, clubs pay a license of $50 while the retailers must pay $600.

"The caucus gave tentative approval to five new bills simplifying the tax sale procedure."

Exhibit 19, dated March 2, 1941.

The remarks of the learned gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, on Page 484 of the Journal are now proof of the existence and activity of this combination in Philadelphia. The unity of purpose, the unity of design, and the focalization of effort projected by this twin combination on the passage of the "box-car" trucking bill and other matters, in my opinion, is flagrant and notorious. Proof of this is public property. The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph writes:

"The strategy on the truck bill took into account that Lawrence could not afford to quarrel with Kelly. Lawrence and Kelly control the House."

Exhibit 14, the big truck.

"Lawrence has been in almost constant attendance at the Legislature, and the controlling force in the Democratic House rests in the Lawrence-Kelly combination."

Exhibit 6, dated June 8, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette writes:

"Both Philadelphia Chairman John B. Kelly and Democratic National Committeeman David L. Lawrence supported the original House Bill. . . .

"Today, it was brought out that two of the most active 'lobbyists' for the bill are James P. Clark, Philadelphia trucking magnate, and Harry Davis, personal representative of Joseph N. Pew, Jr., Vice-President of the Sun Oil Company."

Exhibit 9.

Interwoven with this unity of purpose, unity of design, and focalization of effort, the part played by the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association is definitely traceable. The Philadelphia Inquirer writes:

"Representatives of the Pennsylvania Truckers' Association were in daily contact with the members of the Legislature, arguing that the bill should be expanded to make Pennsylvania's law on the subject conform to those of surrounding states, and the organization bombarded the legislators with a huge amount of literature."

Exhibit 14.

Scientific and technical arguments were prepared by this powerful Association and projected by it into this unity of purpose, unity of design, and unity of focalization. The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph writes, and the Legislative Journal shows, that:

"When the debate opened on the bill a number of legislators read prepared speeches for it. These speeches presented scientific reasons why heavier trucks should be allowed on the highways, some of them discussing the technical engineering features of axle construction and weight distribution, some discussing how modern highways are built to resist loads, some of them giving an exhaustive survey of the weights allowed in adjoining states, and some talking about the effect of solid and pneumatic tires on road surfaces.

"Whoever wrote these speeches did a good job, and whoever sized up the political situation in the House did an even better job."

Exhibit 4.

To know the financial and political potentialities of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association is to know the desirability of political leaders to curry its favor. From where does the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association derive these potentialities? The proof of it is public property.

House Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 148, Printer's No. 81, in part reads:

"Whereas, Associated Petroleum Industries, with offices in Philadelphia and representation in Harrisburg, is an unincorporated association of executives representing the major oil and gasoline companies and interested in advancing the policies of those companies, and

"Whereas, The said Associated Petroleum Industries has, through major gasoline and oil company retail and distribution outlets, maintained an organization in every county of the state for the dissemination of propaganda and information favorable to their major companies, and

"Whereas, it was brought out in a Report of Proceedings of the investigation conducted by the Oil Industry Investigating Commission Hearings that the Associated Petroleum Industries did finance and control certain organizations who were made to appear to represent the consumers and users of gasoline and oil, and

"Whereas, These organizations were used and maintained primarily as the tools of the large oil interests, and

"Whereas, Propaganda either were, by direct mail, by newspapers and magazines as well as the radio, used to disseminate so-called 'consumer arguments' under false pretense, and

"Whereas, In these hearings the names of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, the Keystone Automobile Club, the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, the Pennsylvania Automotive Association Highway Users Conference, certain motor clubs, certain truck associations, the good roads people, cement people and bus associations appeared as being financed in part or in whole by the Associated Petroleum Industries, and

"Whereas, The names of elected as well as appointed officers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania appear in this probe as being in the employ of the Associated Petroleum Industries, and

"Whereas, Certain organizations that are mentioned in this investigation have been very active in having enacted into law an increased weight truck bill, and

"Whereas, Lobbying methods used in this Session and explained thoroughly in the proceedings of the Oil Industry's Investigation Hearings are the same as being used today, therefore be it resolved. . . ." and so forth.

It is a salient circumstance that this twin Democratic combine of Allegheny and Philadelphia controls and dominates a vast city, county and party pay roll on which appear the names of legislators and their relations. It is also a circumstance of note that, under the dictatorial presence and coercion of its leaders, this Democratic Combine has adopted the "unit rule" which requires the Assembly members of the combine to act as a unit on all matters directed by the combine. An examination of the roll calls will show the regularity and operation of the "unit rule." Through this rule the combine dominates and imposes its will upon the activities of the lawful Democratic caucus of the members of the Assembly here at the Capitol. A most outstanding circumstance in connection with the combine is the appearance of a super-committee in the House to control the functions of all standing committee chairmen. The presence of this super-committee is known to many members of this Senate. The names of its members are cautiously guarded. It is certain, however, that all its members are Democrats and one of them is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Melchiorre. It is not improbable—and I say this in kindness—that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro can give his colleagues information concerning this super-committee.

Surveying the subject as it has revealed itself to my senses, and as I have set it forth in my remarks on this Senate floor, I must again affirm that it is my sincere opinion that this twin Democratic Combine has all the features of a criminal conspiracy to rig, control and interfere with the orderly passage of legislation. It is intended to obstruct the right of the General Assembly to the united judgment and deliberation of its members. Its purpose extends to the rigging of the Commonwealth's business to suit the whims of political leaders. It interferes with and obstructs the orderly functions of the General Assembly. His Excellency, the Governor, has branded the budget offered to him by his opposition as a "humbug and a fraud." His Excellency's chagrin is not amiss if the rigging of his budget is the handiwork of the political leaders of this combine in the spurious rendezvouses of Philadelphia and Allegheny. The belated discovery by the Democratic City Chairman of Philadelphia that a legislative log-jam is barring action against Communists in the public schools and the political life of Pennsylvania, is indeed amusing. One would think that the brilliant City Chairman is without knowledge that the "log-jam" is the spurious offspring of this notorious combine. It is amazing that the City Chairman has waited until the dying hours of this Session to hear the voice in the wilderness crying out against the iniquity of this combine.

Mr. President, may I pause sufficiently at this point to deeply commend the Republican members of the Assembly, and particularly of this Senate. I do this in envy of their freedom from the clutches of such combines. I especially commend my Republican colleagues for their fortune in having party leaders who do not publicly compromise them on pending matters.

Returning to the subject of conspiracy, the Court said in Commonwealth against Rosen, 141 Pennsylvania Superior Court 272:

"A criminal conspiracy at common law is an agreement between two or more persons with criminal intent to do an unlawful act, or to do a lawful act by unlawful means, and the gist of the offense is the unlawful agreement."

In the case of Commonwealth against Rhey, 140 Pennsylvania Superior Court 304, the Court said:

"The crime of 'conspiracy' derives its distinctive character from unity of purpose, unity of design, and focalization of effort upon a particular project by persons named in the indictment. . . .

"To establish a 'conspiracy', it is not necessary that the specific terms and scope of the agreement be first shown, but where acts of the parties indicate that they are acting in concert to a common end, the jury properly may be permitted to infer that such concerted action was the result of an agreement."

Mr. President, I name Democratic National Committee-man David L. Lawrence, City Treasurer James P. Kirk, and City Controller Edward R. Frey as leaders and participants in the Allegheny Combination. I name Democratic City Chairman John B. Kelly, and the gentlemen Messrs. Melchiorre and Shapiro as leaders and participants in the Philadelphia Combination. I name them jointly as leaders and participants of the combine here outlined by me.

I name the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association as a participant in this combine for the purpose of effecting the passage of the "box-car" trucking bill. I name the Democratic Headquarters in the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh as the meeting places of the respective units of the combine.

As to bribery and corrupt party leadership. It is painful for me to talk to you, my colleagues, upon the subject of bribery. I am constrained to do so by virtue of my oath of office and, because of the tender sensibility that I entertain for the integrity of this body.

As to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Melchiorre, it is public knowledge that the gentleman professed under oath and before an Investigating Committee of the House that if boodle was offered him, he would have readily taken it. This, gentlemen of the Senate, is a violation of Article 3, Section 29 of the Constitution on this subject. Suffice to refer my colleagues to the case of In re: Riot Bill Bribery Investigation, 7 Wk. N. C. 306, in which the Honorable Pearson, President Judge, of the Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County stated, among other things:

"You will observe, gentlemen, that the Constitution, therefore, makes the provision both against members of the Legislature who will receive or ask for, or be willing to receive, or agree to receive, any offer in the form of money, office, or in any other way . . ."

The law would be ridiculous if it were otherwise. A member of the Assembly can not shout from the rooftops that he is willing and ready for boodle and then scurry to dark corners to receive it.

I view with amazement the complacent impunity enjoyed by this gentleman. It is from this; and I have no doubt, that the gentleman takes calloused liberty to boisterously halt and berate me on the streets of Harrisburg for having voted differently from his desires on a bill pending before this Senate. The gentleman is indifferent to the fact that his conduct in this particular may well amount to a further infraction of the law that he has already so flagrantly breached. With this knowledge in mind, and with a sensibility for the integrity that I desire my colleagues to enjoy, I am forced to impugn the party leadership that places its power and influence in the hands of such gentleman. The proof to establish this leadership is public property. The Philadelphia Record writes:

"Melchiorre, elected from the City's 5th District, is chairman of the important Steering and Law and Order Committee, posts to which he was sponsored by Democratic Chairman John B. Kelly."

Exhibit 7.

The Pittsburgh Press writes:

"Mr. Kelly is Democratic Chairman of Philadelphia, responsible for Mr. Melchiorre's position as Chairman of the delegation, head of the House Law and Order Committee and a member of the House Rules Committee. . . ."

Exhibit 8.

Suffice the consideration I have given to this gentleman at this time. I now take up a most touchy phase of this subject of bribery.

In my remarks of June 9th on this matter, I distinctly named and showed the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association to be the prolific source of tremendous boodle. In those remarks I named persons and the amounts of boodle they laid on the barrel-head. It is not within my power nor is it my intention to explore this prolific source any further. This is a duty assigned by law to the executive and judicial departments of our government. I trust that they will take up the job where I must leave it: I do, however, now propose to direct attention to the places and occasions where this boodle overtly came to view.

I now point to the "Belshazzarian Feast" given at Harrisburg by the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association. It would be amazing if those who attended that feast could now deny knowledge of the same. It would be equally amazing if any who attended it could now deny the motives of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association in giving it. This amazement applies also to the miniature "Belshazzar Feast" tendered by this Association in the Fort Pitt Hotel at Pittsburgh. Proof of the motives of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association is public property.

The Philadelphia Inquirer writes:

"Representatives of the Pennsylvania Truckers' Association were in daily contact with members of the Legislature, arguing that the bill should be expanded to make Pennsylvania's law on the subject conform to those of surrounding states, and the organization bombarded the legislators with a huge amount of literature."

Exhibit No. 14.

The Sun-Telegraph writes:

"Holland made the charge on the floor of the House that the bill did not move from the Committee until the truckers put on a $25,000 spread for the legislators at Harrisburg.

"Members of the legislature were guests at a dinner arranged by the truckers' interests in Harrisburg several weeks ago which was quite lavish in its appointments.

"A nationally known radio commentator was brought to Harrisburg to broadcast for the group and a special stage show imported from New York.

"It may not have cost $25,000, but it was not a cheap party.

"Members of the Allegheny County Democratic delegation first expressed opposition to the bill.

"Then, on March 28th, they voted to insist on a public hearing on the trucking bill in the House.

"On that same night, the Allegheny County Democratic legislators were invited to attend a stag party of the Allegheny County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association at the Fort Pitt Hotel, and many of the Assemblymen attended."

It is a cardinal principle that ignorance of the law will excuse no one. Boodle need not be cash. It may take a million forms. Its form may be as intangible as space. I may tell you: "If you vote thus on this bill, I will tell you who stole your purse." This is boodle and the receiving of it is bribery. That a member of the Assembly pleads ignorance of the provision of the Constitution will not excuse him if he has received the boodle.

Members of the Assembly are placed in a distinct category by the Constitution. What constitutes bribery when done by them will not constitute the offense when done by the ordinary citizen. It is notable that the definition of bribery by members of the Assembly is set forth in the Constitution itself; while the crime of bribery by an ordinary citizen is prescribed and defined basically by the statutory law.

Article 3, Section 29, of the Constitution, dealing with members of the General Assembly, provides as follows:

"A member of the General Assembly who shall solicit, demand or receive, or consent to receive, directly or indirectly, for himself or for another, from any company, corporation or person, any money, office, appointment, employment, testimonial, reward, thing of value or enjoyment, or personal advantage or promise thereof, for his vote or official influence, or for withholding the same, or with an understanding, expressed or implied, that his vote or official action shall be in any way influenced thereby, or who shall solicit or demand any such money or other advantage, matter or thing aforesaid for another, as the consideration of his vote or official influence, or for withholding the same or shall give or withhold his vote or influence in consideration of the payment or promise of such money, advantage, matter or thing to another, shall be held guilty of bribery within the meaning of this Constitution, and shall incur the disabilities provided thereby for said offense, and such additional punishment as is or shall be provided by law."

It is good that the framers of the Constitution made the receiving of "enjoyment" a form of boodle. If this were not so members of the Assembly might be basking in "enjoyment" on the shores of Palm Beach, paid for and provided by the prolific Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, or any other such combination attempting to curry the influence of such members. The test of the problem is the actuating motives of the giver. The scent of the boodle is the touch of the giver.

I trust that those who received the "enjoyment" represented by the "Belshazzarian Feast" of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association may see on the wall the handwriting of the framers of the Constitution.

I ask my colleagues to spare me the trouble to name and place on the Journal of this body the names of the Assemblymen who attended those feasts. I will leave the proof to their discretion.

Before I conclude, Mr. President, I wish to assure the Joint Legislative Committee of which the gentleman, Mr. Stevenson, is the Chairman, that it has at no time been my desire or intention to act contemptuously of the Committee or its processes. My refusal to appear in response to a subpoena served upon me by a Sergeant-at-Arms of this Senate was actuated solely by the belief that as a member of this Senate, I am immune from such subpoena and that the provisions of the Constitution guard me for speech and debate on the Senate floor against questioning in any other place. I stand firmly upon this constitutional immunity and protection because I honestly believe that it is the best thing to do under the circumstances. Without waiving this immunity or protection I tender my service and collaboration to that Committee at any time and any place, when and how the Committee may request it.

I now advise the Honorable Committee that my remarks on the floor of this Senate contain all of the information, circumstances and names upon which I predicated my remarks of June 5th and that I have, up to this moment, no additional information to give.

As a summary to what I have already stated, I regard as outrageous and corrupt the conduct of the Democratic leaders who, notwithstanding their knowledge, inveigled into this sorry mess the members of this Assembly who followed their advice. The leaders of both the Philadelphia and Allegheny unit of this notorious Democratic combination must be charged with knowledge that the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, the prolific source of boodle, was actuated solely with the purpose to effect the passage of the "box-car" trucking bill, by currying favor with them and those who follow their leadership.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. THOMAS offered the follownig resolution which was twice read, considered, and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 16, 1941.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, June 23, 1941, at 3:30 o'clock p. m. (Eastern Standard Time), and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, June 23, 1941, at 8 o'clock p. m. (Eastern Standard Time).

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING CERTAIN INFORMATION FROM SECRETARY OF BANKING

Mr. REED offered the following resolution which was twice read:

In the Senate, June 16, 1941.

Whereas, It appears that many large debtors of closed State banks have failed to liquidate their indebtedness, and

Whereas, It further appears that compromise settlements have been made with some of the large debtors of such closed banks, and

Whereas, This information is of great importance to this Senate and the people of Pennsylvania, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of Banking of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, furnish to the members of this Senate before the adjournment of its present Session the following information:

- (a) The names and addresses of each and every debtor owing $10,000 or more to any bank or banks or trust company in the Commonwealth now closed and under his control, with the name of the bank, banks or trust company, and the amount due each of them.
- (b) The names and addresses of each and every debtor that owed $10,000 or more and whose indebtedness has been compromised during the term of said Secretary of Banking, with the terms of such compromise settlements.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 39

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I object to immediate consideration of this resolution, simply for the reason that we have no idea what work would be entailed by the Banking Department and what would be necessary to secure the information required by this resolution. For that reason, Mr. President, I suggest that this resolution be referred to committee so that the committee may investigate it.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, under our form of government, there is no job too big for our public officials, if that job effects the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth, and this is a very important matter. I am told that in our closed banks there is paper aggregating great sums of money. I have also been informed that many large accounts have been compromised, and I say if that is true the people of Pennsylvania, depositors and other public officials should have that information, for if some large debtor has been permitted to obtain a compromise, while many smaller debtors have had their homes sold, it seems to me that there is nothing more important to the people of our Commonwealth than that information.

Mr. President, if I were a public official, I would welcome the opportunity to look into any phase of public business that carried those conditions, those vices, and I sincerely hope that instead of referring this resolution to a committee, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, will withdraw his objection and ask that the resolution be laid on the table so that we can get prompt action, as the time is very short and the session is drawing to a close, and I know there are many people in the Commonwealth who are interested in the problem wrapped up in this resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Does the gentleman from Allegheny insist on his objection?

Mr. GELTZ. I do, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Under the rules the resolution will be referred to the Committee on Banking.

SENATE BILL No. 80 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I now call up from the table, Senate Bill No. 80, entitled:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I intend to ask that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered, for the purpose of offering an amendment. I shall ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment which eliminates from the bill the power to take chattel mortgages on personal wearing apparel, household furnishings and other articles of household use.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 680, (HOUSE BILL No. 869)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion,

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. GELTZ and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Barr,	DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Reed,
Cavalcante,	Frey,	Lanius,	Ruth,
Coleman,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
Cox,	James,	McQuiddy,	Stiefel,

Bartlett,	Ealy,	Letzler,	Tyler,
Becker,	Edmonds,	Mallery,	Wade,
Carr,	Farrell,	Miller,	Walker,

Crider,	Heyburn,	Tallman,	Wilson, H. I.,
Crowe,	Homsher,	Taylor,	Wilson, T. B.,
Deltrick,	Kephart,	Thomas,	Ziesenheim,

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill is an amendment to the existing law which provides that chattel mortgages might be taken on agreement with, and borrow funds from, the Government of the United States or any department, agency or instrumentality thereof, including among others the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the R. F. C. Mortgage Company, and so limited in its original form to that branch of loans.

Now, Mr. President, this bill is amended to cover every kind of loan and provides that "such chattel mortgage shall be a lien against the chattel or chattels thereby conveyed and shall be good and available in law against any subsequent purchasers or execution creditors upon the recording thereof as hereinafter directed.

"Provisions contained in such chattel mortgage that property of the same class as is covered by the chattel mortgage shall be included in the mortgage lien if acquired by the mortgagor subsequent to the execution of the chattel mortgage and prior to its extinguishment and provisions that the chattel mortgage may secure future advances to be made by the mortgagee at his option within a period of three years from the execution of such chattel mortgage but not to exceed in the aggregate an amount stated in said chattel mortgage and that all advances so made shall be secured by such chattel mortgage equally and to the same extent as the amount originally advanced on the security of such mortgage and that all such future advances shall be a lien upon the property therein described from the time of the recording of such chattel mortgage good and valid against and superior to all rights of subsequent creditors, purchasers, mortgagees and other lienors and encumbrances of any of them and provisions that the chattel mortgage may include replacements of any of the mortgaged property therein described shall be valid and binding."

Now, what we do here by the passage of this bill is to permit a man to get a mortgage on a property for one hundred thousand dollars and subsequently make loans of five, ten, fifteen or twenty thousand dollars or any amount up to one hundred thousand dollars, and without knowledge on the part of anyone, except that there is a mortgage of one hundred thousand dollars recorded, make that mortgage a lien ahead of any subsequent or prior creditors.

I thought this bill would not be passed but apparently the people back of it represent the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and I had a conference with them and pointed out to them what would be possible, which is not today possible under the law, namely, that companies loaning money on furniture could come in and get a mortgage and place it on record and from time to time put new furniture into that place, and without any further action could get a lien on the old and new property for the full extent of the balance due, irrespective of how much was paid off on the original loan.

I said that it was certainly not a proceeding we wanted to engage in since we had avoided in Pennsylvania chattel mortgages for that very purpose for years, and they agreed that was further than they intended to go. As a result of that conference I prepared an amendment which I was proposing to offer today and which the Senate has now refused to accept, to at least take out of this law, which is so all embracing, those persons who have built up their homes and thus avoid the mortgaging of furniture and personal property in the home, and unless that is out of the bill, I think all of you should consider in fairness consider this matter and endeavor to understand the force and effect of this piece of legislation.

I was prepared to vote for the bill, though reluctantly, because I feel what the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is trying to do, namely, to give small business men loans upon their factories and equipment in their factories might be well under the circumstances, especially in view of the fact that many small manufacturers might be called upon at this time to engage in the national defense program, but to allow this bill in its present scope to become a law of Pennsylvania and extend an invitation to every installment house in the state to proceed to procure a chattel mortgage on the future of every individual home owner is more than I feel we ought to permit, and for that reason I am going to vote against the bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I will have to vote against this bill because of one feature in it to which I cannot subscribe. I am not asking any of my colleagues to vote against this bill, because I have considered the possibility that everybody else could be right and I might be wrong in this matter, but in the Senate here a few days ago I made a remark to one of the newspaper correspondents that the laws of economics are as inexorable as the laws of nature, to which he replied that the laws of economics are the laws of nature.

In this bill there is a provision that savings banks may invest their trust funds and saving funds in mortgages upon real property, where the mortgages do not exceed two-thirds of the actual value of such real property, but if the investment is to be in bonds secured by the Federal Housing Administration there is no limitation under the Federal Housing Administration, loans are made up to ninety per cent of the supposed value of the property. The act itself indicates that to be an unsound proceeding, if the bank were to make it upon the property themselves, but because these bonds are insured by the Federal Authorities, therefore the investment is supposed to be sound. Well, what is unsound in one respect can not be made sound by having the Federal Government say they insure the bonds.

I have no objection to a Federal Housing Authority or a State Housing Authority that may be properly administered, but the objection I have is to the banks taking money which is entrusted to them for safe keeping or for proper investment and without permission of the persons who make deposits of that money, invest it in these securities which are basically unsound. When we say the government insures something, we forget the government is simply a collection of the people and the trouble has been that our government has invested in too many insecure things. If it is necessary to erect houses as temporary shelters for the defense workers, bonds might be issued for that purpose and the people can invest in them voluntarily as a patriotic duty, but it is not sound and it is not right to take the money of depositors in banks and trust companies and invest it in this class of securities.

We know that the Federal Government has increased the indebtedness of the United States to a very alarming extent. If we are going to recover or get out from under this burden, it can only be done through sound financing for the next fifty or seventy-five years, unless the Federal Government repudiates its debts, and that has been the situation in other countries in the past, and I do not see how this country can get out of doing the same thing, and that is the reason I think that these investments of the people's money are not proper.

At the time of the French Revolution the orgies of that revolution were due very largely to the fact that the government issued one issue of paper money after another, until it became a saying that the paper money press and the guillotine go hand in hand, one supplements the other. We know what happened at the time of the World War or shortly after the World War in Germany.

In one of the estates which I settled up some years ago

I found a great collection of German bonds, millions of dollars of paper marks. Of course this man had bought them up as an investment but they turned out to be perfectly worthless. I recall an incident which happened in my own county, where a lady related that she had been a citizen of Germany and after the World War her insurance policy on her deceased husband was paid to her in worthless marks. Before the war the amount would have been about $35,000 but it was almost worthless in the paper money which was paid to her. If we do not get back to safe, sane and sound financing, our government can not expect to do anything different than the governments of other countries which have preceded us.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Warren will proceed.

WHATS WRONG WITH THE UNITED STATES

Mr. CHAPMAN. Last Saturday was Flag Day and from a million poles over the Nation, Old Glory flew free and fluttered in the breeze. And yet, I wonder how many knew that it was an emigrant boy who dreamed of a day to venerate the flag and finally as the twilight of life was dawning, saw his dream realized. We, born under the Stars and Stripes do not feel pulsing through our veins, the blood of veneration of the flag that the foreign born American feels. We are prone to believe the flag was always there, a symbol of life to which we were born.

Do you feel a surging of your blood, a tingle in your heart and a feeling of pride when the flag passes by? Do you feel that the flag symbolizes all of the freedom to which you are born or did you ever stop to think of it that way. Have you ever wondered what would happen if Old Glory ceased to fly free and untrammelled in the breezes? Can you visualize what would happen if the Stars and Stripes went down in defeat and was trampled underfoot by a conquering foe? Would you be willing to give all you have for that flag—money, home and life?

I pray you stop in the State Museum one of these days and study the group there depicting the Birth of the Flag. What must have stirred in the hearts of those in that group. A Nation composed of a handful of brave hearts and stout bodies defying one of the great Kings of the world and "declaring itself free." With thoughtful mind, recall the direction given in making the flag, how it depicts the strength of the tiny Nation and then trace the adding of the stars as we grew into the Democratic stature of today. The greatest Democratic Nation in the world.

In all men's hearts there is a love of liberty, but in some Nations it has been stifled and the people so regimented that their thoughts have become dulled by propoganda and crushed by ruthless men. And yet, I say that in those hearts there beats a love of liberty. Look back, if you will, at the groups of Germans who fled Europe and came to the new world. The group in St. Louis for instance that drilled in the Turner Halls and secretly armed, and by their prompt action saved the St. Louis arsenal when southern sympathizers would have seized it and its supplies. There was liberty in those hearts.

And since the World War No. 1 in Europe, nations arose with liberty as the goal. Czecho Slovakia which became known as "The Yankees of Europe" when it exercised its liberties. The Dutch with an inherent love for equality; the Belgians with their freedom of press and speech, was a fine Nation, and the Norwegians, Swedes and Finns, all sturdy, liberty loving men. And I take it that their love of liberty and freedom is still alive, still vibrant and seeking to arise above the welter of woe, the torrents of blood and seething mass of spies that beset them on every hand. We read of explosions within those countries, of trains being wrecked of the disappearance of German officers, etc., and one can read between the lines that the struggle for liberty is still being carried on.

Germany, Italy and Russia with Japan today rank as the blackest spots on the whole earth. Their flags fly but of what are they symbolical? Do the flags cry out as they sway in the gusts of wind "Come to me and I will give you succor;" "Here under my folds there is peace, freedom of speech, freedom of worship and freedom of the press?" Nay, a thousand times nay. They simply bespeak the arrogant flaunting in the face of the people and the world the autocratic, ruthless, demoniacal demand "For a New Order." One in which the will of every man, woman and child must be bent to a ruthless dictator. One in which life and property are ruled by the state with a hand of steel. Morality is gone; the woman of the land mere breeding stock for cannon fodder and the home but a myth. Cosy firesides and the evening rocking chair for the grandfather, the prattle of little ones and father and mother love is but a legend.

And yet, in our land, aye in this capitol, there are men who prate knowingly that "Hitler is right in destroying the insane, the crippled and the blind who are only burdens on the state." They applaud the efforts of Hitler to breed a superior race. And allow me to ask, of what are such men thinking? Their words only give comfort to the dictators and aid in spreading the subtle thought that is permeating our country. They are the type of which the poet said "A little learning is a dangerous thing."

Today as never before our Nation is being assailed by a barrage of clever propaganda designed to lead the ill informed astray and from my conversation with many men I find that some of the teachings of the subversive groups have lodged. Good men who are native born; who have made their all under the Stars and Stripes are being misled and by their remarks cause others to feel that perhaps there is something good after all under dictatorships.

To every true lover of the Land of the Free it is appalling to feel that there are men so blind as to feel that in Hitler and his cohorts there can remain one iota of decency, truth or humanity. They possess none of these traits. But I feel that in our Nation today there are many men who would sell themselves to the enemies of our country and perform acts that halt and hinder our efforts to arm, and to give aid to the Nations that are fighting the group that would destroy Democracy throughout the world.

Revert in mind again to the days of '76 when men furnished with their own rifles, when women by the light of pine knots dyed and sewed the uniforms of their men folk and sent them forth to fight and after kissing husbands and sons farewell, turned to the plow. There was a love of freedom then that would put to shame the half hearted example we are giving today.

Our sons by the thousands are pouring into camps to learn the rudiments of war and of how to die for their land. God Bless Them. On shipboard, other thousands are learning how to carry on the work of Paul Jones, Decatur, Sampson and Dewey, whose feats with ships and roaring guns have written blazing words across the pages of history.

And we at home, what are we doing. Our papers are filled with stories of strikes and of contests to get more dollars for the work of turning out planes, guns and machines, food and clothing for the fresh faced youths who at $21. per month will be in the front lines. What a spectacle it is to find our army having to "capture factories" that men who want to work can do so! Our President by ordering the army into the California airplane plant served notice on the hybride agitators that our program will not be halted and that we are going on to victory.

In a speech earlier this year I said that: "concentration camps" should yawn for the labor leaders who in their struggle for power halt the march of our army and the sailing of our navy. I have not changed my mind and I still feel that too long have we coddled the trouble monger who is undoubtedly paid by funds from abroad for stopping the onward march of our industry. Nearly five millions of man days have been lost in strikes. Suppose they had been utilized, what would they have produced.

In my minds eye, I can see Hitler and his maddened crew gloating as he hears of factories closed and production slowed by the "fifth columnists" at work here.

I read recently in a newspaper that the French are ignoring the German conquerers in France. That they pass the Germans with a look ahead that places the invaders out of their vision. And then and there it occurred to me that the men and women of the United States could inflict that treatment on the persons who are talking and working in the ranks of the Wheelers, Nyes and Lindberghs. Give them the stony glare, the icy gaze and the isolation treatment. They want to be isolationists so make them such. Make them a group apart and as did the people back in the days when Old Glory was born make them feel they are not of the race that loves freedom and liberty.

It is time for us to be united and we must be a Nation with a singleness of purpose oneness of aim and remember the words of the old admonition "United we stand, divided we fall."

Pray God we may not fall.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask permission to address the Senate.

THE PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, last Tuesday afternoon the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, moved that Senate Bill No. 522 be placed on the postponed Calendar, for further study I was informed. I threatened at that time that I would call that bill up every fifteen minutes until such time as the bill might be called up and might pass or be sent back to committee. I did not go through with my threat because of the extreme courtesy shown to me by many of my colleagues on both sides of this Senate but I wish now to serve notice—this is no warning and no threat; only a friendly notice—it is my intention tomorrow to call from the postponed Calendar Senate Bill No. 522 and I shall ask my colleagues to either defeat or pass it.

I am giving this notice to my colleague from Allegheny County or to anyone else who may be interested, so that they may take tonight and study Senate Bill No. 522 and be fairly acquainted with its contents, and if tomorrow they wish to interrogate me upon its contents I shall be too happy to stand here and answer any questions which may be asked of me.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, June 16, 1941

The House met at 8 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. Prayer will be offered at the consent of the Chaplain by the Reverend T. Stacy Capers, of the First Presbyterian Church of Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, as the guest of the Honorable George E. Jones of Blair County.

Reverend T. Stacy Capers offered the following prayer:

Our gracious and loving Heavenly Father, we would invoke Thy kind blessing upon us as we meet together to transact the business of this our House of our grand and glorious democratic republic. God bless this great Commonwealth which we love so dearly; God bless these Thy servants who gather here tonight to transact the business of civic righteousness. We thank Thee whenever we transact the business of civic righteousness. We always represent or misrepresent Thee, Our God, and so we pray Thee tonight, to give us wisdom from above, give to these our Representatives, Thy servants, not only to know what to do, but to do Thy will when they know it.

We pray Thee tonight to help us to come with prayer in our hearts because we all do desire to do the best we can.

May we then look to Thee, O God, to help us to realize we are transacting the King's business, that this is our Father's work, and in this day when there comes a tremendous challenge to Thy great kingdom and enterprise, may we not betray the proud trust, but may we stand loyal and true for the privilege of representing Thee in the courts of free governments in the world.

Now, Our heavenly Father, we pray Thee that Thy holy spirit brood over us. May we feel that it is good to do Thy will. God bless us, God bless our whole country, God bless the Governor of this great Commonwealth and the President of the United States of America. We pray Thee tonight to bless the world, the disillusioned war torn world. May they make peace with Thee so that the time may come when they may make peace one with another.

Now, help us to do our part where we are, that we may help establish Thy kingdom on earth as it is in Heaven. May we have in mind but one end in view, the advancement of Thy kingdom and to glorify Thy name. Praise be to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In the name of Him who died for us that we might live for Him, not only hereafter but here and now, we ask it all. Amen.

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1941.

Whereas, On March 28, 1940, Rachel Taylor, a young woman student at the Pennsylvania State College, was attacked and murdered in the vicinity of State College; and

Whereas, In spite of more than a year's continuous investigation by the Pennsylvania Motor Police and by local authorities, the perpetrator or perpetrators of this brutal crime have not yet been apprehended; and

Whereas, Within the past year a dozen or more women, in or about the borough of State College, have been attacked by an unknown assailant or assailants, possibly the same who committed the murder of Rachel Taylor; and

Whereas, An attack upon a woman, in State College, was made as recently as two days ago; and

Whereas, The immediate apprehension of the person or persons responsible for these crimes is absolutely essential for the protection and safety of women residing in State College and vicinity; and

Whereas, The failure to apprehend the person or persons guilty of these attacks may well render many parents unwilling to have their daughters attend the Pennsylvania State College, at State College; and

Whereas, It would seem that the perpetration of as many as a dozen different attacks upon women, in a comparatively small community within a short period of time, should afford a sufficient clue as to the identity of the person or persons involved, so that the Pennsylvania Motor Police could solve one or all of these crimes; and

Whereas, Colonel Lynn G. Adams, Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, has journeyed to State College on various occasions and has assumed personal supervision of the investigation into these crimes; and

Whereas, The complete failure of the officials, under his supervision, to solve even one of this series of attacks, together with the fact that the Senate of this General

Assembly has refused to confirm his appointment as Commissioner, would seem to indicate that the initiative, ability and persistence of Colonel Adams as a police officer and particularly in connection with the investigation of these assaults, should be carefully investigated; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House appoint a committee of five members of the House, whose duty it shall be to examine into the manner in which Colonel Lynn G. Adams has conducted the investigation of the numerous attacks upon women in the vicinity of State College during the past fifteen months, for the purpose of determining whether the failure of such investigation to produce any definite results in even a single case is due in any degree to inadequate, indifferent or careless supervision. It shall be the duty of the aforesaid committee to conduct its investigation immediately and to make its report to the House of Representatives before the adjournment of this session, together with its recommendations as to any further steps which might be taken to end this outbreak of criminal assaults in the vicinity of State College.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

L. 510) entitled 'An Act providing for the licensure and regulation of certain private nursing homes and private hospitals conferring certain powers and duties upon the Department of Welfare and providing penalties' limiting the provisions of said act to exclude nursing homes and hospitals operated on a non-profit basis."

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Stine for Mr. BENTZEL for the week.

Mr. KRISE for himself for the remainder of the week after tonight.

Mr. George E. Jones for Mr. FISHER for the week.

Mr. Stambaugh for Mr. WAGNER for the week.

Mr. ALLMOND for himself for the remainder of the week after tomorrow's session.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BENTZEL from the Committee on Highways reported as committed House Bill No. 1217, entitled:

An Act regulating and establishing prevailing wage rates to be used by contractors employed by the Department of Highways in the construction of highways and street paving; and imposing certain duties on the Department of Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PRESLEY N. JONES asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, on April 16th of this year, I introduced House Bill No. 1281, which relates to Venue of Civil Actions against insurance companies or commonly called "Service of Process." This bill was referred to the Insurance Committee whose able chairman is Mr. John J. Baker. Due to the introduction of this bill, an association, which I hold in very high regard, has now taken cognizance of the evil as it exists and I am deeply flattered by the fact that the Special Advisory Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association under the direction of the very capable Mr. John H. Fertig, Esq. will very shortly comprehend this subject within the rules of procedure to be promulgated by the Supreme Court in the field of rules called Corporations or similar entities as parties. Naturally, these new rules, will, by an Act of Assembly of 1937, supersede the Venue Sections I desired to amend. Therefore, since the correction will soon be made due to the introduction of this bill, I respectfully suggest that H. R. 1281 be not reported out.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODRING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, on March 13 of this year the Legislature of our sister State of North Carolina enacted by an overwhelming vote a concurrent resolution memorializing the President and the Congress of the United States to take steps toward the establishment of a Federal Union of the democratic nations of the civilized world, to the end that human freedom, peace, and prosperity might be perpetuated in a world where the advances in science have made the elimination of war a matter of impelling necessity. In so doing the North Carolina Legislature has earned the distinction of being the first legislative body in the world formally to endorse a movement for International Government which is steadily gaining favor among the American people and among other free peoples.

It is fitting and proper that we in Pennsylvania should take our place in the leadership of this cause, at once so idealistic and so practical, and so decidedly American in its basic philosophy. It was on the sacred soil of Pennsylvania that the greatest Federal Union of free men in all human history was formed. It was here that a plan of government was given birth which has brought peace and progress to an entire continent and has brought forth fruits of civilized living far exceeding the fondest dreams of the Constitutional Fathers.

To urge the extension of our Federal principles to embrace our sister democracies of the Western world is to be in accord with the soundest concepts of reasoning. And in the Federalist Papers themselves may be found the suggestion that so perfect is our Federal plan of union among free states and free men that its principles very well might be extended upon a worldwide basis.

I have the honor to report that it was in the County of Northampton, and in the District which I represent, that the movement for International Federal Union, in its modern form, which is growing so rapidly, was first proclaimed six years ago. In 1935 Mr. John Francis Goldsmith, a member of the bar, and a year earlier the candidate of his party for a seat in this very House, published a book entitled "President Randolph, As I Knew Him". The work was a narrative essay setting forth in accurate detail a plan of International Federal Union, modelled upon the American Constitution, for the preservation of the peace and security and democratic way of life of our Western civilization. Today that movement is becoming the hope of Mankind.

This book is of particular interest to us. President Randolph, the leading character of the story, was a native of Stroudsburg in my neighboring County of Monroe. He began his political career with membership in this very House, proceeding then to the Senate of Pennsylvania, then becoming Governor of this State, and finally President of the United States. In his high office as Chief Magistrate of the Nation he played his important role in bringing into being, in the year 1957, a Federal Union of the democracies.

In many other respects the book is of interest. It has an amazing prophetic quality in predicting an American armament program and an American air fleet in the proportions which we witness today, as well as a collaboration between the President of the United States and the Prime Minister of Great Britain as close and as significant as that which is now taking place. The book was widely and highly proclaimed by the press of three nations at the time of its appearance.

I have the further honor to report that its author has kindly collaborated with me in the preparation of a resolution which I have introduced to which I invite the especial attention and consideration of all the Members of this House when the Resolution comes before them for passage and adoption.

SENATE MESSAGE

HOUSE BILL CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

HOUSE BILL No. 573.

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 573.

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Department of the Commonwealth, interest on the public debt, and the support of the public schools for two years beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one; and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, last week the Governor in his message to this House made certain statements relative to what he proposed to do to the particular bill which the Speaker has just signed. Without any thought of discussing the bill in its entirety, but only a portion of that bill, I desire to make these remarks.

I call first to the attention of this House the Governor's statement in relation to the appropriation contained in that bill for the taking over of the mental institutions. I do this, Mr. Speaker, for the reason that I have already warned the Budget Secretary that if the Governor follows out his announced purpose, a condition will arise that will cause veritable chaos in the state of Pennsylvania insofar as it relates to the mental hospitals. I have advised the Budget Secretary that the Governor must of necessity go slowly on his announced budget, and if he blunders—if he follows out his thought he will blunder—then upon him and him alone will rest the entire burden and responsibility.

I call the attention now of the Members of this House to that portion of his statement in which he states:

"No provision having been made by the Legislature to raise moneys to cover the twelve million dollars additional cost which would be saddled upon the state by the taking over of these institutions"—and he refers to the mental institutions—"and no final decision having been made by the Legislature on my urgent recommendation that the effective date of these laws will be postponed for two years and, further, it appearing that the appropriations included for the purpose are inadequate to carry out this program, I shall therefore reduce the appropriations in this field to the amounts set forth in my budget message of last February."

I point out to the membership of this House first of all that twelve million dollars is not necessary in the particular appropriation. Over half of that figure, Mr. Speaker, is represented by loss of revenues and is not reflected in the appropriation bill. Why the Governor of Pennsylvania would wish to mislead the membership of this House by quoting the figures of twelve million dollars and then subsequently sending it out through the mails to various municipalities of this state is more than I can see.

The Governor knows it is not true, and the membership of this House know it is not true. Then again, why he should say that this Legislature has not acted upon his recommendation of postponement I do not understand. He requested it and we have ignored the request, and that is action final. I am saying to the Governor he has long since known that he is taking over the mental hospitals; that has been the mandate of our party, and no further action is necessary.

Might I say, Mr. Speaker, that that is now an accomplished fact, it is the law of this state. Those hospitals now are state property and the Governor recognized them as such in his proclamation. Of course it is true after his proclamation he has tried at various places to indicate that he is not taking them over. Nevertheless, he has so proclaimed in accordance with the law, and those hospitals are a part of the state institutions now.

Then, he speaks of inadequacy. Mr. Speaker, may I state that his recommendation for institutions owned by the state prior to June first was seventeen million dollars. The Appropriations Committee went over this request and cut that amount down to $16,500,000. And then we considered the need of these particular mental institutions involving the expenditure, as he said, of $6,900,000. We went into some considerable study in relation to that, and finally came to the conclusion that the amount needed was $6,100,000, and we added that to the sum of $16,500,000, and that total sum is the amount that appears in the appropriation bill.

Now, if the Governor of Pennsylvania wishes to cut that amount down to seventeen million dollars, he will find himself in a position that he must not only operate the State's own institutions prior to June first, but also those institutions which under the law he was forced to take over on June first, and I now publicly state, Mr. Speaker, that if the Governor of Pennsylvania cuts the amount mentioned there, then the burden and the censure will be his. He can not, Mr. Speaker, run away from the problem of taking care of our mental cases in Pennsylvania by the mere gesture of running a red pencil through the appropriation bill and saying, "We are not responsible."

I am saying, Mr. Speaker, that the responsibility for the care of our mental cases in Pennsylvania belongs to the State under the laws of this land, and the Governor of Pennsylvania must meet that burden, and he can not meet it facetiously by saying, "I will reduce the appropriation," to a sum which sum later will prove not to be adequate.

Then in passing, Mr. Speaker, may I make a few comments in regard to his letter, a political letter, which was sent throughout Pennsylvania at the expense of the taxpayers of Pennsylvania, a letter in which he tried to explain why the subsidies due school districts were not paid on their due date, payments due in November of 1940 and payments due in February of 1941.

Can you imagine a Governor of this state sending out to officers of the municipalities of this state a letter laying at the doors of the Democrats responsibility for his failure, the Republican failure to make payments due in November of 1940, before this legislature was in session? Yes, before any man in this House was sworn into his office, the Governor of Pennsylvania now says that you men are responsible because he did not pay his bills on that day.

I am pointing it out, Mr. Speaker, only for the purpose of showing the chicanery of this man who sits in our Governor's chair endeavoring to fool, to bamboozle the people of Pennsylvania in an effort to cover up his mismanagement. I am saying to that Governor of Pennsylvania, I am saying to your party that I am now warning the Governor of Pennsylvania not to cut the appropriation to the mental institutions. We are giving you fair warning that the responsibility will be yours if you do.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. COOPER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, on June 1st, 1941, the State took over and assumed the management of the Allegheny County Home at Woodville, and as the result of this action over six hundred men and women employes were transferred to the State payroll. As state employes these six hundred men and women are entitled to become members of the State Retirement System. Until May 31, 1941, these same six hundred men and women had been employes of Allegheny County and as such had contributed to the Allegheny Retirement Fund. Their contributions were matched by Allegheny County, and they established a certain number of years of service to their credit. Realizing that these employes have now, through no act of their own become members of the state payroll and no longer able to retain their status with the Allegheny County Retirement Fund, my colleague Mr. Thompson and I have had a series of conferences with the Secretary of the State Employees' Retirement Fund as well as its Actuary, looking toward a solution or rather a preservation of the rights of these six hundred men and women Allegheny County employes now in the Allegheny County Retirement Fund.

As a result of those conferences a bill has been drawn up and introduced this evening by Mr. Thompson and I to protect the right and benefit of those employes in the Allegheny County Retirement Fund. If this bill or a similar bill is not passed by this Legislature then the rights of those employes as former employes of Allegheny County must be held in abeyance until the next Legislature meets, and realizing that we are drawing closer and closer to adjournment, and time is very essential in this matter, the purpose of these remarks this evening is to plead with the Chairman and the Members of this Committee to which this bill will be referred, to earnestly consider this bill with a view that the same may become a law at this session of the Legislature.

SENATE MESSAGE

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 16, 1941.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvenes on Monday, June 23, 1941, at 3:30 o'clock p. m. (Eastern Standard Time), and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvenes on Monday, June 23, 1941, at 8 o'clock p. m. (Eastern Standard Time).

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the House this evening a former member from Adams County, Mr. G. R. Thompson.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON
HOUSE BILL No. 616

Mr. D'ORTONA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 616.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FISS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, many bills have been introduced in this Session relating to subversive un-American activities.

Not one of these measures have been reported out of the Committee of Education.

Does it not seem strange that all of these measures have been kept in committee, and not a single one reported out for vote upon the floor of the House?

When nearly every newspaper in the Commonwealth carries headlines of subversive teaching and unusual un-American activities, does the Committee of Education wish to assume full responsibility, and not report out any one of these bills?

The people of this Commonwealth do not want you to keep bottled up in your committee all these bills, but expect you to report out one or more so that the boards of education may have power by law to expel teachers in our public schools who encourage and teach subversive and un-American teachings.

Laws referred to are badly needed in many school districts of Pennsylvania, but if you do not need these laws in your own immediate district the law can do you no harm, you have no need for it.

If on the other hand the law is needed in one or more districts you are doing untold injury to the schools and scholars.

School children are our greatest assets, but if we do not give them this needed legislation they are bound to become decided liabilities.

Our Forefathers who founded this Commonwealth handed down to us one of the richest legacies man could give. The inheritance of a great public school system with more than 2,000,000 boys and girls.

Shall we permit a single boy or girl to become Nazi, Fascist, or Communist and a liability of the State?

Shall we be worthy keepers of so great a trust?

Is it your desire, Mr. Chairman and members of the Educational Committee to carry so great a responsibility which extends to every home and fireside; even to the least of these two million boys and girls?

Shall we say to the people of this Commonwealth, that you are inexorable, that the responsibility, the resultant effects for good or evil rests upon your shoulders?

Let us place at least one law upon the statute books of Pennsylvania which will defeat the purpose of every anti-American group.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks of the gentleman from Monroe concerning the budget and the action of the Governor and the state-ments in his speech. I want first to call particular attention to the fact concerning the twelve million dollar shortage to which the Governor referred, and to which the gentleman from Monroe took exception. What the Governor said was that no provision had been made by the Legislature to raise the money, to cover the twelve million dollars additional cost which would be saddled upon the state by the taking over of these institutions.

Now, the gentleman says there is no twelve million dollars additional cost, but approximately half of that is loss of revenue, and approximately half of it is increase of appropriations, but whether it is loss of revenue or whether it is increase of appropriations, there is twelve million dollars of revenue that would have to be provided in order to balance the budget. What the Governor said very clearly was that those twelve million dollars had not been provided, and that is a fact which everybody who is acquainted with the provisions of the budget well knows to be true, and the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, well knows that to be true. And what is the result? Why, it just throws the budget another twelve million dollars out of balance, and that is the thing to which the Governor was referring.

I was interested also in the remarks that the gentleman made concerning the failure to meet the payments which are due at this time to a number of institutions, as were outlined particularly in the Governor's speech. I just want very briefly to review the things I have said on the floor of this House before in relation to that. I call your attention first to the fact that early in this session, there was introduced the Tax Anticipation Note bill. No action was taken on it, and a letter which I wrote to the gentleman from Allegheny who is the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, I called his attention to the importance of this piece of legislation and what the effect would be if it were not promptly passed. A copy of that letter was sent to the majority floor-leader of this House. Still no action was taken on it. Then quite late the bill was finally passed, and I call attention to the fact that when that bill was passed it contained in it a provision estimating the revenues unofficially at an amount higher than they were officially estimated to be, and that that would interfere with the sale of those tax anticipation notes.

The bill was passed by this House and sent over to the Senate with that defect in it. The Senate corrected it and then it was sent back here. The Senate had possession of that bill for a total of three days and that is all. Then it was sent back and a Conference Committee was appointed. It was suggested at that time that we take the estimate that was the lower of those amounts and insert in the bill the words "at least". That was not yielding to the other side, but it did put the bill in such form that the bankers after consideration of it agreed it would be satisfactory, and the attorneys that would pass upon the tax anticipation note issue agreed would meet the legal requirements and satisfy them as to form. But in spite of that fact the Conference Committee has failed to make a report because the gentlemen on the other side insist that they will not go along with putting in the official estimate, which is the lower of the two and inserting the words "Whereas at least this amount of revenue has been provided".

Now, the people of this Commonwealth can gather from that action only one thing, and that one thing is that there was a deliberate effort being made by the majority of this House to ruin the financial situation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to deliberately and willfully violate a pledge made by this House of Representatives as well as the Senate and the Governor to return to the special funds the moneys borrowed from them, during this month of June.

It now becomes too late to keep that solemn pledge made by this House of Representatives, not only during the 1929 Session, but made during the session of 1941, while the House was under the control of the present majority of this House. The people of Pennsylvania ought to know—I know it seems the majority of them do know, but everyone of these people ought to know the truth of that situation, and they ought to know why the money will not be paid to the firemen during the month of June. Why it is not paid today, Mr. Speaker, is because the Democratic party all during this session has hamstrung the Tax Anticipation Note bill and has continued to do so.

They ought to know, Mr. Speaker, that the reason why the Highway Department is being handicapped is because the majority of this House has bottled up and continued to bottle up the Tax Anticipation Note bill. All the counties and municipalities ought to know the truth of that situation.

Now, the gentleman picks out one or two small items upon which payment was delayed for a considerable length of time. He says, "Oh now they are blaming that on the Tax Anticipation Notes." I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that those payments would have been made over a month ago, and the reason why the school teachers of the first, second and third class districts, some of whom are not receiving their pay, are not receiving it is because the Tax Anticipation Note bill was not passed by this House, and that they continue to bottle up that bill.

The reason why subsidies to hospitals and other institutions, including the institutions of higher learning, have not been paid is because the Tax Anticipation Note bill has not been passed by this House. If that bill had been on the Governor's desk when it should have been on the Governor's desk, in the early part of May, those bills could have been paid at that time, because on the fifth of June we would have had money available, and the cash balance of the Commonwealth would have been in satisfactory condition, but back in May when the Tax Anticipation Note bill was not being passed by this House, back there when I had written a letter to the majority members of this House and they paid no attention to what was going on, and were paying no attention to the necessity for the passage of this bill, the State had to continue to hold cash enough to carry on its functions. I insist, Mr. Speaker, that had the State not done that, the State's cash balance today would have been so low that it would not be able to carry on the functions of government and send out relief checks.

Had the Tax Anticipation Note bill been passed in May, or had the Governor of this Commonwealth known that the Tax Anticipation Note money would have been in on June 5th as it should have been, then all those bills could have been paid during the month of May, because it would not have been necessary to save the cash balance of the Commonwealth in condition to carry on the necessary functions of the government and to send out the relief checks. and that is the reason why those few small items, as well as the larger item of seventy million dollars plus which was borrowed from the special funds was held up, because of the failure of the majority of this House to keep their pledge to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and pass the Tax Anticipation Note bill to provide the money for carrying out the provisions of the transfer act.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I will read a part of the letter that went out to some of these municipalities. It says "I have been requested by Governor James to explain the reason for the State being unable to make the payments referred to above on the date when due."

Now, certainly these payments were due in November of 1940, and the Tax Anticipation Note bill could have been passed in May or March or February of this year and still the payments would not have been made on their due dates.

I am pointing that out and wondering whether the gentleman, the minority leader will kindly explain to me, and even more than to me, he ought to explain to the school districts that received the letter, why the Governor didn't pay in November of 1940, before the Legislature was in session, before we had any right to be in session, before we had any right to take office.

Of course, we know the answer. The Governor guessed wrong in his budget of 1939-1941 just as he has been guessing wrong all the time; just as he is guessing wrong now. That is why he did not pay in 1940 and that is why he did not pay in 1941.

May I also correct the gentleman, the minority leader, and suggest that the mere passage of the Tax Anticipation Note bill is not sufficient; that in addition to that there are tax measures that have to be passed. In other words, the picture must be complete before the bill in relation to Tax Anticipation Notes is in shape or is able to be passed.

May I say, Mr. Speaker, and may I lay special emphasis on this, that if the Governor of Pennsylvania had a balanced budget in 1939-1941 he would not need Tax Anticipation Notes now to pay the bills due last year, and that is what he is complaining about, and the fault is his, Mr. Speaker, his because he did not have a balanced budget then, even though he pays lip service to the balanced budget. If he had he would not be in the position he is in today, and if he listens to the Democrats he will find that in the next two years he will give proper administration to this state. If he does not, then of course, the people are the losers.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, anybody who has been following the remarks of the gentleman for the last month would certainly be interested again in his remarks today. He started to shift around today again. You know he backed up on the question of deficits. It certainly is interesting that the gentleman would come on the floor of the House today and talk about a balanced budget when the budget which he himself submitted unofficially to this House of Representatives left out a number of items, showing definitely that it was not balanced, and then increased estimates of revenue way over that of the Governor's in order to cover up another unbalanced budget.

I am not going to go over all that debate again; we have gone over it on the floor of the House a number of times, but it was interesting to see him make another right-about-face in his suggestions.

I do, however, feel that there should be inserted, inasmuch as there has been so much discussion about it, the entire letter to which the gentleman has referred. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I would like to read into the record this letter.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 13, 1941.

In Re: Payments Due Firemen' Relief Associations
by the Commonwealth

I have been requested by Governor James to explain the reason for the State being unable to make the payment referred to above on the date when due.

The entire financial program of the State has been thrown into confusion by failure of the majority party in the lower House of the General Assembly either to accept Governor James' budget or to enact an alternative program which could legally be accepted by the Administration.

Payment of the items listed above is dependent upon the sale of tax anticipation notes to provide cash needed for State operations. Legislation authorizing the sale of such notes is under consideration, but passage of it has failed thus far, for the reason that the majority leaders of the House have refused to accept the official estimates of State revenues, whereas the Administration is legally bound by those estimates and, further, the use of other than the official estimates of revenue would, we are informed, destroy the market for these notes.

Attempts to compromise this matter by the inclusion of the words "at least," ahead of the official estimate of receipts, have been rejected by the House majority leaders.

For this reason all State payments, such as the one referred to in this letter, must necessarily be delayed indefinitely.

My purpose in writing you is to let you know that this Administration fully recognizes the solemn obligation imposed upon us to make these overdue payments and has used every means of persuasion to secure the necessary action from the majority leaders in the House to prevent further delay.

I can assure you that we will proceed to make these payments at the earliest possible moment when legislation permitting this has been enacted.

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD B. LOGAN
Budget Secretary

Enclosure.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. BRETHERICK asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in line with the remarks made by Representative Fiss, I would like to read to the Members of the House of Representatives a telegram which has been sent to some of the Members by the American Legion of the State of Pennsylvania, of which organization I have the honor to be a member. That telegram reads as follows:

"Pennsylvania Legislature now holding in committee Legion sponsored bills dealing with subversive activities particularly bills removing that element from ballot and from our schools. We believe their objectives are strictly non partisan and no American can legitimately take issue with intent of the proposed legislation. Eighty thousand Pennsylvania Legionnaires and forty-five thousand women of Auxiliary view with concern the inactivity of the House on our legislation. As a representative of the American form of government we urge your cooperation in preserving the bulwarks of democracy by insisting upon action on our bills designed to thwart the activities of the foreign agents in our midst."

I wonder if I may read an excerpt from an editorial in this morning's Philadelphia Inquirer dealing with this same legislation:

"One of the measures would outlaw the Communist Party from the ballot in Pennsylvania, in step with similar action taken by a number of other states."

Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask you to please call the House to order. The gentlemen on the other side of the House are apparently not interested in this measure because it deals with subversive legislation.

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order.

Mr. BRETHERICK. The editorial continues:

"This bill would deprive the Reds of rights and privileges they have enjoyed too long and have never deserved; rights and privileges that belong to regular American political parties but not to a branch agency of a foreign Power dedicated to the overthrow of American institutions.

"The Communists are against this bill, of course, but why should any loyal American oppose it? Yet it has been stifled in the House Committee on Elections for the past two months.

"Another important anti-Red proposal, already passed by the Senate, would put an end to the intolerable situation now existent whereby Boards of Education are powerless to dismiss school teachers for Communistic activity.

"The bill would grant the Boards the required authority to get rid of teachers who try to contaminate their charges with Communist doctrine. Is there any good reason why a legislator worthy the name patriot should not support this measure, particularly in view of the recent revelations concerning Philadelphia teachers? Yet this bill has been held inactive for two months in the House Committee on Education."

Mr. Speaker, I say to you there is no more important piece of legislation before this House of Representatives than the bills which are now languishing in Committee, which if passed would tend to eliminate these subversive activities in our great Commonwealth.

The Department of Education in Pennsylvania has just ruled that one who engages in Communistic activity does not come within the provisions of the Teacher's Tenure Act, and such a person may with impunity continue to teach the slimy principles of Communism to your children and my children while we must look upon it powerless to do anything at all.

Mr. Speaker, the American Federation of Labor has seen fit to revoke the charter of the Philadelphia Federation of Teachers, a radical, and I think a Communistic organization. Notwithstanding the fact that the American Federation of Labor has seen fit to revoke the charter of the Philadelphia Federation of Teachers, the Philadelphia taxpayers must continue to have the members of that organization teach their children. I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that it is a crime and a disgrace to the state of Pennsylvania when a body of representatives sent to this hall to do the right thing as far as the taxpayers are concerned, refuses to bring out on the floor of this House for consideration, whether they be passed or not, bills which tend to prevent foreign isms from creeping into our schools and into our form of government. I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that the bills which have been introduced to prevent subversive activities are bills which will prove a bulwark in our fight to preserve freedom and democracy as we know them, and I urge every member of this House, regardless of his political complexion, to see that these bills are blasted out of committee and placed on the floor of this House so that we who pride ourselves on being Americans will have an opportunity to vote on them.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, this is one of the series of bills which was suggested by the Department of State to enable soldiers in the service to vote during the time they are in the service. I understand there are a number of amendments proposed to this bill and to the others in this series. Some of these amendments have been acted upon or recommended by the Department of State. Certain of the others have not been seen by them, I think. However, I see no objection to the inserting of these amendments. The important thing at the present time is to get this bill passed and sent over to the Senate, and if after careful consideration it is found that any of these amendments ought to be changed I feel sure we will be able to work it out in conference between the two Houses. It seems to me the important thing at the present time is to get this bill passed, and I feel confidant that the gentlemen on the other side as well as on our own side feel that the best interests of the Commonwealth would be carried out by enacting this bill into law. For that reason we have no objections to these amendments although we may not subscribe to all of them.

Section 1301. Qualified Electors in Actual Military Service.—Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service under a requisition from the President of the United States or by the authority of this Commonwealth, and as such absent from their place of residence on the days appointed by law for holding any election within this State, or on the days for holding special elections to fill vacancies, such electors shall be entitled at such times to exercise the right of suffrage as fully as if they were present at their usual places of election in the manner prescribed in this article and whether at the time of voting such electors shall be within the limits of this State or not.

Section 1302. Ballots.—Ballots for use by electors in actual military service under the provisions of this article shall be prepared sufficiently in advance by the county boards of election and shall be by such boards distributed as hereinafter provided to the electors in actual military service entitled to vote at any election. Such ballots shall be in substantially the form prescribed by article ten of this act for ballots to be used at the same elections within this Commonwealth, but in cases where there is not time in the opinion of the county boards of elections to print on said ballots the names of the various candidates for district, county and local offices, the ballots shall contain blank spaces only under the titles of such offices in which the voters may insert the names of the candidates for whom they desire to vote and in such cases the county boards of elections shall furnish to the elector in actual military service, a sufficient number of printed lists containing the names of all the candidates who have been regularly nominated under the provisions of this act for the use of the elector in preparing his ballot.

Section 1303. Duties of County Boards.—In the case of any election at which votes are cast by electors in actual military service under the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of each county board of elections to withhold the completion of the computation of the returns of the county until the second Friday after such election within which period all votes cast by electors of the county in actual military service as provided in this article shall be added to and included in its computation of the returns of such election but not afterwards.

Section 1304. Manner of Voting by Electors in Actual Military Service.—Electors mentioned in section one thousand three hundred and one, shall have the right to apply not less than thirty (30) days and not more than fifty (50) days before any election for a "military ballot." The application shall be in writing signed by the applicant in his own hand and addressed to the county board of elections of the county wherein the applicant is registered to vote and shall state the county and the city, borough or township and the precise ward or election district in or the street and number at which the applicant is registered to vote. If the application is for a ballot for a primary election it shall also state the political party in which the applicant is enrolled.

Section 1305. Ballots and Envelopes for Electors in Actual Military Service.—The county boards of elections shall prepare and upon request, deliver to the said electors in actual military service, a ballot by registered mail in an envelope addressed to each such elector at the address furnished by the elector in his application for a military ballot. Such ballots shall be prepared and printed in the same form as the ballots provided for by section one thousand three hundred and two of this act, but shall have in addition, printed, stamped or endorsed thereon the words "Military Ballot." The county boards of elections shall also provide and deliver as aforesaid, three envelopes for each military ballot of such size and shape that will permit the placing of one within the other. On the first, shall be printed, stamped or endorsed only the words "Military Ballot." On the second, shall be printed, the affidavit of the elector together with the jurat of the officer in whose presence the ballot is marked and before whom the affidavit is made, such affidavit and jurat to be in form prescribed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. On the third, shall be placed the name and address of the county board of elections of the proper county. All military ballots and envelopes shall be mailed, at least fifteen (15) days before the election involved, to the electors requesting them.

Each county board of elections shall print and post in a conspicuous public place at its office a list setting forth the name, present location, and local voting district or ward of every elector to whom a military ballot has been sent. This list shall be posted at least ten (10) days before the primary or election involved and shall also set forth the total number of military ballots prepared by the county board of elections. Copies of such list shall be furnished upon request to the county chairman of each political party and political body.

Section 1306. Voting by Electors in Actual Military Service.—Any such elector may make application prior to the day of any election to the county boards of elections for a "Military Ballot." At any time after receiving such military ballot but on or before the day of the election, such elector in actual military service may appear before any commissioned officer of the military or naval forces either within or without the Commonwealth or before any officer of this or any other state or territory of the United States authorized to administer oaths and mark such ballot under the scrutiny of such officer in the following manner. The voter shall first display the ballot to such officer as evidence that the same is unmarked and shall then proceed to mark the ballot in the presence of such officer, but in such manner that such officer is unable to see how the same is marked, and then fold the ballot, enclose and securely seal the same in the envelope on which is printed, stamped or endorsed "Military Ballot." This envelope shall then be placed in the one on which is printed the affidavit of the elector and the jurat of the officer before whom the elector appears and such envelope, sealed in like manner by the elector. The elector shall then make out, subscribe and swear to the affidavit printed on the face of such envelope and the jurat shall be subscribed by the officer before whom the affidavit was taken. Such ballot and envelope shall then be securely sealed in the third envelope which the elector shall send by mail to the county board of elections of the proper county with postage prepaid.

Section 1307. Receipt and Counting of Military Ballots. —The county board of elections, upon receipt of such third envelope, shall safely keep the same in their office until they meet to canvass the vote of such election under the provisions of this act.

At such time the members of the county board of elections, may, in person, dispose of military ballots in the manner hereinafter set forth or they may designate a sufficient number of clerks to perform such duties. When it is determined that clerks shall be appointed, the total number, shall, in every case be in multiples of three, each member of the county board of elections shall appoint an equal number thereof.

Watchers appointed in the manner prescribed by and subject to the restrictions imposed by section four hundred and seventeen of this act, insofar as applicable, shall be permitted to be present whenever any of the envelopes containing military ballots are opened and whenever any such ballots are counted and recorded.

In disposing of military ballots, the county board of elections or the clerks designated as aforesaid shall first examine the third envelope and set aside, unopened, all such envelopes which bear a post mark later than the date of the particular election day involved. The envelopes thus set aside shall be retained for a period of one year and then destroyed unopened.

They shall then open the third envelopes not thus set aside and after examining the affidavit and jurat, shall compare the signature of such absent voter with his signature upon any register or other record in their possession. If the county board is satisfied that the signatures correspond, that the affidavit and jurat are sufficient and that the voter has been duly registered as provided by law, they shall announce the name of the elector and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge the same in like manner and for the same causes as such elector could have been challenged had he presented himself in his own district to cast his vote. If there are no challenges they shall open the second envelope in such manner as not to destroy the affidavit and jurat printed thereon, which envelope shall be kept in their office for a period of one year thereafter. All envelopes on which are printed, stamped or endorsed the words "Military Ballot" and containing the ballots shall be put into one depository at one time and said depository well shaken and the envelopes containing the ballots mixed before any ballot is taken therefrom. The county board shall then break the seals of such envelopes and record the said ballots in the same manner as district election officers are required to record votes under the provisions of this act. In like manner all military ballots received prior to completion of the computation of the returns of the county shall be counted and recorded and upon the completion of the computation of the returns of the county, the votes cast upon the military ballots shall then be added to the votes cast within the county, city, borough, incorporated town, township, ward or election district as designated on each ballot. Military ballots shall be safely kept by the county board of elections for a period of one year.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1322, Printer's No. 969, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 463) entitled as amended "An act providing for the incorporation as bodies corporate and politic of 'Authorities' for municipalities counties and townships defining the same and prescribing the rights powers and duties of such Authorities authorizing such Authorities to acquire construct improve maintain and operate projects and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor providing for the payment of such bonds and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof conferring the right of eminent domain on such Authorities authorizing such Authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal Government or any agency thereof and for other purposes" by changing the method by which notice of the formation of a municipal authority shall be made public further regulating incorporation purposes and existence of the authority defining procedure whereby an authority can enter into contracts and dispose of its bonds imposing additional qualifications and duties on members of the authority imposing civil liability on members of the board and officers of an authority in certain cases requiring annual audits imposing additional duties on the court of common pleas giving authorities right of eminent domain in certain cases and extending with certain limitations the power of Authorities to make certain purchases.

be recommitted to the Committee on Public Utilities for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this motion to recommit this bill, House Bill 1322, Printer's No. 969, because it has been on the Calendar and has been before this House of Representatives since early in April. There has been ample time to study the bill and I think the only purpose of recommitting this bill is because certain amendments were put in tonight that eliminated the possibility of appointing employes of the authorities to life time positions.

Under the original provisions of the bill the employes could not be employed for a period longer than four years, but the amendments that were inserted when this bill was in committee, before it was reported out on the floor of the House, provided that under the management service or supervisory service of the municipal authorities, contracts could be entered into for a period as long as the maturity date of the bonds, four years. I don't know of any elective office in the state of Pennsylvania or in the United States except the judges of our courts who are elected for a period longer than six years, I cannot understand why they would want to make an employe of municipal authorities, an employe under contract, for a period of four years. I think that there are certain people who have a personal interest in having these amendments concurred in. I do not think it is good legislation and I do not think this bill ought to be sent back to committee. As most of you know there are in the courts of Pennsylvania today suits pending where municipal authorities have been formed who have been selling bonds and have been stealing money from the citizens of those communities. I cite for example my own district in the city of Chester where there are pending today in the courts suits where the municipal authorities themselves have misused public funds. During the December session of court there was a grand jury appointed to investigate certain activities of the municipal authorities in the city of Chester where the Mayor and members of council by an ordinance set up a municipal authority and then proceeded to acquire a water works within the city of Chester to supply not only the city of Chester but several outlying municipalities. I would like to read an excerpt or two from the findings of the grand jury.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would advise the gentleman that the question before the House is on the motion to recommit. The gentleman will confine himself to that question.

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, I am giving reasons why this bill should not be recommitted for the purpose of pickling.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may not debate the merits of the bill. The gentleman will proceed in order.

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, I oppose the motion to recommit this bill because there has been ample time for the House to study the contents thereof. Public hearings have been held on a similar bill which was introduced in the Senate. There have been many conferences held by interested people in the state of Pennsylvania, and the citizens of Pennsylvania desire that there be legislation enacted by this House of Representatives to correct the evil which now exists because of a certain amendment that was placed in the Municipal Authority Act of 1939. Unless this bill is enacted into law they are still going to legalize the stealing of public funds from the citizens of Pennsylvania, and I say to you that every Member of this House who votes to recommit this bill, to send it back to committee, is saying to the citizens of Pennsylvania that they are placing their stamp of approval on the stealing of public funds by those very officials who are going to be members of the municipal authorities.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I ask every Member of this House to vote against the recommitment of House Bill 1322.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Melchiorre.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia the purpose of recommitting this bill.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Because, Mr. Speaker, amendments were offered to this bill that were not agreed upon by the members of our party.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if that is the case, then this is purely Democratic legislation and the Republicans have nothing to say about it, and if it is enacted, it will be enacted in the interests of the Democrats of Pennsylvania?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Lancaster, I might ask him whether he has offered any amendment to this bill to clarify it or make it any better than it is?

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, I should say no, but I should like to have an opportunity of discussing this bill on the floor of the House.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, is that a question the gentleman is asking me?

Mr. TROUT. No, Mr. Speaker, that is not a question. That is an answer to the gentleman's question. I did not submit any amendments. The reason for that is I would like to have the opportunity of discussing it on the floor of the House.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman want me to answer that question? I will answer the gentleman by saying that this bill will come out on the floor of the House again, at which time the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Trout, will have an opportunity to discuss the merits of the bill. Does that satisfy the gentleman?

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman speaking now for the Democratic majority of the House and does he have authority to so speak?

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I am speaking as an individual and not as the leader on this side of the House.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, that does not carry out my idea.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Monroe whether if this bill is recommitted tonight it will come back on the floor of the House in time to take action on the same.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, of course the gentleman is familiar with the fact that while the Committee has charge of the bill it may, if it so wishes, report the bill out in sufficient time to have action, and then again if they so desire they may retain it for such a length of time that no action could be had on it. I am not going to commit myself on the action of any committee.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, the first bill that was introduced by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Rush, was House Bill No. 203, Printer's No. 145, which was referred to the Committee on Public Utilities on February 4, and then another bill House Bill 1322, Printer's No. 470, which was referred to the Committee on Public Utilities on April 21st. I understand during all this time there were a number of conferences concerning the bills, and I want to oppose the recommitment of this bill. I am vitally interested in some of the provisions of the bill. My people back home are interested in the provisions of this bill and they are interested in certain provisions being placed into the bill which will give the people of the municipalities an opportunity of knowing what is transpiring and of having some knowledge of the regulations, some knowledge of the rates and some knowledge of the cost of operation. This is important; it is important to every municipality in this Commonwealth. The gentleman from Monroe said he is not going to guarantee the return of this bill. It is my opinion, Mr. Speaker, that if this bill is recommitted now, the influences back of it are sufficiently strong to keep it in committee and the municipal authorities under the 1939 Act will continue to operate.

I want to say to the Members of this House that this Legislature cannot afford to permit the 1939 regulations of the municipal authorities to continue.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Nagle and Mr. Hamilton.

Messrs. Rush, Moul and Russell P. Reese asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section two of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 1172), entitled "A supplement to the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 208), entitled 'An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons and drugs and providing penalties for the violation thereof defining the words "drug" and "poison" and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality strength and purity' requiring permits to conduct pharmacies providing for the revocation thereof and prescribing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

All permit fees collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the State Treasury.

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SAMUEL ROSE. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was called up for a vote a week or so ago several of the Members voted against it, laboring under a misapprehension. This bill was sponsored by the State Board of Pharmacy and the Retail Druggists' Association, who were interested in granting to the State Board of Pharmacy the right to deny to organizations whose officers are not men of good repute, the right to obtain a license. It is a valid exercise of the police power and I feel that in this particular measure we are attempting to regulate something which is a profession. We are not dealing with an ordinary business, and I believe and I feel that the Members of this House should go along on this, that in those instances where the State Board believes that associations whose members may not be men of good moral repute, applying for a license, the board should be entitled to judge upon that. I call upon every Member of the House to vote for this particular bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1445, (Senate Bill No. 302), entitled:

An Act to further amend section one thousand four hundred sixteen of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" changing the qualifications of certain children for exemption from compulsory attendance provisions

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TROUT. I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TROUT. I would like to ask the gentleman from Monroe the purpose of recommitting this bill?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I believe that there may be some question, and there is some question relative to the application of this particular bill as it is now drawn in relation to our Child Labor Laws of Pennsylvania. The question is whether there is ample protection thrown around the children who would be affected by this particular bill. I realize that it has relation only to agricultural pursuits, but the question of the power that may be vested in the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the superintendent of schools in the county, the entire subject, we feel needs a bit further study and possibly as a result of that study further amendment. It is for that purpose that it is being sent back to the Committee on Education.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, we are not objecting to sending this bill back under those conditions but we would like to give the House an opportunity of voting on this proposed legislation. It has been before the House session after session and the Members are all acquainted with the provisions. That is why we are asking for some legislation along this line, and I trust that the Committee on Education will carry out the suggestion made by the gentleman from Monroe.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call to the attention of the Members of the House to House Bill 1709, a bill which in itself is simple and which simply means that all gasoline used by aeroplanes shall be exempt from tax. I think in the beginning possibly the reason for this bill is that many of the schools using gasoline, training schools and aeroplane service, are using gasoline and they should be exempt. Mr. Speaker, with that part of the bill and with that thought we agree, but why should every private aeroplane be exempt from the tax on gasoline, including our great commercial airlines? I ask the Members of the House whether this is not another slap in the face of the farmer? The farmers and those using domestic engines do not use the roads of the Commonwealth; neither do the aeroplanes, but they are supposed to pay the tax on every bit of gasoline they use. Of course, this bill is unique in the sense that it defines the type or grade of gasoline they use, which could not be used by any farm implement, whether it be a tractor or an automobile. The fact of the matter is that farmers have been asking an exemption for this type of work for many years, the work only on their farms, and not their automobiles.

Mr. Speaker, here is a bill asking every private aeroplane, every commercial airline to be exempt from the tax, and it just gives the farmers of Pennsylvania another slap in the face. Why should aeroplanes be exempt from this tax, when every municipality that has an airport is in crying need of funds? If we need airports in many municipalities in the state of Pennsylvania then the proper thing to do would be not to exempt them from this tax but to place that money in a fund to keep up, build and maintain airports in every one of our municipalities.

The aviation program that we have in Pennsylvania is vitally necessary especially at a time like this. If it is a question strictly for national defense there is no question about the exemption. Otherwise, the program that seems to me to be the sensible thing is that they should not be exempt from the tax, but they should be taxed, and every bit of this tax money should be used to build and maintain airports throughout the Commonwealth. Then we would have a program that would really mean something to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Otherwise, a simple exemption from this tax for private airplanes and commercial airlines would get us nowhere, and the State would be losing revenue.

There is another bill that follows this that is somewhat similar and that bill, it seems to me, Mr. Speaker, is nearer right than this bill. It only asks that this tax be returned to second class counties. That is all right as far as it goes but why only second-class counties? If second-class counties need this tax to build airports, why should it not be included to take care of every municipality in the state that needs an airport?

For this reason, Mr. Speaker, and for a number of other reasons which I have given, I say that this bill is wrong and it should be defeated. There should be a program that will mean something to the people of this Commonwealth; it should be carried out over a period of time so that everyone of our localities wherever an airport is needed can build and maintain one. I know that you will agree with me that even in our larger cities of the Commonwealth it is hard to build an airport and maintain it. Then what are we going to do with the smaller municipalities? I recall one municipality very near to me where it is kept up by local subscription. The people are willing to help them. We need these airports and we need a program that will sponsor aviation in Pennsylvania, but let us get at it in the right way. This bill certainly does not answer the problem.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am rather surprised at the opposition voiced by the gentleman from the other side, especially in view of the fact that the amount of revenue involved in the instant case is only in the neighborhood of $80,000. I am speaking in relation to the biennium. In other words, it is not particularly harmful to any program that the Highway Department might have in mind, but the measure is of vast importance in the line of national defense.

May I point out to the gentleman that I doubt that there is any school of advanced education in the state of Pennsylvania where the students are not taking flying courses, taking them for the distinct purpose of securing knowledge of aviation with the thought later on of entering into the Naval or Army service or the Marines of the United States. These boys in the main are doing it on their own; they are spending their own money. The gentleman then wants to compare them with the operation of a gasoline engine on a farm. It is a question of whether you want to have your boys prepare themselves for national defense and pay a tax to do it or whether it should be compared with a gasoline engine on a farm. I have heard of ludicrous comparisons but none that by any stretch of the imagination could compare this with the operation of a gasoline engine on a farm and say it is similar. I am saying, Mr. Speaker, that the amount of revenue involved in the training of our boys, every need that this Commonwealth can conceive of in the present emergency, would show that this measure is one that is playing only a small part toward the needs of this Commonwealth and the needs of this Nation. Why penalize the boys who are desirous of going out to defend those particular farm engines which are now being operated? Why penalize youth in its great desire to help? Why insist that we should have the last ounce of blood? Why insist that this is breaking down something that means so little to the Commonwealth in revenue, but means so much to this Nation and to this State? If that is the answer of any gentleman in the House, let him proceed to vote so that we will know where he stands, whether he believes in national defense, whether he thinks it is wise that our youth be encouraged in this field. It will be interesting to watch the vote on that subject.

That is all that is before this House. True, a few aeroplane companies that are commercial in nature will benefit by it, but the little benefit they will get in comparison to what the public will get in the encouragement of our youth will more than offset the few pennies we are going to lose. It is for that reason that I urge not only the men on this side of the House but the men on the other side of the House to take this step forward in the cause of national defense, and perhaps even more than in the cause of national defense, in the cause of youth who are interested and anxious to play their part in national defense. We should not penalize them in that effort. We have not hesitated, and the Members on the other side have not hesitated to take off the tax on cigarettes. We passed the bill to take off the tax on cigarettes and this bill which is now before the House is merely to take the tax off gasoline. Is it wrong to take off the tax on gasoline when you take the tax off cigarettes, when they are going to school, getting their education, getting their training with the thought of subsequently of joining the Army or Navy or Marines? Mr. Speaker, I say that this measure is one that is timely and is needed.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to say anything on this measure because I felt that the remarks of the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss, were so potent against this measure, but after listening to the appeal of the majority leader in which he waved the flag and brought in national defense and the students who are training, it seems to me we ought to get our feet solidly on the ground and not lose sight of the real issue. Certainly any of us would like to relieve any student who is taking a course in aviation from any burden that he might be put under by reason of any taxation. I doubt whether any students who are taking courses are burning up very much gasoline in the air or are paying for any gasoline to any extent. If you want to carry that to a logical conclusion let us exempt the gasoline that they put in their automobiles going back and forth. There are going to be thousands of our citizens in the next few months who are going to be engaged in Civilian Defense efforts under the new set-up of the Federal Government, and many of them will be burning up many gallons of gasoline in their free offer of service to the government in its hour of need. I think, therefore, Mr. Speaker, that the question pertaining to the student flyer is a very small question in view of the very large, and very broad questions involved in this issue.

In 1927 or 1929, I have forgotten which, I persuaded Governor Fisher to allow an appropriation of $10,000 from the Motor License Fund for the purpose of establishing aviation facilities in Pennsylvania. I remember at that time it was freely predicted that there would be no flying east of the Allegheny Mountains because of the very bad conditions that existed over the Allegheny Mountains. I remember that I went on the first flight to the Coast by train and aeroplane. We took off from the Columbus airport as the first place they felt flying was feasible. Therefore, in 1927-29 we were interested in securing in Pennsylvania aviation facilities in order that Pennsylvania would not become a way station on future aviation lines, but that Pennsylvania would take its proper place. In 1929 we got a larger appropriation of about $200,000. We did not think that the tax on the gasoline consumed in Pennsylvania by the aeroplanes that traversed Pennsylvania or stopped in Pennsylvania would reach $200,000, but the Governor was a little optimistic and helped us out in order that we might develop aviation further in Pennsylvania.

With the advent of national defense and with the tremendous impetus in aviation because of the great flying program and because of the things that are going to happen after this war because of the development of aviation and air transportation, we must in Pennsylvania develop not only the facilities for national defense but we must look towards the future. Aviation gasoline and the tax paid on it should be used for those purposes; it should not be used on the highways, but it should be used for the purpose of aviation and the development of those facilities, and if we exempt them now in Pennsylvania we are not only taking out the student fliers who are using a small amount but we are taking out all of the transportation companies. Are we setting a precedent for the future when we are going to need this money? I am convinced that the municipalities of Pennsylvania or the municipalities of many other states cannot afford to develop airports and maintain flying fields of the size and importance required for the future. They must be airports of tremendous size. They must be airports with facilities greater than any small municipality can maintain. If we are going to develop them we must have a long range program in the state of Pennsylvania; there must be help from the Federal Government to develop proper aviation facilities and in order that we may build for the highways of the air the proper landing fields. Therefore, no matter what the immediate advantage may be to a few, no matter how we may be imposing a tax on a few who are giving their efforts to defend our country, I think this bill should be defeated.

MR. BRETHERICK IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker, I just want to call to the attention of the Members of this House to the fact that the very first thing I mentioned was, if there was one thing that might be a good thing in this bill, it was that it might help some of the boys in the training schools in aviation. So I want to correct the gentleman from Monroe in saying that I made light of that fact.

I also want to say that I know of many boys who are working on farms today that are paying their way. If there is a line of defense that would come nearer to being the first line of defense today, it is agriculture and the boys back on the farm. Now you are going to say to them, "Oh, no, you are no good. We do not want anything to do with you." I venture to say that the gentleman from Monroe has many of these boys who are also actively engaged in defense work at the present time back home on their farms who will appreciate anything we can do for them.

That is not the question; the bill in itself does not take that in; it is not large enough. The program should be larger; we should have more airports in Pennsylvania; there should be a better and bigger program in aviation in Pennsylvania, and the little money that is spent for taxes on gasoline should not be exempted, but it should be put into a fund to help build and maintain more and better airports in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 970, as follows:

An Act to further amend section six of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149), as amended by the act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1703), and to further amend section ten of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) as last amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 634), entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" to provide for the making of separate reports on liquid fuels sold for aviation purposes and to further provide for the establishment of an Aviation Liquid Fuels Tax Fund and the return of said taxes to counties of the second class

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 Section six of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) as amended by the act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1703), entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 Distributor's Report and Payment of Tax

For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of tax payable under this act it shall be the duty of every distributor on or before the last day of each month to transmit to the department upon a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the department a report under oath or affirmation of the liquid fuels used or delivered by him within this Commonwealth during the preceding month. Such report shall show the number of gallons of liquid fuels used or delivered within the Commonwealth during the period for which it is made and such further information as the department shall prescribe. Such report in the case of distributors selling liquid fuels in second class counties shall also indicate separately the number of gallons of liquid fuels sold or delivered for aviation purposes. The tax due on liquid fuels sold or delivered for aviation purposes shall be computed and paid separately in the same manner as the general liquid fuels tax and subject to the same rights of discounts. A distributor having more than one place of business within this Commonwealth shall combine in each report the use or delivery of liquid fuels at all such separate places of business.

Every distributor at the time of making every report required by this section shall compute and pay to the department the tax due to the Commonwealth on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered by him during the preceding month less a discount if the report is filed and the tax paid on time computed as follows: two per centum if such tax shall amount to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or less; one and one-half per centum on tax in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and not exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000); one per centum on tax in excess of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); and one-half of one per centum on tax in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). The amount of all taxes imposed under the provisions of this act for each month shall be due and payable on the last day of the next succeeding month and shall bear interest at the rate of one per centum per month or fractional part of a month from the date they are due and payable until paid.

If any distributor shall neglect or refuse to make any report and payment as herein required an additional ten per centum of the amount of the tax shall be added by the department and collected as hereinafter provided and in addition thereto the liquid fuels permit of such distributor may be suspended or revoked by the department.

Section 2 Section ten of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 634) is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 10 Disposition and use of Tax (a) From and after the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one all permanent taxes collected under the provisions of this act on liquid fuels sold in second class counties exclusively for use by airplanes and other aircraft for aviation purposes are hereby directed to be paid into a separate fund to be known as the Aviation Liquid Fuels Tax Fund. Such moneys paid into said fund are hereby specifically appropriated to second class counties to be used for the purpose of construction reconstruction maintenance operation and repair of airports maintained in whole or in part by said counties and for the payment of interest and sinking fund charges on bonds issued or used for airport purposes. The moneys so paid into the Aviation Liquid Fuels Tax Fund shall be distributed to said second class counties on the first day of June and of December of each year said payments to amount to the total permanent tax paid within said county for the previous six-month period. All moneys collected under the provisions of this act with the exception of moneys paid into the Aviation Liquid Fuels Tax Fund shall be disposed of as follows:

[(a)] (b) One-half cent per gallon of the permanent tax collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund of the State Treasury and such moneys paid into said fund are hereby specifically appropriated for the purposes hereinafter set forth.

The moneys so paid into the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund except those that are refunded as hereinafter provided shall be paid to the respective counties of this Commonwealth on the first day of June and December of each year in the ratio that the average return made during the (3) preceding years to each county bears to the average amount returned to all counties for the three preceding years [Provided That the distribution of tax to the counties from the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund that is payable the first day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one shall be made under the provisions of the acts of Assembly repealed by this act].

All moneys received by the counties hereunder except such funds as are hereby specifically appropriated to second class counties out of the Aviation Liquid Fuels Tax Fund to be used for the construction reconstruction maintenance operation and repair of airports in said counties shall be used only for the purpose of construction reconstruction maintenance and repair of roads highways and bridges including the payment of property damage now due or hereafter to become due occasioned by [or] the relocation or construction of highways and bridges and for the payment of interest and sinking fund charges on bonds issued or used for highways and bridge purposes or on so much of any bonds as have been used for such purposes and all such payments heretofore made are hereby validated. The county commissioners of each county shall make to the department on or before the first day of May and November of each year on forms prescribed prepared and furnished by the department a report showing the receipts and expenditures of such moneys received during the preceding six months by the county from the Commonwealth under the provisions of this section. Such reports shall be transmitted to the Department of the Auditor General for audit. Upon the failure of the county commissioners to file any such report the department shall withhold further payments to the county out of the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund until the delinquent report is filed.

[(b)] (c) The remaining two and one-half cents per gallon of the permanent tax collected under the provisions of this act all penalties and interests and all interest earned on deposits of the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund shall be paid into the Motor License Fund and are hereby specifically appropriated for the same purposes for which moneys in the Motor License Fund are appropriated by law.

[(c)] (d) The entire amount of the additional emergency tax of one cent per gallon or fractional part thereof collected under the provisions of this act before June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six shall be paid into the State Treasury by and through the department and shall be used only for unemployment relief purposes and for such purposes is hereby appropriated and all such tax paid into the State Treasury on and after June first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six shall be credited to the General Fund.

Section 3 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 4 This act shall become effective the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 573

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 16, 1941.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 573, Printer's No. 708, entitled, "An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one," except as to the following items and subject to the following comments:

GENERAL COMMENT

There are in this bill certain increases and decreases from the recommendations in my budget which are capricious and unreasonable. These were all made by the House of Representatives which is in the control of a partisan leadership who has been obstructive and completely non-cooperative, and who would risk wrecking the State Government in trying to gain what it considers to be political advantage.

Ordinarily differences of opinion between Senate and House are ironed out in conference committee. If the House were not dominated by factional interests such procedure could be used with reference to this bill.

However, because of the attitude of the House majority, any changes in the bill by the Senate would only have resulted in the same kind of deadlock which is delaying other vital legislation. Therefore, the Senate has passed the bill, objectionable as some of its provisions are, in the same form as it was received from the House, and has left it to the Governor's Constitutional power to correct such conditions as it can. Had this not been done, there is no telling how long the State Government would have been deprived of funds with which to operate.

DEPARTMENT OF THE AUDITOR GENERAL

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages and other compensation of a deputy Auditor General and other employees for the payment of general expenses for the payment of rentals of patented leased office devices for the purchase of automobiles furniture furnishings and equipment and for the purchase of supplies printing binding patent indices records law books and other books necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department the sum of one million six hundred twenty-nine thousand seven hundred fifty-nine dollars ($1,629,759)."

I approved this item in the amount of one million two hundred three thousand five hundred dollars ($1,203,500). This amount is seventeen (17) per cent less than the amount I recommended in my budget. This percentage reduction is the same as was made by the House Appropriations Committee in the appropriation which I recommended to the Department of Commerce. The Department of Commerce has been playing an outstanding part in Pennsylvania's contribution to National Defense, and if the House of Representatives believes the Department of Commerce can operate as effectively on seventeen (17) per cent less than I recommended, then surely the Department of the Auditor General which has no direct part to play in National Defense can operate with the same reduction from my recommendation.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a deputy State Treasurer and other employees for the payment of general expenses for the purchase of insurance covering the loss of any or all cash and securities of which the Treasury Department or State Treasurer is custodian and covering forgeries of all kinds on checks drafts warrants and requisitions for the payment of rentals of patented lease office devices and for the purchase of automobiles furniture furnishings and equipment for the purchase of supplies printing binding patent indices records law books and other books necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department the sum of nine hundred fourteen thousand dollars ($914,000)."

I approved this item in the amount of five hundred thirty-nine thousand five hundred dollars ($539,500). The percentage of reduction below my budget recommendations and the reasons therefor are the same as for the reduction in the appropriation to the Auditor General. The State Treasurer has no defense activities and no increase activities of any nature. Yet the Democratic majority in the House boosted his appropriation 40% over what it was in the previous biennium while at the same time cutting some departments with heavy defense duties, such as the Department of Commerce, as much as 17%. This serves to indicate the absurdity of the so-called Democratic budget.

I feel it necessary to point out that the party leadership which controls the House of Representatives also controls the Department of the Auditor General and the Treasury Department. The only increases in departmental appropriations approved by the House were for these two departments. Since there have been no increases in the duties of these departments, it would appear that the party leadership expects these departments to be less efficient; or, if this is not the reason, then the intention can only have been to grab more jobs.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation to employes and for the payment of general expenses necessary for the proper conduct of the Treasury Department's functions relating to payments from the Unemployment Compensation Fund and the Administration Fund the amounts charged against the Administration Fund by the Treasury Department and paid into the General Fund are hereby specifically appropriated to the Treasury Department out of the General Fund."

I withhold my approval from this item. There is no reason why the present arrangement under which the Treasury costs of disbursing the Unemployment Compensation Fund are paid from the Administration Fund should not continue.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of employes and for the payment of all other expenses necessary for carrying out the provisions of the 'soil Conservation Districts Law' the sum of fifty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($57,500)."

I approve this item in the amount of $10,000. The experience in the operation of the Soil Conservation Districts law for which the appropriation was never more than $10,000 shows that this amount is ample.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of indemnities for and payment of expenses of testing animals appraised and destroyed to prevent the spread of dangerous contagious and infectious diseases as provided by law the sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000)."

I approve this item in the amount of $1,400,000.00. The appropriation of $1,400,000 for the biennium of 1939-1941 enabled the Bureau of Animal Industry to test 1,122,190 cattle and certify 17 counties as modified and accredited areas, as against 860,840 cattle with 3 accredited counties for the biennium of 1937-1939. The amount of $3,000,000 would require doubling of our force of veterinarians, increased laboratory facilities, and additional Federal support, all of which are impossible during this period of defense preparations.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a deputy secretary and other employes for the payment of general expenses advertising supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department including the work of the department with respect to collecting press information and distributing it to the several administrative departments boards and commissions and to legislative offices and legislative agencies the sum of two hundred thirty thousand dollars ($230,000) and in addition thereto any amount appropriated to the department out of the Motor License Fund which shall be credited to the appropriation made by this paragraph and shall be available for the purposes herein enumerated."

I approve in the full amount with the comment that this amount represents a seventeen (17) per cent reduction by the House of Representatives below the amount I recommended in the budget. Our National Defense effort being largely one of production and manufacture, this department has been in position to render invaluable service both to the Commonwealth and to the Nation. It is to be regretted that fair financial provision for its activities was denied the Department by the majority leaders in the House.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a deputy secretary and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department the Sanitary Water Board the Advisory Health Board and other boards the sum of two million nine hundred forty-seven thousand dollars ($2,947,000) and in addition to said amount all contributions received by the department from private sources for the express use of the department in public health work shall be paid into the General Fund and credited to this appropriation."

I approve in the full amount with the comment that this is a reduction by the House of Representatives of $147,000 below the amount recommended in my budget. The Department of Health is another department which is closely concerned with National Defense not only in general health activities as a result of military concentrations in the State but also in the furnishing of birth certificates to persons desiring to prove citizenship to gain employment in Defense industries. The work of the department in this latter respect alone is five and a half times what it was before the Nation began to re-arm. My budget recommendation was carefully studied. How the department is to operate with the reduction made by the House has not been pointed out by the House.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of the members of the Workmen's Compensation Board Workmen's Compensation Referees Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board and members of the Industrial Board a deputy secretary and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department the Workmen's Compensation Board the Workmen's Compensation Referees Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board and the Industrial Board and for compensation and expenses of wage boards the sum of two million four hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($2,425,000)."

I approve in the full amount. This is $175,000 less than I recommended for this department. Here is another instance of deliberate obstructive shortsightedness on the part of the majority party in the House. The work of this Department as a result of the expansion in industry in the State has increased in every function. It is hard to realize that the House majority, who claim to be such friends of Labor, would make any reduction in this appropriation.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a deputy members and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Department of Public Instruction with respect to professional education and licensure and the professional examining boards and advisory committees within the department the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) Provided That no part of this appropriation shall be expended for any purpose other than the work of the department with respect to the certification of teachers professional education and licensure and the professional examining boards and advisory committees within the department"

I approve in the full amount. My budget recommendation provided for an increase of $100,000 in the appropriation for this work after study convinced me that past appropriations were not sufficient. In the absence of explanation, the reduction made by the House of Representatives seems arbitrary and unreasonable.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a secretary and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission and for the purchase of archaeological collections and maintenance of historical monuments sites buildings and markers as provided by law and as authorized and approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction the sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000)."

I approve in the full amount. The majority leaders in the House reduced this appropriation $50,000, a 25% reduction below my recommendations. This will not be sufficient to maintain properly all the parks and monuments under the supervision of the Historical Commission which the General Assembly has had the State acquire.

The item which provides as follows:

"For reimbursing fourth class school districts upon the increase in the salaries of teachers of elementary schools of such districts in accordance with law the sum of three million two hundred thousand dollars ($3,200,000)."

I approve in the amount of two million, four hundred thousand dollars (2,400,000) which is estimated by the Department of Public Instruction to be sufficient not only under present legislation but under any legislation pending before either branch of the General Assembly.

PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a secretary and other employes and for the payment of general expenses supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the commission the sum of one million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,750,000)."

I approve in the full amount. This is a reduction of $100,000 below my recommendation. I recommended an appropriation of $1,850,000. During the last biennium of the Democratic administration, 1937-1939, that appropriation amounted to $2,900,000. My recommendation was $1,050,000 below that amount. Still the Democratic majority in the House saw fit to cut it $100,000. The amount the Democratic majority now believes sufficient for the Commission is $1,150,000 less than the Commission had in the Earle Administration. If the Democratic majority is right now the question which arises in anyone's mind is what was done with the extra $1,150,000 back in the Democratic Administration.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

The item which provides as follows:

For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a deputy secretary and other employes for the payment of general expenses rentals equipment and other expenses incidental to the collection of inheritance and estate taxes and mercantile license taxes supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department for the payment of cost of filing liens for the purchase of tax stamps and for the payment of costs of advertising required by any act of Assembly in connection with the escheat of moneys and property to the Commonwealth or in connection with the payment of unclaimed moneys into the State Treasury without escheat the sum of three million forty-five thousand dollars ($3,045,000) Provided however That to the extent to which appropriations have been made to the department out of special funds for any of the foregoing purposes this appropriation shall not be used for such purposes."

I approve in the full amount. The House majority has been making a great ado about an increased estimate of revenue. Yet they give the Department of Revenue (7) per cent less appropriation with which to collect these revenues they expect to be greatly enlarged.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of a deputy secretary and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies printing and equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the department and for proof-reading the Pamphlet Laws the sum of one hundred sixty-two thousand dollars ($162,000)"

I approve in the full amount. The reduction made by the House of Representatives brings this appropriation to four thousand dollars ($4,000) less than it was during the current biennium, although the department is still cleaning up the undone work of the past administration.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of commissioners and other employes and for the payment of printing and other expenses of the department in taking the vote of citizens of the Commonwealth who are in the active Military Service of the United States the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)."

I approve this item in the full amount with the warning that the arbitrary reduction made by the House may result in the disfranchisement of some of our citizens who have been called out of the State into Federal military services. The Department of State informs me that the amount of this appropriation as it stands is woefully insufficient under present law or any bill pending before the General Assembly. This amount should be supplemented in another bill.

DEPARTMENT OF WELFARE

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of the superintendents of wardens and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies and printing for repairs alterations and improvements to plant and equipment for improvements to land for the purchase of equipment furniture furnishings and live stock for expenses of the boards of trustees and incidental expenses for the payment of gratuities clothing and parole expenses and for all other expenses of maintenance and operation necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza the State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy the Eastern Penitentiary at Philadelphia and Graterford the Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh the State Penitentiary at Rockview and any other institution hereafter established for the custody of prisoners as may be authorized and approved by the Secretary of Welfare the sum of seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000)."

I approve in the full amount. My recommendation was based upon current operating costs. These costs will undoubtedly increase during the next two years. Yet the House majority has made an arbitrary reduction of $100,000.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of the Superintendent and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies and printing for repairs alterations and improvements to plant and equipment for improvements to land for the purchase of equipment furniture furnishings and live stock for expenses of the boards of trustees and incidental expenses and for all other expenses of maintenance and operation necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Allentown State Hospital at Allentown the Danville State Hospital at Danville the Farview State Hospital at Farview the Harrisburg State Hospital at Harrisburg the Norristown State Hospital at Norristown the Torrance State Hospital at Torrance the Warren State Hospital at Warren the Philadelphia State Hospital at Philadelphia State Hospital at Philadelphia the Wernersville State Hospital at Wernersville and any other institution established for the care and treatment of the insane as may be authorized and approved by the Secretary of Welfare the sum of twenty-two million eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($22,850,000)."

I approve in the amount of seventeen million dollars ($17,000,000). I withhold my approval from the remainder of this appropriation which was ostensibly added to provide for the county institutions which the inaction of the House requires the State to take over. If the House insists upon its stand in this instance, it must provide additional revenue to meet the added appropriation.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of the superintendents and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies and printing for repairs alterations and improvements to plant and equipment for improvements to lands for the purchase of equipment furniture furnishings and live stock for expenses of the boards of trustees and incidental expenses and for all other expenses of maintenance and operation necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Laurelton State Village at Laurelton the Pennhurst State School at Pennhurst the Polk State School at Polk the Selinsgrove State Colony for Epileptics at Selinsgrove and any other institution established for the care and treatment of mental defectives and epileptics as authorized and approved by the Secretary of Welfare the sum of three million eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($3,850,000)."

I approve this item in the full amount with the same comment as I made under the first paragraph of the Department of Welfare.

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of salaries wages or other compensation of the superintendents and other employes for the payment of general expenses supplies and printing for repairs for the purchase of equipment furniture and furnishings for expenses of the boards of trustees and incidental expenses and for all other expenses of maintenance and operation necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Ashland State Hospital at Ashland the Blossburg State Hospital at Blossburg the Coaldale State Hospital at Coaldale the Connelville State Hospital at Connelville the Hazleton State Hospital at Hazleton the Locust Mountain State Hospital at Shenandoah the Nanticoke State Hospital at Nanticoke the Philipsburg State Hospital at Philipsburg the Scranton

State Hospital at Scranton and the Shamokin State Hospital at Shamokin as may be authorized and approved by the Secretary of Welfare the sum of two million nine hundred thousand dollars ($2,900,000)."

I approve this item in the full amount with the same comment as I made under the first paragraph of the Department of Welfare.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT TO THE SENATE

The items which read as follows:

"For the payment of the salary of the clerks to the majority and minority floor leaders respectively of the Senate for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of nine thousand six hundred dollars ($9,600)

"For the payment of the salary of the pages for the majority and minority floor leaders respectively of the Senate for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of two thousand eight hundred eighty dollars ($2,880)

"For the payment of contingent expenses of the majority floor leader of the Senate including clerical stenographic traveling and discretionary charges for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)

"For the payment of contingent expenses of the minority floor leader of the Senate including clerical stenographic traveling and discretionary charges for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)"

I withhold approval from these four items. All of these are new items—the State has never before paid these costs.

TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The items which provide as follows:

"For the payment of the salary of the clerks to the majority and minority floor leaders respectively of the House of Representatives for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of nine thousand six hundred dollars ($9,600)

"For the payment of the salary of the pages for the majority and minority floor leaders respectively of the House of Representatives for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of two thousand eight hundred eighty dollars ($2,880)

"For the payment of contingent expenses of the majority floor leader of the House of Representatives including clerical stenographic traveling and discretionary charges for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)

"For the payment of contingent expenses of the minority floor leader of the House of Representatives including clerical stenographic traveling and discretionary charges for the two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)."

I withhold approval from these four items. All of these are new items—the State has never before paid these costs.

The items which provide as follows:

"For the payment of necessary expenses including extra labor in the office of the chief clerk and library for the year beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-one the sum of twenty-two thousand six hundred dollars ($22,600) and for the six months beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and forty-two the sum of ten thousand nine hundred dollars ($10,900)."

I approve the item for the year beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one, in the amount of nineteen thousand dollars ($19,000), and the item for the six months beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, in the amount of nine thousand one hundred dollars ($9,100).

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

The item which provides as follows:

"For the payment of wages and other compensation of the employees and for the payment of general expenses necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the Joint State Government Commission the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) to be paid on warrants of the Auditor General in favor of the chairman of said commission on the presentation of his requisition for the same. The chairman shall file an accounting of said expenses with the Auditor General."

I withhold approval from this item in its entirety. Legislation now pending before the General Assembly contemplates fundamental changes in the powers and setup of the Commission. Consideration of an appropriation should in my judgment await determination of this legislation.

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill together with the communication from the Governor be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, Governor James is deliberately violating the laws of this Commonwealth.

By his action in cutting the appropriation made by the General Assembly for the operation of the former county mental institutions, the Governor is openly, frankly, and maliciously thumbing his nose at the Legislature, at the people who elected the legislators to office and, what is even more contemptible, at the mentally sick who cannot defend themselves against this dastardly action.

Governor James has violated his oath of office to obey the laws of the Commonwealth. His guilt is open and self-confessed. In his political spleen and warped conception of high office he is using as a shield against political opponents the helpless bodies of these unfortunates who are the wards of the State.

This contemptible action can but fill every decent person in this Commonwealth with disgust and disdain. But the Governor cannot evade his responsibility and the mental hospitals are in the hands of the State. If he deliberately refuses to provide for their maintenance he will subject himself and his Administration to the severe penalties which await any elected official guilty of violation of the law and his sworn duty.

The Governor is no longer the repository of public confidence. The people of Pennsylvania repudiated him and his party last fall. Their vote for the members of this House illustrates the esteem in which they hold this politician who has disgraced the high office to which he was elected in 1938.

We, in the General Assembly, now speak for the people. And until a new Legislature is elected in 1942, we shall continue to speak for them.

Governor James has won a Pyrrhic victory at the expense of the mental sick. But he has lost his war. We will never agree to this program of postponement which he is trying by blackmail and political pressure back home to jam down our throats.

The Governor is defying the Legislature and the whole State. His defiance makes good reading, but he is impotent to back up his action. He is defeated soundly. This last act is the final gesture in his financial comedy on which the people rang down the curtain last November.

By his act tonight, the Governor has made even more difficult bringing order out of the chaos into which his financial blundering and fiscal stupidity have plunged the State.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1941.

No. 73.

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 17, 1941.

The Senate met at 1:30 o'clock, p. m. E. S. T.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain the gentleman from Butler, Mr. CARR, offered prayer.

Our Father and Our God, we realize that our hearts and our minds and our thoughts are open unto Thee and that Thou knowest them all ere we express our thoughts. We would ask that Thy Holy Spirit may so guide and control our thinking that all our actions might be in accordance with Thy will for us.

Wilt Thou bless the people of this world and guide them out of their confusion and into sanity, that all things might redound to Thy honor and glory. We ask it in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. THOMAS and Mr. GELTZ, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Butler will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, out in our county there is a little community which was founded by the Germans from Saxony and it is called Saxonburg. It was in that little town that the first wire rope was made by the Roeblings, who later became contractors for the great Brooklyn Bridge.

That little community has another product of quite a different nature which is quite famous in our county, which is called the Saxonburg bologna, I understand there is a community nearby that is noted for the same kind of a product, and a certain group of ladies who are customarily present have imposed upon me the duty of requesting for them, from the President of the Senate, leave of absence for Sam Lewis' Ladies Auxiliary that they might go out to Lebanon, to Senator Becker's home, and enjoy better bologna out there than they get in the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. I think the Senator from Butler, Mr. Carr, ought to let us have a sample of the bologna from his district. Up until the Chair receives that, he must agree with the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Becker, that the Lebanon bologna is the best. The Chair said "best," not "better."

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, the Senator from Butler is entirely correct in everything he says except that in addition to Lebanon bologna there are also Lebanon pretzels and Lebanon beer.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, this Bill No. 991 is a Senate Bill and for that reason I would like to ask the gentleman from Lackawanna to state his reason for requesting it go over in order because time is getting short, we hope.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, this is the bill which reapportions the legislative districts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and it is a tremendously important measure. The gentlemen on our side of the House have not had a chance to properly check it and we think some time today we will be able to get together, with the respective members of the House, and check it and make definitely certain that our good friends on the other side do not reapportion with the view of too much advantage to the Republican Party.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 964, (House Bill No. 940), entitled:

An Act to amend section 1202 by adding clause LX of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" authorizing boroughs to appropriate moneys for the support of hospitals.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendments: Amend title page 1 next to the last line by inserting after the word "authorizing" the word "certain"; Amend section 1, page 1, line 7 by striking out the word "To" and insert in lieu thereof "For boroughs having a population of two thousand inhabitants and upwards to;" Amend section 1, page 1, line 8 by inserting after the word "any" the word "incorporated;" Amend section 1, page 2, line 2 by striking out the word "county" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "borough, but no such appropriation shall exceed in any year the cost of free service extended to residents of the borough which is in excess of any amount paid by the Commonwealth towards such free service."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask that the first amendment be re-read and I ask that the gentleman from Montgomery follow the reading of the amendment, because I feel there is some phraseology that will have to be corrected.

The clerk again read the amendment.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the sentence has no beginning, because the description Hospital appropriations is not part of the act, it is simply a title, and therefore the sentence does not begin at all.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I suggest to the gentleman from Philadelphia that we allow the amendment to be put in and then look at the printed bill tomorrow and go over it. These amendments were given to me by Mr. Fertig, who prepared the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. We will have to reprint it again, Mr. President.

Mr. EDMONDS. It is only a very short bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading, as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1000, (House Bill No. 567), entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (P. L. 748), entitled "An act for the registration and regulation of certain individuals and entities selling contracting to sell or dispose of attempting or offering to dispose of soliciting offers to buy or inducing holders thereof to exchange securities defined herein including securities issued by them or engaging in the business of inducing holders of securities to effect the sale thereof in order to produce funds to pay for other investments sold by them or in the business of buying securities directly from individuals who are not registered thereunder providing for the revocation and suspension of registrations conferring powers and imposing duties on the Pennsylvania Securities Commission and otherwise providing for the administration of this act providing for appeals to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County and to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania conferring jurisdiction upon the several courts of common pleas to issue injunctions against violations of this act and prescribing fees and penalties" by providing for the registration and regulation of persons and entities engaged in the business of investment advisers and of solicitors of investment advisers and for the revocation and suspension of such registrations conferring additional jurisdiction upon the courts of common pleas and further regulating the business of buying and selling securities.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Consitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill has a provision dealing with the appointment of receivers by a Commission and in my opinion that has no place in this bill and I would like the bill to go over in order until we can check it. I spoke to the sponsors of the bill last night and they said it was not their intention that such a provision should be in the bill. I do not know of any other commission that has the right to go into court and ask for the appointment of receivers, and I do not think that power should be given in this bill to this commission, because this is simply a bill for regulatory purposes, and not for taking possession of these funds. There are courts to take care of that and they have carried that out up until now.

Mr. EDMONDS. I have no objection at all to the bill going over but I think there is an answer to the gentleman's statement; I think they will have to act quickly if they are going to find any assets.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Federal Government has a regulatory bill such as this and they do not have the power to take these companies over and appoint receivers and they never found it necessary.

Mr. EDMONDS. The gentleman from Philadelphia is dealing with companies and these are individuals.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1000, (House Bill No. 567), on third reading go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section four hundred and twenty A of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P L 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" which was added to said act by section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P L 625) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 420A Minors May Enter into Insurance Contracts and Have Full Rights Powers and Privileges Thereunder That all minors in Pennsylvania of the age of eighteen years and upwards shall have full power and authority to make [all needful] contracts [to become members] of insurance and annuities with any life insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Pennsylvania either domestic or foreign and upon attaining the age of eighteen years shall have all the powers rights and privileges of ownerships of any and all such life insurance annuity contracts or otherwise heretofore or hereafter applied for or issued to them and with full power to surrender assign pledge or receive dividends or modify or change such contracts and generally to have the full power and authority in the premises that persons twenty-one years and upwards could and would have relative to any and all such contracts

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to call attention of the Senate to the fact that this is a bill the purpose of which is hard for me to understand. I cannot understand what insurable interest there can be in a person eighteen years of age and I can see no reason why contracts of insurance shall be made for persons under twenty-one years of age.

My whole idea of insurance is that the theory back of it is the responsibility of the insured to some person who is dependent upon him. Now, we have a provision that minors of the age of eighteen years may enter into contracts of insurance and annuities with the same power—and it seems to me this is extending the existing law too far. For that reason I shall vote against the bill.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia misunderstands the purpose of the bill. There is now on the statute books an act that those from eighteen to twenty-one may become members, that is all; they may become members, and that has been construed to mean in some quarters that they may become members of mutual insurance companies only, hence the intention of this act is to broaden the terms of the contract that they may enter into so as to cover stock companies as well as mutual companies; otherwise by legislation we are giving preference to one form of insurance over another. It does not add to the ability of those under twenty-one years of age to make contracts, but it does give them a wider field in which they may enter. The only object of this bill is to strike out the word "members," and insert the broader phrase "so they may become members and also beneficiaries of the other class of companies."

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to call attention to the fact that this law in its original form took cognizance of the fact that insurance should only be on the basis of need. This act does more than what the gentleman from Montgomery says it does. The original words permitted the making of contracts, the making of "all needful" contracts. If the words "all needful" contracts are taken out and in substitution of the words "all needful" and the words "to become members of," are inserted, the words now read that they be given authority to make contracts of insurance and annuities. In other words, in the case of an eighteen year old boy, he may have insurance with insurance companies in annuities, but the need for that situation, as provided in the original act, is eliminated. I have not misunderstood the purpose, I have read it, I think, very carefully, and I understand that this takes away all limitations on the placing of contracts of insurance and annuities by minors.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to explain my vote "no" on this bill. This bill provides that there shall be an annual meeting of the Senate and the House. I am more inclined to believe that the less frequently we meet the better off the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania would be. If this bill were to provide that the General Assembly should meet every four years, I would be happy to vote for it.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to explain why I voted in favor of this bill. This is not a bill to require us to meet annually, this is merely a joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and such resolutions always go back for a vote by the people, and I am perfectly willing at any time to vote for any bill that will send it back for a referendum by the people. That is what we are here for, and I have absolute confidence in the determinations and conclusions of the electorate of Pennsylvania. If they think we should meet every year, they will so decide by this bill. After all, it is their problem and not ours.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 704,
(HOUSE BILL No. 837)

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 704, (House Bill No. 837), entitled:

An Act to further amend section one thousand seven hundred and four of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" permitting the teaching in high schools and vocational schools of the theories of proper and safe operation of motor vehicles was defeated finally, June 10, 1941.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye" "nay."

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President I voted "aye" "nay"

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. GELTZ and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Coleman	Ealy,	Mallery	Ruth,
Cox	Frey,	McCreesh	Shapiro,
Dent,	Haluska,	McQuiddy	Stiefel,
DiSilvestro,	Lanius,	Mundy,	Walker,

Chapman,	Homsher,	Tallman,	Wilson, T. B.,
Crider,	Kephart,	Taylor,	Ziesenheim,
Crowe,	Letzler,

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I believe we committed an egregious mistake by defeating this motion, because today we may paraphrase an ancient expression.

In ancient Sparta they used to say a young man when he left his house should come back with his shield or under his shield. Today we may paraphrase this expression by saying you may come home in a machine but not under a machine. By teaching the youth of the Commonwealth how to drive and how to be careful you will reduce the number of fatal accidents on the highways of Pennsylvania, and I fail to understand how a measure of this kind has been defeated.

SENATE BILL No. 522 CALLED UP ON THIRD READING POSTPONED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I now call up Senate Bill No. 522, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 242), entitled "An act to promote the public health and safety by providing for examination and registration of those who desire to engage in the occupation of beauty culture; defining beauty culture, and regulating beauty culture shops, schools, students, apprentices, teachers, managers and operators; conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction; providing for appeals to certain courts by applicants and licensees; and providing penalties," by eliminating apprentices, and setting-up classification of junior operators; further regulating operators, junior operators and beauty parlors; setting up new period for expiration of certificates issued by board; permitting beauty culture schools in certain cases to charge for materials used in giving treatments to the public and imposing penalties.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I object.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there can be no objection to the calling up of any bill. Any person has the right to call up a bill. After it is called up, we can act on it, but there can be no objection to calling it up.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, this is on the postponed calendar. It can only be taken off by a motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair must rule any Senator has the right to call up for consideration any bill appearing on the Calendar, it is then up to the Senate to determine what action shall be taken thereon.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I have called up Senate Bill No. 522 for final action.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 522, on third reading, be postponed for the present.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Is it not a fact, Mr. President, that Senate Bill No. 522 now appears on the postponed calendar?

The PRESIDENT. It does.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. Just a minute. There is a point of order now before the Chair for disposition.

Senate Bill No. 522 appears on the calendar in possession of the Chair and that is the interrogatory. The bill appeared on the postponed calendar, was called up by the gentleman from Cambria and now there is a motion by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, seconded by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Miller, that the bill be again placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny tell me why he insists that Senate Bill No. 522 be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I have talked with my colleague from Cambria County on several occasions with reference to this bill and I told him previously that I thought if he were patient and would wait, the possibility was there would be enough votes in the Senate to pass the bill. However, the gentleman from Cambria seems to be insisting on calling the bill up for action before it is ready for action, and for that reason I have moved that it be again placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. HALUSKA. Why does the gentleman from Allegheny say that the mere fact that it be on the postponed calendar might give us sufficient votes? Does the gentleman from Allegheny have knowledge of how we are going to vote now?

Mr. GELTZ. That is what I thought, Mr. President, or I would not have made the statement.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am satisfied to have a test vote on the bill now and have it either defeated or passed on its own merits.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, the mere fact that the gentleman from Cambria is the sponsor of this bill does not say he is the only one interested in the bill, one way or another, and therefore the whole decision should not be left up to him.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, about two and a half minutes ago I heard the gentleman from Allegheny ask the Senator from Lackawanna to recall his motion to have the Senate Bill No. 911 go over in its order. He stated it was a Senate bill, that we are about to adjourn, and for that reason the bill should have action today. That holds true also with my bill; if you are going to pass this bill, pass it today; if it is your intention to kill it, kill it today.

I made a threat here last week to call up this bill every fifteen minutes. I did not go through with my threat but I might go further. I am now asking the courtesy of having this bill brought up. This is what I call political chicanery, nothing else, and if you intend to keep this bill on the postponed calendar, then of course I might ask that the clerk read all bills in full and we will have a show down. I have been fair, I have been honest, I have been courteous, I see no good reason why this bill should be placed on the postponed calendar and I am going to ask for a roll call. If I am defeated then of course I will go through with my threat of asking that every bill be read in detail until such time that this bill is taken from the postponed calendar and either passed or defeated.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, in stating my position on this bill I want to say that I am willing to vote with the gentleman from Cambria to have this bill reconsidered, but I wish to state also I shall vote against the bill when it comes up for action. I think the gentleman from Cambria is entitled to have a vote on this bill.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion that Senate Bill No. 522 be placed on the postponed calendar?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I intended to vote to have the bill taken from the postponed calendar, but I do not like the threat of the gentleman from Cambria. I wonder if he would recall that threat to have the bills read at length, or I might reverse myself. I do not think that is right.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it is not my intention to be smart or make many threats, but certainly I will not sit idly by. I might make the same remark I made last week and say, as did one of my colleagues, "It makes no difference if he is a hound, you must quit kicking my dog around." I have asked each and every one of my colleagues if they have any further amendments to offer on this bill that they do so, but they have dilly-dallied around now since May 14th, when this bill first came out of committee and certainly we have had sufficient time to be in a position to know what we wish to do with this bill. All that I am asking of my colleagues is an opportunity to have this bill passed or have it defeated. I will not see one of my bills placed on the postponed calendar and let it die automatically. If I am not entitled to that courtesy certainly I owe no courtesy to others and I will maintain my position and I will ask that every bill be read at length until such time as Senate Bill No. 522 be taken off the postponed calendar for final action.

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, seconded by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Miller, that Senate Bill No. 522 be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. HALUKA. Roll call, Mr. President.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, having voted under a misapprehension I desire to change my vote. I thought we were voting to take the bill from the postponed calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The vote is on the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny to return the bill to the postponed calendar.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I desire that my vote be recorded as "no".

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Blair will be so recorded.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire that my vote be recorded as "no".

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Westmoreland will be so recorded.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA and Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—24

Bartlett,	Detrick,	Homsher,	Tallman,
Becker,	Ealy,	James,	Walker,

The PRESIDENT. It was.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, may I say for the information of the gentleman from Cambria, it came over from the House, and upon motion of the gentleman from Somerset it lay on the table in my absence.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, my point of information, which I am asking the Chair, is whether that bill must be read before it is placed on the Calendar or whether that is done automatically.

The PRESIDENT. The bill was placed on the table temporarily and now it has been taken from the table. It will be on our next calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk will read this bill.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

(During the reading of the bill the following occurred:)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I request that the Senate be in order so that we may hear the reading of this bill?

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be in order. The Clerk is entitled to be heard when he reads the bill,

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of inquiry.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I raise the inquiry as to whether there was a seconding of the motion made by the gentleman from Cambria. I did not hear the Senator from Fayette second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair did.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. I seconded the motion, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. I did not hear the seconding, Mr. President and I am simply asking the question.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (already appointed) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The President Pro Tempore appoints Messrs. Farrell, Ziesenheim and Ruth, to be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk informs the House of Representatives accordingly.

MOTION TO READ BILL THE FIRST TIME

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the first reading of Senate Bill No. 1043, (House Bill 571), reported from the Committee on Appropriations for the first time at today's session.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I request that the bill be read at length.

The PRESIDENT. That is not in order. The motion now before the Senate is that Senate Bill No. 1043, (House Bill No. 571), just reported from committee be read for the first time and that is the only matter now before the Senate.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I request that the bill be read at length.

The PRESIDENT. The motion of the gentleman from Cambria is not necessary as the Constitution provides that shall be done.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1043, (House Bill No. 571), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Assistance for the purpose of carrying out the Public Assistance Law for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred forty-one and for the payment of assistance and expenses accrued or incurred prior to and remaining unpaid on May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred forty-one and providing for certain allocations from such appropriation by the Department of Public Assistance and also by the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer or the majority thereof

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, for the purpose of the record only I wish to call attention to the fact that this bill appropriates the full amount of money which is intended to be allocated for the coming biennium for relief. There have already been appropriated by two separate previous bills certain sums, one of which was read today and one of which has already passed, making provisions for the months of June and July, I take it, out of that fund, and therefore I think the record should show the amount so appropriated will have to be diminished accordingly.

Mr. GELTZ. For the purpose of the record only, Mr. President, I think the Governor has already demonstrated he is able to use a pen and he is able to use a pen on this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not desire to enter into a political discussion with the gentleman, but I disagree with the ability of the Governor in being able to use a pen, as I think he has used it in a very "unable" manner, if I may use that word.

SENATE BILL No. 818, (HOUSE BILL No. 1324), ON FINAL PASSAGE CALLED UP

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I now call up Senate Bill No. 818, (House Bill No. 1324), on final passage postponed, page 2 of the Calendar.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I request that Senate Bill No. 818, (House Bill No. 1324), be read at length.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order. However, the Chair is of the opinion he anticipates the point of order of the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my point of order is that this bill has already been read three times.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the gentleman from Philadelphia is well taken. The bill is now on final passage.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 818, (House Bill No. 1324), entitled:

An Act to further amend section thirty-two of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes and revising, amending, and consolidating the laws relating thereto," further providing for ascertaining the change of classification of counties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. My point of information, before the result of the roll is announced, is that it is my understanding, without questioning the legality of this bill, that this bill was not read three times at length on three different days.

The PRESIDENT. Does the gentleman from Cambria rise on a point of information or a point of order?

Mr. HALUSKA. On a point of order, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the gentleman from Cambria is not well taken. The bill could not appear on final passage calendar unless it had been read three times.

Mr. HALUSKA. At length, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. Yes, at length.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, the record does not show that.

The PRESIDENT. The record shows the bill was read at length on three different days and the Senator can not go back of the record.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—36

Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is it within my rights to now call up Senate Bill No. 522, which was placed on the postponed calendar today?

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria has the right to call the bill up but it can not be called up because the bill must be reprinted. It will appear on the next Calendar of the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I understand the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, moved that the bill be placed on the postponed calendar. It is my understanding the bill is now on the postponed calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The bill will be printed on the next Calendar of the Senate, not that of today.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not like to disagree with a ruling of the Chair especially because the rulings by the Chair have always been both fair and able but at the same time it is my understanding that any bill on the postponed calendar is not on today's calendar but it is postponed and can be called up at any time. In other words, Mr. President, this bill is on the postponed calendar; it was on the postponed calendar first and was taken off and then was placed back again on the postponed calendar. It is now on the calendar today.

The PRESIDENT. Not on this Calendar. The Chair anticipated that question and previously discussed it with the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, privately, and with others, and as a result of that discussion it is the opinion of the Chair the bill can not be brought up for action today. However, in the event the Chair is mistaken and sustaining authority can be shown the Chair will be glad to recede from his position. The Chair does not want to establish a precedent.

Mr. EALY. My own point of view, Mr. President, is that while the bill is not on the printed calendar, yet it is in such shape that it can be called up. However, I am content to abide by the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the postponed calendar is nothing more than a desk reference of the existence of certain bills, not on the calendar, but which are subject to call and therefore while we have printed on our calendar a bill that is on the postponed calendar it is really not on the calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will insist on its ruling and reserve the right to reverse the ruling if it can be shown authority. The Chair is not interested in this filibuster but merely intends to see that the rules of the Senate and the Constitution be carried out. All inquiries will be decided to the best of the Chair's ability.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL No. 404

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am directed by the Committee of Conference to submit a report on House Bill No. 404, entitled:

An Act relating to marriage; and amending, revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I suggest that the Senate now accept or concur in the report just submitted.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, for the information of the Senators it has been our practice that these bills appear on the Calendar. Perhaps some of the Senators would like to examine this bill. However, I am satisfied if the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, wishes it to be done this way. I do not know whether any of the Senators wish to examine the bill again or not.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I can appreciate the suggestion of the gentleman from Somerset, and I am of the opinion it would be much better practice to have the bill appear on the Calendar, because this is the much discussed marriage bill, and I am of the opinion some of the Senators, for old times sake, would like to look it over.

The PRESIDENT. The report will appear on tomorrow's Calendar.

Mr. WALKER. I might also suggest, Mr. President, the report I have just submitted is the official copy and that printed copies will be prepared so that they will be on the desks of the Senators tomorrow.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of information.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, in the event this bill is placed on the Calendar tomorrow, will it receive final reading today, in full, or tomorrow?

The PRESIDENT. Under the present ruling of the Chair, unless the Chair reverses himself, and he will if he finds authority to that effect, it will be on tomorrow's calendar.

Mr. HALUSKA. Then I request, Mr. President, the report be read in full today.

The PRESIDENT. To what bill is the gentleman from Cambria referring.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the gentleman from Cambria is talking about two different bills.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, the bill reported out today by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, the conference report, and I request that it be read in full today, or if possible, tomorrow.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, may I suggest to the gentleman from Cambria that the bill has been read at length three times and passed by the Senate, and that the report of the conference committee will be printed and placed on the desks of the Senators and it will be up to the Senate, and the only action the Senate can take is to accept or refuse to accept the report of the conference committee. The bill has been read three separate times in full on three separate days as required by law. I may say to the gentleman from Cambria that I personally have no objection to having the bill read in full. In fact, I would be glad to read it to him with gestures.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to call the attention of the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, to rule 20 of the Senate, 1941-1943:

"20. Every report of a committee of conference shall be printed together with the bill as amended by the committee, before action shall be had on such report."

Therefore, the report of the conference committee will be printed and placed on the Calendar for tomorrow.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, have I the right to request that the bill be read in full as reported out with the amendments?

Mr. WALKER. May I suggest to the gentleman if he made such a request it would be out of order, because the bill has been read three times in full, on three separate days, as required by law.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, may I ask the Chair, whether tomorrow I will have the privilege of asking that this bill be read in full before it is finally voted upon.

Mr. MALLERY. I might suggest to the Chair that he might reply to the Senator from Cambria that sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

The PRESIDENT. The suggestion of the gentleman from Cambria is rather unusual.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think the Chair has anything more to do except to preside over the Senate, and the Chair can not make decisions for this Senate in advance. I therefore suggest, Mr. President, that a question of what we will do tomorrow is out of order.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the gentleman from Philadelphia is well taken.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I think the confusion here is this, that the gentleman from Cambria is interested in whether or not the report of the conference committee has been read in full. Personally I did not hear the report read in full, because the clerk simply read some statements of the committee and then ended up with "the following bill," but he did not read the following bill.

The PRESIDENT. In order that we can decide that question and everybody shall know whether the report was read, the clerk will read it in full.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. I object, Mr. President, and rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. It is not a bill, Mr. President; it is a conference report. No bill can be read four times. Mr. President, a conference report is not to be read. There is nothing in the Constitution or rules which governs conference reports, other than that they lay on the table if the Senators approve. There is nothing requiring that conference reports be read.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. The bill is part of the report, Mr. President. Let the clerk read the bill.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a further point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my point of order is that there is nothing before the Senate. This report has been received and filed, and there is nothing before the Senate now.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has raised a point of order. The Chair has the report of the conference committee before him and the line immediately preceding the signature of the conferees says: "Respectfully submit the following bill as our report." The point of order is well taken.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Wednesday, June 18, 1941, at 12:30 o'clock, p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 4:25 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time until Wednesday, June 18, 1941, at 12:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The Chaplain, Rev. Donald McFall offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Thou who hast made us of many kinds and hast given to every man his task with his skill, grant that each may trust the special endowment which is his, seeking his portion of that one Spirit which sustains the diversity of Thy gifts and operations.

Because Thou hast willed that we should be strong and not weak, we ask Thee to give each of us patience to endure the provings of our faith, and grant that we issue from them with deepest trust in Thee. Hear our prayer, O Lord. Amen.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. WOODRING.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 103

In the House of Representatives, June 16, 1941.

Whereas, It is the profound belief and conviction of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

That a decent and civilized society must be founded upon certain truths held in our Declaration of Independence to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;

That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness;

That government is a fundamental condition of civilized society, and that the development of civilization has been inseparably and necessarily interrelated with the development of political sovereignty into larger and larger units, from tribes into cities, from cities into states, and from states into federations;

That the absence of government is anarchy and chaos, which are the antithesis of civilization, and that under a condition of anarchy and chaos the inalienable rights of mankind, enumerated in the Declaration of Independence, cannot survive;

That within the sphere of international society there is no government, but a condition of anarchy and chaos, and that incessant warfare is the inevitable handmaiden of anarchy among sovereign nations;

And that the rapid development of modern science has brought into being new weapons of warfare and new machines of destruction with powers of devastation so extensive and so frightful that unless there ensues a corresponding political development, establishing international government in place of international anarchy, and properly restraining and directing the uses of scientific knowledge, human liberty and the inalienable rights of mankind, the democratic way of life, and civilization itself must soon be reduced to the dimensions of an episode in history; and

Whereas, by a concurrent resolution the Legislature of our sister State of North Carolina has lately memorialized the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States to undertake to establish an International Federal Union for the preservation of peace and freedom, and in so doing has earned the distinction of being the first legislative body in the world formally to endorse the growing movement for International Federal Union; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that the Legislature of Pennsylvania, upon whose soil was born the first and greatest Federal Union in history, a Union that has brought internal peace and security to a continent, should be numbered early among those legislative bodies sanctioning the principle of a Federal Union of the worldwide community of free peoples, with its reasoned promise of the rewards of a world peace and a world prosperity commensurate with our own; now therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That it is the intention and desire of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

That the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States be memorialized, and they are so memorialized, to commit the United States in principle to the creation of a Federal Union of Nations, to be known as the United Nations of the World, and to be based upon a written constitution as similar as may be to the Constitution of the United States;

That the United Nations shall be a sovereign state of delegated powers, deriving its authority directly from its people and exercising its authority directly upon individuals;

That the jurisdiction of the United Nations shall be limited to maintaining the peace and security of its members and citizens, to regulating trade and commerce among the nations, and to governing within the sphere of what has heretofore been known as international law; and that to these ends the United Nations shall maintain its own armies and navies and shall be endowed with the necessary incidents of sovereign power;

That the Government of the United Nations shall be organized into three coordinate branches, the legislative powers to be vested in a representative Parliament of two houses, the executive powers to be vested in an elected President, and the judicial powers to be vested in a Supreme Court, the whole to be surrounded by such safeguards of human liberty as are basic to American constitutional institutions;

That membership in the International Union shall embrace in the first instance the United States, Great Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and the Union of South Africa; and that in all cases where the standards of public enlightenment, the degree of civil and religious liberty, the capacity for representative government, and the tradition in support thereof, are substantially the same as those prevailing in the foregoing nations, additional nations shall be admitted into the Union as rapidly as circumstances shall permit;

That the United States shall be admitted into the United Nations under a procedure scrupulously in accord with the requirements of the American Constitution, a ratifying amendment to which shall be submitted by the Congress to the American people for their approval after fullest debate;

That the Senators and Representatives of Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States be requested, and they are so requested, to introduce and labor in behalf of such measures in the Congress as shall further the purpose to which this concurrent resolution is addressed; and

That the Chief Clerk of the House be instructed, and he is so instructed, to send copies of this concurrent resolution to the President of the United States, to the President of the Senate of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, to the Senators and Representatives of Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States, to the Secretary of State of the United States, to the Governor of the Commonwealth, to the Governor of each of the other States of the Union, and to the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Dominion of Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand, and the Union of South Africa.

DICKSON CITY JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the House this afternoon the Dickson City Junior High School, Lackawanna County.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Messrs. YESTER, McMILLEN, HELM, BENTZEL and McCLESTER offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 17, 1941.

Last week, on June 11th, there passed away, at the age of ninety years, a man who was dear to the hearts of innumerable men and boys throughout the world. This man was Daniel Carter Beard, internationally recognized as a leader in the far flung Boy Scout organization, and one of the early pioneers in the outdoor movement for boys.

Daniel Beard, along with Lord Baden-Powell and Ernest Thompson Seton, recognized that an appeal had to be made to the adventurous spirit and imagination of young boys—so Scouting was developed.

Known affectionately to thousands of Scouts, Scout leaders and former Scouts as "Uncle Dan" because he typified the Scout spirit, he at one time declared "I would rather be a Boy Scout than a dictator, king or even the president of the U. S. A."

Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 21, 1850, he spent his early life in that city and in Covington, Kentucky. Much of his boyhood was passed in a country where the memory of Daniel Boone's exploits was common to every household.

He became a surveyor and traveled extensively. When he came to New York he discovered his ability as an artist and illustrator of animal life and for a number of years made sketches of animals and wild life while studying art in the evening. Later he started writing stories and articles to accompany his sketches and for a number of years was a constant contributor of both illustrations and manuscripts to various magazines.

He became interested in the boyhood of the city and when he became editor of "Recreation" was able to put to effect some of his ideas and founded the Sons of Daniel Boone.

Thereafter he devoted himself and his talents to the service of boys, becoming identified with the Boy Scouts of America as National Scout Commissioner. He was also Honorary Vice President of the Boy Scouts of America, and Chairman of the National Court of Honor. He was the author of some twenty books for boys, was an associate editor of "Boy's Life" magazine published for all boys of the Boy Scouts of America.

He was a member of several zoological societies and president of the Illustrators and Camp Fire Club of America. He received the Roosevelt gold medal for distinguished service awarded in 1927; also the Silver Buffalo of the Boy Scouts of America; and the Silver Wolf, the highest of the British Boy Scouts Association decorations. He was proudest of all of his gold Eagle badge, the only one ever presented by the Boy Scouts of America. He was vice president of the American Forestry Association, associate member of the American Museum of Natural History, Chief Scout of the Department of Woodcraft of Culver Military Academy and a member of many clubs and organizations; be it therefore resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pay fitting tribute to the memory of a great benefactor of youth and a man whose years of leadership and activity in the Boy Scout movement has served to enrich and improve the character of thousands of boys; and that this commemorative resolution be spread upon the journal of this House; and be it further resolved, That a duly certified copy of this resolution be forwarded to his family, to the Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America, Franklin D. Roosevelt and to each of the twelve Regional offices of the Boy Scouts of America in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McFALL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in this day and age when all over the United States strikes have taken place in many industries because of low and inadequate wages being paid, particularly to common labor, I am calling, Mr. Speaker, the attention of the good people of the state of Pennsylvania to the fact that there is an army of faithful laborers whose work is looking to the welfare and safety of the millions of users of our public highways of the state. These men through rain or sunshine—through the hot days of summer and the cold of winter—are out at all hours of the night to make roads passable during blizzards or to clear obstructions caused by summer storms, and these men receive the magnificent wage of forty-five cents per hour. Now there is no question that this wage is far below the wages received by laborers in public works, or other employment. I am, therefore, Mr. Speaker, offering the following resolution asking for an increase of five cents per hour for all laborers who work on our State Highways . . .

The SPEAKER. The gentleman asked consent to address the House and not to offer a resolution.

Mr. McFALL. Mr. Speaker, I wish the remarks to be spread on the Legislative Journal.

The SPEAKER. The remarks will be spread upon the Journal. The gentleman has the floor. He may proceed with his remarks.

Mr. McFALL. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry if I have in any way transgressed on the rules of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was simply trying to guide the gentleman.

Mr. McFALL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. HARKINS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I rise at this time to express my opinion upon certain measures concerning which there has been much debate and much newspaper publicity in the last few days. Prior to entering upon this discussion let me say, Mr. Speaker, that so far in this discussion in this session of the so-called subversive teachings, there has been no question raised as to the patriotic intent of any Member of this assembly, and I feel that it is well that we men here in our deliberations and in our discussions are still able to preserve that American custom and that heritage which we have of considering such problems in all of their aspects.

Mr. Speaker, much has been said in the last few weeks and last night concerning the question of amending the Teachers Tenure Act to provide for the dismissal of teachers who are charged with subversive or un-American teachings. Many people have spoken to me concerning the various bills which, it is supposed, would, if passed, eliminate from the schools those people who would betray the children entrusted to their care by teaching that the principles upon which this country was founded, and for the continuation of which we are today engaged in the task of conscripting a huge army, are not worthy of preservation for future generations. There have been none, however, who have been able to define what subversive teaching is or what it means, despite their opposition to it. From these conversations I have learned that most of the proponents of these bills would not hesitate to dismiss any teacher who was suspected of teaching anything not acceptable to the personal judgment of the individual critic. It is interesting to note that many people state that no one knows whether subversive teachers can be dismissed under the terms of the Teachers Tenure Act. In my opinion, there is no doubt that subversive teachers can be removed under the Teachers Tenure Act. The crux of the matter is that no one knows just what subversive teaching is. The difficulty, therefore, does not lie in whether or not subversive teachers may be dismissed, but in determining what subversive teaching is and what it is not. In my opinion, there is definitely no doubt that teachers are not hired to teach subversive or un-American doctrines and, therefore, if any teacher teaches anything which is subversive, she can be dismissed as an incompetent person—one who does what she is not supposed to do. Incompetency may be the failure to do something which should properly be done, or the failure to do properly something which should be done or the doing of something which should not be done. I would classify a teacher who teaches subversive doctrines as one who is doing something that should not be done; therefore, as an incompetent teacher.

It may be argued that in the teaching of the social science courses or history courses or civics or problems of democracy, that it is hard to distinguish, from the printed word alone, just what is meant as the teacher may enunciate or change the meaning of certain words by different inflections or intonations of her voice or by individual mannerisms. This is not a valid objection and any superintendent or supervising principal worthy of the position which he fills would, if he properly supervised his classes, soon eliminate any misunderstandings which might arise through oversight or slight carelessness on the part of an honest teacher; likewise any superintendent or supervising principal could quickly determine if a teacher was actually guilty of subversive teaching.

I note with interest the statement of Dr. Alexander J. Stoddard, superintendent of public schools of the city of Philadelphia, who on June 10, 1941 was quoted in the Philadelphia Inquirer as saying,

"Somehow, the United States must get the last Communist and Fascist school teacher out of its school systems. I favor legislation on this subject, provided it will help rid the schools of Communists and Fascists, but at the same time will not open the door to possible persecution of other people who are merely exercising their American right to differ with one another. I have not studied the (school) Bills pending in Harrisburg, but with their spirit and objectives I am in full accord."

Dr. Stoddard is not alone in his desire to see that subversive teachers do not influence the lives of the young. However, there are many who believe it is wise to study these bills and others of the same type before placing them on the statute books.

I am likewise interested in another statement of the same gentleman, Dr. Alexander J. Stoddard, superintendent of Philadelphia schools who in a dispatch of the Philadelphia Inquirer, dated Atlantic City, February 26, 1941, speaking as Chairman of the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association, stated:

"The teachers and school administrators of America will not be the last to surrender to the attack on freedom—they will never surrender to it. We intend to continue to teach that our American democracy is an infinitely precious heritage that we must preserve at all costs. We intend to continue to teach that the national heroes of our country were red-blooded men and women and not little 'tin gods' who could never under any circumstances make a wrong decision. We intend to continue to express the faith that men and women can govern themselves and can maintain a great system of schools. We intend to continue to deal with important controversial questions in our schools, in order that children may know something about the problems of our country, remembering that they are the children of a free people, children who are themselves destined to inherit the great tradition of human dignity and human liberty. Subversive means 'to overthrow from the foundation', and what is the foundation of our democracy? It is not in the last analysis the intelligence, judgment, information and education of all the people? This is not just a question of one textbook or another. The challenge that faces us is one of keeping faith with the American people and the ideals which they cherish. The American people, if given access to the facts, and if they are not stampeded by false propaganda, want their schools to be free institutions. We extend cooperation to every honest and well informed effort to improve the schools, but we are prepared to repel any attempt to divide the American people and shake their confidence in their schools."

It is a well known fact that the Committee of Seven of a Civic Organization, which functions in the City of Philadelphia, has expressed an opinion during an exhaustive investigation which in effect says that the textbooks of Harold O. Rugg, whose use is contended by some people, are not un-American and are proper books for use in schools where it is the desire and wish of the school boards to adopt them. I want to make clear that I have no interest in whether the Rugg books are used in the school or not, so I have no desire to defend them. However, if you remove the Rugg books, you will then be called upon to remove some other set of textbooks and then another set of textbooks, as there will always be some person ready to campaign against anyone whose ideas in any way offend him. Some time ago I received a letter from a person out in Colorado who speaking of an act designed to ban Rugg books said, "I feel that the act is excellent but that it also might have been more general to cover the whole social science field or any books written by Harold O. Rugg, George Counts, Charles A. Beard, John Dewey and any books written by or in part by the Progressive Education Association or the National Education Association." I read this quotation to indicate the extensiveness of what the man wishes to ban; he wishes to ban anything written by or in part by the National Education Association and I suppose he would also include, therefore, anything written by or in part by any member of the National Education Association. This is utterly ridiculous. In the Evening Bulletin of Wednesday, June 11, 1940, we see an editorial, "The House at Harrisburg has in consideration a Bill passed by the Senate which would definitely give the authority to dismiss teachers who engage in 'un-American or subversive activity.' The phrase is a broad one. It might be construed to allow persecution of teachers who merely hold opinions not popular with superintendents and school boards."

I stated a few weeks ago on the floor of the House that the following statement if made today in the classroom would certainly be sufficient to cause a teacher to be suspected of subversive or un-American activity. However, when we look into the record we find that the remarks were made by Abraham Lincoln in his first inaugural address on March 4, 1861. "If by the mere force of numbers a majority should deprive a minority of any clearly written constitutional right, it might, on a moral point of view, justify revolution—certainly would if such a right were a vital one." And likewise when Abraham Lincoln, as a member of Congress, speaking in the United States House of Representatives, January 12, 1848, made the following statement, "Any people are ere being inclined and having the power have the right to rise up and shake off the existing government, and form a new one that suits them better. This is a most valuable, a most sacred right—a right which we hope and believe is to liberate the world. Nor is this right confined to cases in which the whole people of an existing government may choose to exercise it. Any portion of such people that can may revolutionize and make their own of so much of the territory as they inhabit. More than this, a majority of any portion of such people may revolutionize, putting down a minority, intermingled with or near about them, who may oppose this movement. Such minority was precisely the case of the Tories of our own revolution. It is a quality of revolutions not to go by old lines or old laws; but to break up the old, and make new ones." Would either one of these quotations today sound patriotic if we believed them to be those of a teacher not too popular? There are many today who would say those words are definitely subversive and anyone uttering them would be dismissed from the school system.

The Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania provides that the General Assembly shall provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public schools. Ladies and gentlemen, we will not maintain an efficient system of public schools by making the conditions under which our teachers teach, so restrictive that people of ability will not take part therein. People whose fidelity and loyalty to the Constitution and the Government of the United States are unquestioned will not willingly place themselves in a position where they are some irresponsible person or some inefficient superintendent can, because of personal dislike, subject the teacher to humiliation and, if possible, disgrace and dismissal. The children of our Commonwealth will discuss these problems in their homes, they will hear them discussed on the radio, they will discuss them among themselves on the street corners and in their own groups and clubs and in my opinion, it is much better if these controversial questions would be discussed in the schools under the leadership and intelligent direction of teachers. The treatment of the subject will not only be fair and impartial but will be free from repression, evasiveness or denial of the possibility of persecution and inquisitorial investigations.

In conclusion, it is hard for me to understand how a teacher could be guilty of subversive teaching without violating the Sedition Laws on the statute books of our Commonwealth. The provisions of the Sedition Act are so broad and comprehensive that in my opinion a teacher guilty of subversive teaching would be guilty of sedition and could, therefore, be dismissed upon conviction thereunder the present Teachers Tenure Act.

Whatever action is taken by this legislature should apply to teachers only, not to the Revenue Department only, not to the Insurance Department only, not to the Department of Public Instruction only, but should apply to all state employees and perhaps to all Municipal and City employees as well. Whatever is good enough for all state employees is good enough for the teachers of Pennsylvania. We ask no special indulgence, but demand the same legal protection before the law as all other state employees.

Now, Speaker, there has been much discussion lately concerning these bills due to the fact that in the community known as Wilmerding in the County of Allegheny there recently was a teacher dismissed because of the signing of a nomination paper of a person who was a candidate for office on the Communist ticket. From the newspaper reports which I have read concerning this case, I understand that this was not a primary petition but was a nomination paper which placed the name of this Communist candidate upon the general election ballot. There was much delay in the appeal being considered by the Department of Public Instruction so that several months have elapsed from the time that the appeal was taken until the past week when the decision was handed down, in which this teacher was reinstated. It appears that the Department of Public Instruction, acting through the Superintendent, decided that this particular teacher had done something which was his legal right to do. Without taking any position of defending a man with whom I am not acquainted, I wish to state that it seems in the interest of good legislation we should not here legislate by passing any act which would make a cause for dismissal an act which in its legal sense is a perfectly legal thing to do. If we are going to take any position we should first take the position of definitely making up our minds whether or not the party should be entitled to the privilege of the ballot. We should not go off on a tangent and indirectly punish an individual for doing an act which he has a perfect right to do.

Sometime ago, on March 17, I received from a group of people known as The Philadelphia Committee on Public Affairs, a letter relative to House Bill 205 which I think has some conclusions in it pertinent to the issue at hand. On this committee was a sub-committee composed of Dr. Edwin C. Broome, formerly Philadelphia Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Bruce M. Watson, former Secretary of Public Education and Child Welfare Association, and Dr. William Dodge Lewis, formerly Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and this sub-committee reported on the question of Dr. Rugg's books through the Philadelphia Committee on Public Affairs.

I wish to quote some excerpts from that particular letter or from that report. Speaking of those text books this sub-committee said:

"Our examination of the books has not discovered any statements, which, taken with the complete context, can be regarded as subversive of American ideals and principles.

"We have not found any statements which criticize our government, its policies, or its distinguished representative, which are not truthful statements of facts. Facts, both uncomplimentary and complimentary, are frankly stated, and the uncomplimentary statements are not unduly stressed.

"We have not found any statements, which taken in their entirety, advocate an overthrow of our government, or any revision of present principles and practices except by constitutional and democratic methods.

"We have not found any statements which could influence pupils to prefer any foreign form of government to ours or to wish to substitute for ours any foreign system."

The conclusion reached by this famous sub-committee is as follows, and I think this statement is a challenge to our democratic form of government:

"There are two ways whereby the principles of democracy can be subverted. First, by the subversive action of communists, fascists, or other groups directed towards the overthrow or the discreditment of our government, or the destruction of the principles upon which it is established, by violence, treason or other unconstitutional methods. Second, by the usurpation by self-appointed minority organizations of the functions that have been delegated by the people to duly and legally constituted officers and boards.

"We are not prepared to say which is the more threatening to the preservation of American democracy as we understand it.

"Both should be vigorously combatted by all right-minded and patriotic citizens."

Mr. Speaker, I am making this statement because in the judgment of the Committee on Education of the House we have passed a bill which now is in the hands of the Senate Committee on Education, which would I believe, if passed by the Senate and placed upon the statute books, give all proper and necessary authority to the local school boards in handling the problem that presents itself to them.

House Bill No. 1156 which I sponsored in the House and which passed this House unanimously, I believe, is a bill which definitely places with the State Department of Public Instruction the duty of formulating a course of study which would inculcate in the children of Pennsylvania the truth of our democracy which we desire to preserve and to continue. If a teacher violated the course of study there would be ample reason for the school board to dismiss the teacher.

Retracing my steps for a moment to the situation at Wilmerding, I want to state that there is no bill in the Committee on Education today which as drafted would in any way have permitted the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to have dismissed that teacher for those imprudent acts which he had performed outside of the school system. Those particular acts were in no way connected with his teaching duties or with his activities in the classroom in any way, shape or form.

Mr. Speaker, there has been much mention made of telegrams which we received last evening which emanated from some officials of the American Legion. For the record I wish to state that I have on many occasions cooperated with the local branch of the American Legion, the local Post in my community, and I know that those gentlemen do not desire us to pass any bill here which would break down or tear down the fundamental guarantees which our Constitution gives to any citizen in the State.

I believe I made a proper statement a few weeks ago on the floor when I recommended that we consider as the bill most likely to accomplish the desires of all of us and to preserve the free right which we now have, that we consider House Bill 413. I understand that that bill was to be considered by the Committee on State Government this morning. I am not informed as to whether the bill has been reported out or whether it has not been reported out, but I can state for the newspapers and for the benefit of the groups interested that that particular bill so far is the only one introduced to this House which most likely will meet the objectives and the fair objectives of all the groups interested in the problem.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, so much has been said upon the floor of this House in the last week or ten days in reference to these subversive bills in general that I hesitate to arise at this time to take the time of the House to say anything further. However, it seems to me that it is very pleasing in one respect that the gentleman from Allegheny appears now to have seen the light, and that at last he is getting busy about the question of these subversive bills.

I do not have any pride of authorship in the bill which I introduced in January of this year at the request of the School Director's Association of Pennsylvania, to amend the Teacher's Tenure Act in order that teachers might be dismissed from the public schools who are guilty of subversive or un-American teachings. It is rather interesting to me and conclusive of the psychology of the gentleman from Allegheny that although he has had these bills now for almost five months in his committee, and although they have been lodged there, he now says that the bills as they are, he feels, do not accomplish that which we desire.

The gentleman from Allegheny is astute enough to know if he believed in this amendment to the Teacher's Tenure Act, if he believed that it were necessary to protect our school children from subversive teaching, that he could have well prepared or he could have sought some of the rest of us in the matter, and in consultation we might have agreed upon the language of what the requirements were. I do not think we are so much concerned with language at this time. What the people of this state and country are concerned with is that they find that now there has been, as many of us have suspected for a long time, a festering sore in our public school system, a system of teaching, a course of education on the part of certain teachers in our schools and colleges to bend the wills and to bend the minds of our youth and of our children in these schools, to the way of thinking of these teachers. It isn't so much the question of the open declaration that they desire to overthrow this government with which we are concerned, because we know that that can be taken care of. It isn't that way that these people work; it isn't that way that the communists work; it is by incessant digging and digging and digging, spreading out the tentacles by which they inculcate in the minds of our children their subversive doctrines, in order that they might distrust our form of government, in order that they may distrust the economic system under which we live.

We know from the history of what has happened all over the world that they do not openly attack the system or the government or the form of government, but attack their ideals and then by slimy methods they inculcate in the minds of youth a dissatisfaction first, and a distrust next, until they have filled up their minds with the idea that the kind of government under which they live is an improper government, until they have sown the seed of revolution that they hope to reap in the future.

I think the gentleman on the other side of this House and particularly the Education Committee and others now are harkening to the voice of people. They should have heard it in January and February; it was certainly audible to many among us that they the people wouldn't long stand, and in the crisis with which we are faced at this time we cannot stand for any group of people in this country who are tearing down our system of government who are trying to sow the seeds of distrust and dissatisfaction among our people.

Why this sudden tenderness for these teachers? For five or six years a group in Philadelphia has been trying to get rid of a subversive teaching group in the Philadelphia schools, and yet they couldn't get any action until this year. During this time these gentlemen have completely ignored the American Legion and various other organizations who have often said that they should be investigated, but from time to time they have said "We cannot get at it; we cannot get proof; there is no law that will let us get at it; there is no law that will permit us to banish these books." In these books they do not say that you should overthrow this government. I have read some of these books, not at great length unfortunately, but I have been able to pick out passages that to children ten or twelve or fourteen years of age cannot help but create doubt in their minds, because I think children of that age cannot help but be influenced by some phrase or some radical statement appearing in the text books.

Now, all of a sudden, after all this time, all this tenderness. For whom? Not for the great masses of the teachers of Pennsylvania who are trying to teach the children in the proper way, but for the benefit of a small group. That is who you are trying to protect. And now you come in here and say a bill should authorize the Department of Public Education to lay out a course for the teaching of patriotism and American ideals! Sure, that's all right but if that is true, why not amend the Teacher's Tenure Act? Why be so tender to this group, unless there is in the minds of the gentlemen on the other side a sympathy, with the ideals and teachings and things that they are teaching, a sympathy with the very "progressive mind," as they call it, of education, which is not in my mind progressive, but is in my mind teaching bent upon a particular end and a desire to achieve that particular end in order that they may remake and remold this form of government of ours.

You know that the Dies Committee and other organizations have found in our very departments in Washington men who have those ideals. There is no question in any man's mind that there is a group of leftists, as you call them, who would change this government for one similar to those on the other side under the Communistic banner.

Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that if we are going to go into this war, and I think we are going to go in to protect American ideals; if we are going to go in and save the democratic form of government in this world, we cannot stand to have any subversive group anywhere in our ranks, we cannot afford to have anyone at the present time teaching unpatriotic ways in our schools and in our colleges, nor to be in office in any of our institutions.

I was in New York on Friday with a group of men who were discussing Civilian Defense. They talked about what they were doing in the different states; they talked about plans for the future and what not, and if you have any idea that we are not going to be mobilized to the same degree as citizens, if you have any idea that we are not going to be mobilized just like an army of citizens here in this country for national defense, you are mistaking the times and what is coming in the very near future. At the conclusion of that meeting I said to the group, because I had not heard anything said about it, that there was any other program that was needed for civilian defense, it was the immediate need for patriotism. The hour for criticism is past, the time is here when what the country needs is for every one of us to lay aside our particular ideas even if we think they ought to be changed. Now is not the time to express those things. This is the time we must all bend every effort, when we must mobilize every bit of our energy to the idea that we must get together shoulder to shoulder to defend America. We cannot have striking at the roots of our government in our public schools teachers who have ideas different from those which we hold and different from those which the great majority of the people hold.

The gentleman is talking about statements made by Abraham Lincoln. Certainly many of the statements made in our textbooks about similar subjects would be proper; there is no question about the facts as they were given by the gentleman from Allegheny, but on the other hand, Mr. Speaker, this is a time when I feel that we who believe in this American system of government, when we who believe in the ideals that were laid down by our forefathers, who believe in the Constitution that says we are guaranteed certain inalienable rights,—this is the time when we ought to make up our minds that those of us who believe in those ideals as handed down to us, those of us who believe that we have certain inalienable rights, that those of us who believe in the Constitution of the United States and the system of government that has been given to us, have a right to fight this little subversive group, this small minority,—because it is a small minority, who are trying to work from underneath to undermine us.

I was down in Indiantown Gap with a group of members of this House last week. I thought as I saw those 14,000 men housed there, how could we as legislators go home at the end of this session and leave those men there believing that we are willing to let exist in this country organizations and groups that are bent upon tearing down the system of government that they are giving up their time and may give up their very lives to defend. Is it fair to say to them "You go out on the military front, you go out on the defense front of this country of ours, go out for the defense of these institutions of ours while we sit supinely at home and say 'Oh you might hurt some teacher because some imaginary supernitendent who has a grudge will try to embarrass that teacher'."

I know that we have in our system of government a saying that it is better that one hundred guilty men go free than one innocent man be punished, but in times like these you must give up some of your rights, you must surrender some of your rights to the President of the United States, many of the rights that you would not give up at any other time. In times like these we are willing to give up some of our liberties, we are willing to give up some of our freedom, and surrender some of our rights in order to benefit the whole of this nation, so that we may hand down to our posterity that which was given to us.

So I think in these times we have a right to defend against these groups and that we should defend by every legislative device that it is possible to use. I do not like witch hunting, I do not like to curtail freedom of speech, I do not like to enforce upon teachers a certain restriction of their freedom, but the gentleman from Allegheny says concerning teachers that you have in the schools, suppose you just take a notion that they are Communistic and that they are teaching subversion in the schools, he says in the event that happens you may dismiss them under this bill. Well, I went to public school in the city of Chester and I had a group of teachers, and there couldn't be any doubt as to the kind of teaching they were doing in the schools; there was no hint of subversive teaching among those teachers, no unpatriotic teaching. They were a very fine, sturdy type of American manhood and womanhood who stood before their classes and taught them. I believe we have many similar teachers, but unfortunately, in the last twenty years we have developed in this country through our colleges and through many of our teaching institutions a group of radical people, people of the left wing, as I call it, people of sentiment who go off into the stratosphere and try to bring into this country of ours that sort of teaching. I think it is time to put an end to it, and I know this House is ready to put an end to it, in fact I know that this Legislature is ready to put an end to it, and going to pass the kind of legislation that will enable the schools to dismiss a man like Gilles, who could not be dismissed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under the present law.

An editorial in the "Pittsburgh Press" which I have read within the last few days says that if he can not be dismissed under the Teacher's Tenure Act, then we ought to amend the Teacher's Tenure Act.

The gentleman from Allegheny has sat five months on these bills, but before that he had no great desire to see legislation passed of this nature. He has never before said that the bill did not have the proper language; he has not sought to amend it in any way. The gentleman from Allegheny is now seeing the light in view of the things that have been said, and knowing the sentiment of the people that is being expressed in no uncertain terms. The gentleman from Allegheny should now get busy and see that these bills are passed.

RESOLUTIONS

DEFENSE EMPLOYMENT

Messrs. BROWN, EDWIN F. THOMPSON, SHEPARD, JEFFERSON, ALLMOND and YOUNG offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 17, 1941.

Whereas, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in order to make available our complete defense facilities, has publicly demanded that all discrimination against the employment of Negroes in defense industries cease immediately; and

Whereas, It is in keeping with the great traditions of our Commonwealth that any such discrimination against Negroes be immediately eliminated; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives requests the Governor and the State Council of Defense to immediately issue an order removing any ban against the employment of Negroes in defense industries; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House mail a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the Commonwealth and to the Chairman of the State Council of Defense, so that this action may be immediately taken.

Whereas, In his statement, the Chief Executive stated "I place the full support of my office to the effect that all holders of defense contracts are urged to examine their employment and training policies at once to determine whether or not these policies make ample provision for the full utilization of available and competent Negro workers," and

Whereas, President Roosevelt, by such a statement has continued the great tradition of our Country, and again restated one of the fundamental principles on which our Democracy is based; be it therefore

Within thirty days after each annual meeting of the State Association the treasurers of the respective county associations shall file with the county commissioners an itemized statement under oath setting forth where and when the annual meeting of the State Association was held the number of delegates from the respective associations in attendance and the expenditures due from the county associations for such annual meeting The county commissioners shall thereupon draw their warrant on the county treasurer and pay to the treasurer of the county association out of the county funds the amount expended by the county association under the provisions of this subdivision Provided however That in all counties having controllers said accounts shall be audited by the controller

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, the bill before us, Section 100 provides that the County Commissions shall pay the expenses of assessors at the State Convention at the rate of six dollars per day and the usual prevailing railroad mileage. I am very heartily in favor of assessors having an organization and having a state-wide organization, but I believe and I so state that I think it is bad legislation to make the County Commissioners of the individual counties pay the expenses of the county assessors attending a State Convention. They receive their pay the same as anybody else does, and if they wish to have a state-wide organization, which I think is commendable, then I most certainly think they should be willing to pay their own expenses and not make the taxpayers of the counties who already pay them their salaries for doing their work, pay the extra expense of attending a State-wide convention.

For that reason I am opposing the bill. I believe it is bad and I am asking my colleagues in the House to vote against the measure for that reason. It is imposing an additional burden on the taxpayers which should not be imposed.

Mr. McFALL. Mr. Speaker, I had no intention of speaking on this bill but since the gentleman from Blair calls attention to the fact and used the word "shall", I wish to correct that. This is not a "shall" bill, it is a "may" bill. To me this is one bill that has been presented to the House that has a heart. These men who make up the assessors throughout the State of Pennsylvania, particularly in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth class districts, are men who are poorly paid. They have for a long time desired an organization in which they could better qualify and better conduct themselves in assessing the properties. Therefore, this bill after all is a home rule taxing bill, which takes care of those units that form the first taxing system of our government, the taxing of real estate and the taxing of our homes and our farms. It is true that this bill carries with it the expenditures of $6 a day. It also carries with it a desire that these men should meet the same as other organizations in the counties are meeting and having their expenses paid. If I am not mistaken, and I stand to be corrected, you passed measures here at the beginning of this session in which the sealers of weights and measures had this granted to them. So I am only asking the Members of this body to consider this bill because it has many merits and I am going to ask the Members of the House on both sides to vote "Yes".

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not like to dispute the gentleman's statement, but I just want to read for the benefit of the members of the House this provision in section 100, which is as follows:

"Expenses and mileage reimbursement. The expenses of the delegates attending the annual meeting of the State Association shall not exceed six dollars per day for each delegate for not more than three days together with the actual mileage at the prevailing rate of railroad fare and shall be paid by the respective county associations".

There is no "may" about this bill. It must be paid by the County Commissioners and the County Commissioners must use the taxpayers' money to do it. You may offer as an excuse that the County Commissioners get their expenses paid, as well as other bodies. The remedy is not to extend this kind of bad legislation to them, but to take this kind of special privilege away from other bodies. These men get paid the same as anybody else does and they do not have any right to ask the taxpayers to pay their expenses for attending a State Convention. I ask my colleagues to vote this bill down.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 19 This act shall become effective November 1 1941

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny define what is meant by the term "practical nurse"?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, the term "practical nurse" as applied under this act retains the same meaning. It means an individual who takes care of a patient and takes care of the sick.

Mr. NAGEL. Is there any provision made in House Bill No. 675 for the practical nurse?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, there is.

Mr. NAGEL. Will the gentleman be kind enough to point out that portion of the bill where the practical nurse is mentioned.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, on page eight, lines four and five of the bill reads thus:

"Provided that such licensed attendant may also use the term or title 'practical nurse'".

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I take the floor this afternoon to oppose this bill, not because I want to lay anything in the way of the registered nurse or the registered attendant nurse. I feel we ought to do for them what we can to help their profession and make their services better, but, I have something else in mind. I rise to protect the many people of our state who will not be able to employ a registered nurse, or a registered attendant nurse, if this bill becomes a law. There is no provision made in this bill whatsoever where out in the rural districts and in the small villages and small towns one can be employed who has not passed an examination for a small wage that can be paid by such persons as those employed on WPA. It will make nursing out of the question for people in this class. They will not be able to afford it because this will raise the price of nursing perhaps to six, or seven, or ten dollars a day, which this class of people cannot afford to pay.

I want to call your attention, if you will, to page 9, section 12, which reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person corporation or institution after the effective date of this act to "

Now, let us turn over to page 10, section C, and read in connection with that the following:

"It shall be unlawful," and it says on page 9, section 12, "It shall be unlawful for a person corporation or institution after the effective date of this act to "practice nursing as defined in this act unless that person is the holder of a valid licensed practice and a valid registration card."

On page eleven, it provides as follows:

"The practice of nursing requiring a license as a licensed nurse within the meaning of this act is defined as follows,

"A person so practices who for compensation or personal profit performs any professional service requiring the application of principles of nursing based on biological, physical and social sciences, such as responsible supervision of a patient requiring skill in observation of symptoms and reactions and the accurate recording of facts or carrying out of treatments and medications as prescribed by a licensed physician for the application of such nursing procedures as involve understanding of cause and effect in order to safeguard life and health of a patient."

Now let me call your attention to the fact that that includes everything, it can be made all inclusive. There is no case of illness that this particular clause of this bill would not cover. Therefore, it would be a bar.

The bill provides:

"A person so practices who for compensation or personal profit performs such duties as are required in the physical care of a patient or the carrying out of medical orders as prescribed by a licensed physician requiring an understanding of nursing but not requiring all the professional service or qualifications set forth in the definition of nursing as a licensed or registered nurse."

Mr. Speaker, to further prove that it will bar anyone from nursing unless they are licensed, it says here:

"This act confers no authority to practice medicine or surgery nor does it prohibit (a) gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends or members of the family."

There is just one provision made and that is it must be done without pay. Let us assume for the moment that a man who works on W. P. A., his wife becomes ill, he goes to his neighbor or to his neighbor's wife and says, "Will you come over and nurse my wife through her illness?" She says, "Certainly." After the nursing is completed in a week or ten days or perhaps two weeks, he says to the lady who accommodated him, "How much do I owe you for your services?" She says, "Oh, we are neighbors, give me two or three dollars and we will call it square." Under this bill, if it becomes a law, it will be impossible to employ such a person who does not make a practice of nursing, but one who has raised a family and understands the care of the sick.

I say, Mr. Speaker, this is no time, when we have on a program for defense, when there is a possibility that we may need our nurses, of decreasing the number of nurses that might be available for taking care of the sick of our State.

Mr. Speaker, I ask every Member of this House to vote against the bill and so protect the rights and the welfare of the common people of our State.

MR. SHAW IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the indulgence of the House for about five minutes. In the first place I cannot agree with the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Nagel, in what he has said. I intend to support this bill. Mr. Speaker, having married a nurse I feel more or less qualified to speak on the subject. I feel there is a definite need for the general principles embodied in this bill, as much for a health measure, probably more as a health measure than anything else. At the present time there are no restrictions on the people who handle new born infants, and other sick people. There is no restriction as the physical and health conditions of attendants who attend our sick. For all we know they may be afflicted with serious contagious diseases. They go in to attend a sick person, and that should be protected and guarded against.

I wish to call to the attention of the Members of the House several features that the bill has, however, that I think are bad and which I hope if the bill passes this afternoon, will be amended in the Senate. I refer specifically, Mr. Speaker, to line 18 on page 4 of the bill where it says: "licensed attendants must furnish evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she is twenty-one years of age." I think that is arbitrary. I do not know why the licensed attendants or licensed nurses should not be able to do such nursing when he or she is eighteen or nineteen years old. Second and more important in my mind is the matter set forth in line 23 page 4 of this bill, wherein it sets forth among other things the qualifications for a licensed attendant. It will start reading at line 21 as follows: "is of good moral character, has completed at least the eighth grade in the public schools or its equivalent."

Now, Mr. Speaker, that is fine but here it says "has such other preliminary qualifications and requirements as the Board may prescribe." Now, Mr. Speaker, I do not like that kind of general provision in any bill. Of course, they may say, "Well, the Board is not going to abuse their discretionary power," but I want to say that Boards down here have abused their discretionary power. I want to give you a specific illustration of just how the Boards have abused their discretionary powers that have been given to them.

In 1937 there was an act passed throwing on the Board of Professional Licensure of the Department of Public Instruction, Schools of Beauty Culture. In that law there was nothing said whatsoever about any bond being required to be filed by the owners of such beauty schools. Yet in 1940 the Board comes along and says that every owner of a beauty school must file a bond. What was the result? There is no bond requirement set up in the act and as a result the owners of these beauty schools cannot put up a fidelity bond because no bonding company will bond them, they do not know what they are required to bond. That is unfair and unjust. You might say that they have a right to appeal to the courts, but it takes three or four or five months to go through the courts and it puts the owners of such beauty schools to a great expense to fight such abuse of power on the part of the boards.

The same thing is set forth on page 5, setting up the qualifications, wherein it is stated as follows: "The licensee must be of 'good moral character and have such training and experience as the board may prescribe.'"

Mr. Speaker, I am saying to the Members of the House that these boards, given such power, can if they want to exercise such power and go to the extreme of preventing licensed nurses and licensed attendants from practicing in this state. It would be possible for them to do so. Nevertheless I am going to vote for the bill in the hope that the Senate will take out these bad features and finally pass it. The bill is good, it is a well merited bill, and licensed nurses as well as registered nurses in this state should have some protection, and the people of this state should have protection against licensed attendants who may not be fit mentally or physically to attend the sick.

I ask my colleagues to vote for the bill.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to take up the time of the House. This bill has been gone over very carefully and has had public hearings. The practical nurses' groups and other groups were before our committee, and at that time all these questions were brought out. I want every Member of the House to know that this "blankets in" practically every woman or man who considers himself or herself a practical nurse. This bill does not harm or keep from attending the sick any relative or friend. It specifically states that an individual who cares for the sick with pay or for pay must come under this act. Now, you gentlemen know that a bar maid, an individual being married, and other groups must have a blood test. Here is a group that attends the sick, who are under the doctor's orders, who may go to one patient who has scarlet fever or some other communicable disease and go right from there to the next one. I do not believe there is an individual in the House who does not feel that there should be some regulation and some control. With the regular nurses and the registered nurses being in demand at the present time and being called into duty, it is no more than fair that any individual who considers himself or herself a nurse should be registered. As I said before, almost every woman and man who is today in practice under this act, which by the way does not become effective until November 1st, 1942, should be protected. I feel that every argument here advanced with the exception of Mr. Auker's relative to the boards, is met with in this bill and I urge every one of you to vote for this measure.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, during the years that I have been a Member of this House I have observed that many of the bills that have come to the attention of this body very often approach the public welfare, and in the final analysis crystalize public opinion. I have noticed in the bills on the healing arts an antagonism of feeling, a clarifying of the differences that have existed, so that in the end there is an approach to something that is progressive. This is a measure that I believe has attracted the attention of a large body of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who practice nursing, practical nursing. My thoughts approach this bill just as they have done before with other measures, as they have done with the optometrists and with those that were practicing a profession in connection with the healing arts, with a view of constantly crystalizing public opinion and bringing the standard of those various professions up and up to where they rendered a real service to the community.

Mr. Speaker, I have given my name to this bill and I direct your attention to that one feature, that whatever the result of your vote may be, it is bringing us nearer and nearer to some better understanding of the place that practical nurses have in the community. I recognize the possible hardships that might occur. I feel there are one or two points that need some correction, but without commenting on them I do want to say and I ask you to face this individually in a practical way, as all business and as all thoughts must be developed in a community such as we have under our system of government, that the minds of the people actually may understand the purpose, the fair purpose back of every measure. Without asking any one of you to vote for or against the measure I only want to say in conclusion that I propose to cast my vote for the bill.

The SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Shaw for presiding.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion this bill as drawn is a very bad measure. I attended the hearings and during that time I discovered the fact that the professional nurses and registered nurses were not in agreement on this bill; in fact a great many of the professional nurses and registered nurses were opposed to it. That is one very good reason why it should not be passed. When you have a house divided against itself like the registered nurses are, I can see no reason for passing a bill like this. Another reason for not passing this bill is that the country doctors are practically as a unit all opposed to it. I personally have conversed with many of these country doctors and they say they do not want a bill of this kind. They say that the practical nurses are doing good work, that the registered nurses are doing good work too. For this reason Mr. Speaker, I believe this bill should not be passed at this time. When you have the registered nurses against it, a large section of them, when you have the country doctors against it, when you have the city doctors to a very large extent against this measure, it seems to me it is very foolish for the Members of this House to pass this bill with as much opposition among the professions and among the people affected by this bill.

Mr. SARRAF. For the sake of the record I just want to correct one statement made by Mr. Dix. There are sixty-seven counties in the State and in sixty of those counties the nurse's organizations are absolutely for this bill. In one county in the state there were a few, a small minority, who were opposed to this bill. I just want to enter that on the record.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know when these resolutions were passed by the organizations of nurses in these various counties, whether all the nurses were called in to vote upon it, and a vote taken as to whether this bill should be passed or not?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question I cannot say that all of the nurses were called in, but the organizations that I have records of have gone on record as being for this bill.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I think they are just ordinary resolutions that are passed without calling the nurses together for the purpose of voting either for or against a bill. For that reason those resolutions do not have very much effect in my opinion.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, does Mr. Dix wish to interrogate me or is he making his own statements? I made the statement, Mr. Speaker, that I don't know whether the organizations were called in in toto to pass upon this measure. Mr. Dix insinuates it was just routine; I don't know.

Mr. ECKELS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ECKELS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the gentleman, whether or not the statement of the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Nagel is correct that if this bill is enacted a person who is unable for any reason to employ a registered nurse or a practical nurse and who might be so fortunate as to find an ordinary domestic, a neighbor girl or woman to come in and look after his sick for an amount of pay that he could afford, that this bill would prohibit that?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, if the individual is entering the home to care for the sick for pay then he would come under this act, but if an individual who is a friend of the family, as was stated by the gentleman who previously spoke, came in to care for his WPA friend, I don't imagine that individual would be really taking care of her for any pay or any remuneration whatever.

Mr. ECKELS. Mr. Speaker, would this prevent her from taking care of this sick person for pay?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, if they are not making their livelihood as professionals in the care of the sick they would not come under this act.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken. Messrs. Sarraf, Schwab and Bentley asked for a verification of the roll. The roll was verified and was as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. PROSEN filed the following reasons for his vote:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1652, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections eight and eleven of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The SPEAKER. House Bill No. 1468, Printer's No. 1000 and House Bill No. 1469, on page 38 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, are not on file and will be passed over.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 99

Mr. EARLY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 99, Printer's No. 967.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1941.

The State highway, known as U. S. Traffic Route No. 22, from Harrisburg to Easton is used as one of the main arteries of travel between the eastern and western ends of the Commonwealth. It has, ever since its improvement a few years ago, taken a ceaseless stream of traffic during every hour of each period of twenty-four hours.

Since the establishment of the Federal cantonment at Indiantown Gap, one mile north of this highway, it has become of tremendous military importance, for the movement of troops and munitions.

The present improved two lane roadway of Route 22 has for some time been wholly inadequate, and is becoming increasingly more so. A three or four lane highway over this route has become an imperative necessity; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby urges upon the Governor and the Department of Highways the pressing need for the immediate construction of one or two additional lanes on U. S. Highway Route No. 22, between the cities of Harrisburg and Easton, and for the relocation of the roadway wherever the widening is, for any reason, impractical or impossible; and requests that the project of widening this highway be at once undertaken for the safety and convenience of the people of this Commonwealth, the furtherance of its commercial progress, and to aid in speeding up the National program for defense; and be it Resolved, That certified copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to the Governor and to the Secretary of Highways.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair will return to bills on third reading. The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1793, (Senate Bill No. 996), entitled:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Messrs. ROSENFELD and TATE offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 17, 1941.

In the course of human progress and existence, there appears and disappears into the dim dust of that eternity that lies beyond five hundred million souls, a mere handful of humans out of that vast number that have made any lasting impression on society.

One of those individuals was the late Honorable Theodore Rosen, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, of Philadelphia County.

Born on the twentieth day of September, 1895, on the farm of his father, near Carmel, New Jersey, he was raised in the truly American way, through the village school and the high school at Millville, New Jersey, where he was the valedictorian of his graduating class. He won a scholarship to Rutgers University and was managing a fruit farm near Hopewell, New Jersey, when the United States entered the world war in 1917.

He immediately enlisted in the United States Army and was commissioned a Lieutenant of Infantry and Regimental Gas Officer in the 315th Infantry of the 79th Division, affectionately known as "Philadelphia's Own" regiment.

On November 4, 1918, one week before the Armistice was signed, he volunteered on a hazardous expedition across "No Man's Land" and in proceeding forward alone was hit by machine gun fire and bombarded by hand grenades. He lost an arm, an eye, and sustained twenty-four other wounds as a result of his heroic deed. He was twice cited for bravery under fire on the battlefields of France and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross in 1919, while still in the hospital.

Notwithstanding such physical handicaps, he completed his schooling and was admitted to practice law in this Commonwealth. In 1922 he was appointed Civilian Aide to the Secretary of War of the United States of America. In 1926, he was appointed an assistant district attorney in Philadelphia County. In 1931 he was appointed to the bench of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, and in 1937 he was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, in Philadelphia.

He was likewise active in county, State and National fairs of the American Legion, serving as Commander of the F. D. & I. S. Clair Post, No. 37, and as Chairman of the Philadelphia County Council.

In addition to his contribution to the bar and bench in Philadelphia County, his peacetime service will best be remembered by his contribution of wisdom, counsel and guidance as well as of his substance to the underprivileged youth of his community. He ever evidenced a deep and abiding interest in the many problems that beset the younger generation.

Fired by the zeal of his devotion to his country, he felt at it was his duty as an example to the younger men to serve a voluntary enlistment in the Citizens Military Training Camp at Camp Meade, Maryland, in the summer of 1940, and it was on this altar of sacrifice to his country that he gave the balance of his strength and his indomitable courage, for as a result of this service, he contracted an illness which was rapidly fatal and which shocked the citizens of this Commonwealth when his death resulted on August 26, 1940.

His magnificent contribution of service to his country in war and in peace has given to his memory a fame which is safe, certain and complete. His life exemplifies the fact that destiny is not a matter of chance and his indomitable courage proves that it is something to achieve.

The Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, of Philadelphia County, in accepting his portrait for permanent display dedicated itself to his memory. It is fitting and proper that this House of Representatives forever dedicate his service to society to the memory of the men and women of this Commonwealth; therefore be it

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 404

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 404.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. O'BRIEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I listened with a great deal of interest to the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss, to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Bretherick and the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, in relation to this belated action on these so-called Communist bills.

I want it known that it is a matter of record that under date of February 25, House Bill No. 600 sponsored by me, "An act making it unlawful to appropriate or use public funds for the support of certain educational institutions which do not dismiss officers or teachers or expel students guilty of advocating or disseminating Communistic principles or propaganda," was referred to the Committee on Education on February 25. I introduced at this same time a companion bill, House Bill No. 601 requiring teachers and administrative officers to take a certain oath.

Also, Mr. Speaker, on the same date I introduced House Bill No. 602, "An act denying recognition as a political party for all purposes to any group or persons advocating the overthrow of the government."

I might also say that I introduced a resolution, Serial No. 81, which was referred to the Committee on Rules, asking for a joint commission to investigate subversive activities in the schools.

What I want to bring to the attention of the Members of this House is that identical bills 600, 601 and 602 were introduced by me in the session of 1939, at which time the Republicans were in the majority. Those bills were referred to the Committee on Education on April 4, 1939 and there they rested until the session came to a close. It seems funny to me with all this criticism about so-called belated action on these bills from the Republican minority, when they had ample time to act on similar bills in the session of 1939.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, June 18, 1941.

The Senate met at 12:30 o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.
The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. BURLEIGH A. PETERS, offered the following prayer:

"Seek ye the Lord while he may be found; call ye upon Him while He is near." With these gracious words, O God, Thou didst impart wisdom and understanding and the correct philosophy of life to Thy people of old. Yet they are just as clear and definite today unto us Thy people. And with them also is connoted the thought of the great need of seeking Thee as well as the serious disaster unto all who do not seek Thee and Thy wisdom and saving power.

We pray Thee, O God, in some way of Thine own choosing teach us the vital lessons of true spiritual evaluation of the worthwhile things in life that we as a people may also lay hold upon Thee while Thou mayest be found. We live in insecurity and uncertainty because we have not the surety of a living faith in Thee. We put our faith in iron shard and effervescent things. Truly may we seek Thee while yet it is day for the night cometh when no man can work.

Crown our efforts here this day with victory in the fight and joy in the doing that these closing sessions may be productive of great good to all our people. In Thy name we ask these petitions. Amen.

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE
IN THE AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE
TO SENATE BILL No. 80

Mr. HENRY I. WILSON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the House to the foregoing bill.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HENRY I. WILSON. Mr. President, the importance of Senate Bill No. 80 I feel justifies me in making a few statements before a Committee on Conference is named. It perhaps would seem a little presumptuous for any Senator to rise at this time to take up a little valuable time, but it will be remembered when this bill was on second reading there were many questions which arose, making it necessary to figure out and try to put the bill in concrete shape. It was delayed and there is no use in going into that, as the record shows.

Finally when the bill passed, it went over to the House. Now, in all of those discussions before the Senate it was thoroughly understood, of course, that this bill was drafted and sponsored by four Senators, those four Senators being Senators Heyburn, Dent, Miller and myself, and that it was the result of about eighteen months of conferences, and many hearings were held and it was tried to prepare a non-controversial bill. It has gone beyond that now. The action of the House in amending this bill to the extent that it has been amended and their refusal to recede from any or all of those amendments, I feel, makes it necessary for one of the sponsors of the bill to arise and state something against the amendments which have been placed in the bill by the House. If we fail to do that at this time, the members of this Senate will not realize what has been done and the dangers that may come from it.

Therefore, Mr. President, that there may be no misunderstanding and that there may be no careless statements made here, I want you to take notice of the fact that I am making a statement which I honestly believe to be true, and all the sincerity I have is back of it, and all the training and experience in compensation matters is in back of it.

Some may say there are certain paragraphs that may be called political. It is impossible to approach this question at this time without having just a little of it in there. So that the Senate will know there is nothing personal about it, so that those who have co-operated in getting this bill prepared in the first instance will understand that these remarks are directed at the so-called leaders of the party, of the opposition, I wish to make this statement:

The destruction of public morale is an unwholesome bi-product of political egotism and as we focus our attention on the vital legislative problems confronting the General Assembly in its closing days, it should be plain to the members of this body that the time for deception and intrigue has passed.

Today, the legislative machinery of Pennsylvania has become choked with political platitudes and the Democratic party, instead of fulfilling the obligations of progressive legislation, has deliberately scuttled its parliamentary interest in good government.

There can be no misreading the scope and intent of Democratic leadership in its efforts to elevate the requirements of party politics above any serious concern for the people of this Commonwealth.

We have observed their appeal to labor through vaporous promises they know in their hearts will never materialize. We have studied the inconsistencies of their farm program and we have scrutinized the glaring flaws in their financial juggling of the state budget.

These are hard facts we are dealing with today and it is inconceivable that the course of free society should be hampered and distorted by the warped and twisted theories which have motivated their leadership during this session.

One of the most flagrant violations of public confidence has been their attitude toward unemployment compensation and although they have succeeded in masquerading as the big brother of the working man, I hereby charge the opposition leadership with juggling their position in regard to labor and wilfully sabotaging a bi-partisan bill liberalizing the Pennsylvania unemployment compensation law!

Whatever the mutations of politics, I do not believe the constitutional purpose of good government will ever be perpetuated when political parties show such contempt for the rights and privileges of the people of this state. And we should make no mistake about the seriousness of such error and the actual duplicity of House Democrats in dealing with the problems of the working man.

The Democratic hatchet men weren't thinking of labor when they slashed and shredded the liberal provisions of Senate Bill 80 and stripped it of twenty of the original 22 recommendations drafted by the Joint Legislative Committee to Study Unemployment Compensation.

Where, at that moment, were the protective assurances that their party had benignly held out to labor?

Their artificially-induced interest in the working man somehow loses its eloquence in the fact of such deception. It made no difference to the scholarly prophets of the opposition party that the recommendations of the Joint Legislative Committee and the former Joint State Government Commission had been unanimously approved by the Democratic as well as Republican personnel of the Legislature's fact-finding body.

These recommendations, climaxing 16 months of intense study and research, were incorporated into Senate Bill 80. It was generally conceded that the findings of this group were fair and equitable and met every possible contingency without thought of discolored their purpose with vicious political implications.

It was the unanimous opinion that the recommendations of the Joint Legislative Committee offered an orderly solution of the complex problems associated with the administration of the unemployment compensation law. It was generally agreed that these recommendations would give an accelerated lift to the economic status of the working man and bring his industrial security within a new range of legislative understanding.

We have to go back to May 27, 1939, when the General Assembly created the Joint Legislative Committee to Study Unemployment Compensation to realize that from the very outset the purpose of this body was to conduct a non-political study of unemployment compensation and make the law applicable to a swiftly changing tide of economic conditions.

Yet, after concurring in these recommendations and agreeing that they represented the best approach toward stabilizing unemployment compensation in this state, the Democratic leadership deliberately hedged on its position and ripped out most of the previously approved recommendations.

It requires no political oracle to sense the significance of such a move when we consider that Democratic leaders, as a sop to public sentiment, then proceeded to substitute fantastic provisions they know could never be enacted into law!

Gravely etched in our memories are other irrational examples of their "strategy" but in this instance the leaders of the opposition party made the fatal blunder of assuming that the working man of Pennsylvania would not object to being an experimental guinea pig for their antiquated political theories.

They calmly overlooked the fact that the hopelessly impractical nature of their promises to labor would inevitably bankrupt the state unemployment compensation fund and route the working man over the rocky road of economic extinction.

Likewise, in their frenzied efforts to indulge in political horse trading at the expense of labor and industry, the Democratic high command somehow lost sight of the fact that the recommendations of the Joint State Legislative Committee had been given a stamp of approval by the American Federation of Labor and the C. I. O.!

Thus, their attitude toward Senate Bill 80 puts them in the incongruous position of wooing labor and then dealing it one from the bottom of the deck!

I might say here that the purpose of the Joint Legislative Committee to Study Unemployment was not to conduct a superficial study of the subject and then file a perfunctory report. The background of this fact-finding body covered some 16 months of intense study and research and the result of this program was a comprehensive analysis of unemployment compensation, first of its kind ever compiled by a legislative body.

The recommendations approved by the Democratic and Republican members of this group did not follow any clairvoyant ideas of governmental operation but were firmly rooted and practical interpretations of how best to meet the problem which had hamstrung the administration of the law.

It was important from the very outset that the subject of unemployment compensation should not be plunged into a controversy. The views and desires of all groups and factions were woven into a pattern of approved ideas and from this bedrock of mutual understanding sprang the recommendations which were eventually written into Senate Bill 80. I am sure that the Senators on both sides would never have approved the changes as they came over from the House.

Originally, the Senate measure boosted minimum payments and reduced the waiting period covering the filing of compensation claims. House Democrats, through selfish exercise of the discretionary powers at their disposal, rode roughshod over these provisions by hiking the minimum schedule beyond all sane limitations and further reducing the waiting period.

Aside from exposing the worthlessness of its legislative pledges, the Democratic party brazenly attacked the merits of Senate Bill 80 as a "lodestone around the neck of the working man" and sought to instill terrifying doubts in the mind of labor by appearing to come to its rescue like the hero in a school boy play.

The only drawback to this boisterous philanthropy is that the Democratic leadership, in line with its profligate record of financial inefficiency, forgot to consider that the unemployment compensation fund is not an inexhaustible well for the type of free-fisted spending that sent the Earle regime spinning into economic collapse.

They forgot to ask themselves what confidence conscientious legislators can have in investigating and survey committees if agreements and amendments unanimously endorsed are afterwards repudiated.

They failed to recognize the fact that no deserter from the cause of good government can be comfortable on his return and that breaking faith with one's legislative constituents not only discredits the efficacy and honor of our legislative committees but casts a deplorable stigma on the obligations that all of us must face as representatives of the people.

It would be virtually impossible to make an accurate appraisal of what the Democratic provisions would cost the Fund but it is safe to say these changes, if enacted, would cost the unemployment compensation fund between $20,000,000 and $40,000,000 annually and inevitably exhaust it!

The theoretical devices of the Democratic leadership cannot cover up the fact that it has thrown into discard most of the recommendations boosting the status of the working man and that it has camouflaged this piece of legislative juggling by increasing minimum payments beyond all practical calculations!

By promising the workers of this state something it knows it can never fulfill the Democratic leadership not only attains unrivaled heights of political duplicity but reverts to the disastrous "on-the-cuff" financing of the Earle regime!

Senate Bill No. 80, in its present form, has been altered so drastically that it is a fraud upon every working man eligible for unemployment compensation. The measure has been transferred into something so far removed from its original objectives that it is unrecognizable. It has become instead a bill dealing with civil service; it has become a bill to freeze out employes, now paid from a fund set up by the Social Security Board for administration expenses, and prevent them from being placed under civil service so that another political grab can be perpetrated in Pennsylvania.

I point specifically to the Democratic treasurer's office where payments covering unemployment compensation claims are administered. Certainly their leadership has no desire to see this patronage nest disturbed by the restrictions of civil service because they are interested only in good political jobs for good Democrats.

The net result is another case of political deception; of action motivated by politics and blind disregard for the actual welfare of the working man.

What has the Democratic leadership to gain by such subterfuge? Where have the labor leaders and organizers been all this time? It is inconceivable that labor, in the final analysis, will applaud the Democratic party's vague humanitarian impulses or stand idly by while the opposition party openly hijacks all of the liberalizing provisions of Senate Bill 80.

And how have they done this and what does it mean to labor?

They have purged a provision bringing the state unemployment compensation law into conformity with the Federal Social Security Law passed by a Democratic Congress.

They have stricken out an amendment exempting from the tax all farm employes in Pennsylvania.

They have waved the flag for national defense and then scuttled a provision exempting payments made by employers to employes engaged in military or naval service.

They have torpedoed the rights of labor by abolishing an amendment establishing a Mandatory Advisory Council comprised of employes, employers and the public to aid and perfect the administration of the law.

This was a mutual protection step in which labor would have had a powerful voice and it is a branding indictment of Democratic insincerity that orderly economic adjustments possible under this amendment have been shelved into obscurity!

They have taken the teeth out of provisions underwriting the salary rights of employes by striking out an amendment permitting the filing of liens against employers if they try to evade payment of the tax and curbing the action of nefarious employers who try to cheat the law by changing their firm name and transferring assets.

This can only be interpreted as a direct effront to workers since it undermines the economic security of those who labor for a living and provides legal escape for employers seeking to circumvent the law!

I ask this Honorable body and I ask the people of Pennsylvania, how long must we tolerate the domineering inefficiency and shortsighted leadership of the Democratic party? The General Assembly is presumably dedicated to the task of enacting sound, constructive legislation without the infinity of political restrictions with which Democratic leaders have sought to confuse the issues and build party prestige. Theirs has been a program of sly, ill-conceived propaganda and even less impractical legislation.

It is high time the Democratic party's dramatic flair for political adventuring be cut short and that we call a halt on the obstructionist tactics which have created a bottleneck of ill-advvised authority in the House.

It is the solemn duty of every member of this legislature to concentrate on a swift and determined end to political grandstanding.

The recommendations of the Joint Legislative Committee have been riddled through political discrimination so fantastic that one wonders just how long the people of this Commonwealth will remain silent.

The 22 proposed amendments incorporated into Senate Bill 80 were conscientiously studied to liberalize the status of workers in all fields and it is now up to those workers to disown the damaging political philosophy of tiny men and smaller principles.

The tempo of civilization is now geared to the furious demands of national defense and it is incompatible that the vital necessities of unemployment compensation should be thrown overboard because the Democratic leadership orders it!

The constitutional privileges of good government never intended that the standard of living for all Pennsylvanians should be smothered by political arrogance. Constructive legislation is not the product of a political mirage nor does it follow a pollution of ideals and loyalties.

The obligations of this honorable body are clear cut. There is no further time for dilatory tactics. Democratic stalling and high pressure bargaining has no place in our consideration. There are issues to be met and they must be met honestly and unswervingly without regard for party politics. The political nourishment of this great Commonwealth depends upon the ability of us as legislators to compromise differences and retain a virile belief in the American way of life.

As a member of the Joint Legislative Committee, I wish to impress upon you at this time that Senate Bill 80 must be passed in the form that it originally was approved by the Senate and the bi-partisan personnel of the Joint Legislative body.

It would be arrogant for the Republican bloc of the Senate to blind itself to any possible clarification of the language of the amendments which are reasonable and necessary and we approach a solution of this problem with an open mind. The original 22 recommendations, barring minor changes, are based on what the unemployment compensation fund will actually stand and there is no plausible reason why these provisions, once given bi-partisan approval, should be submerged because of political expediency.

I ask in all sincerity that Senate Bill 80 be restored to its original status, with any necessary and mutually sanctioned changes, and that it be passed without further delay.

Unless this is done in the full light of the deep-rooted obligations now hinging upon this body, the full responsibility for sabotaging Pennsylvania's unemployment compensation law will be placed squarely where it belongs and that, gentlemen is upon the Democratic leadership of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, before closing my remarks, I wish to add this word. It may be said on the other side, that due to war conditions, and due to great activities among manufacturers and other interests, that a great fund is being created down at Washington, the safety of which might be questioned, but that it is there, and therefore we could stand a raise in these rates and we could lessen the waiting periods and do all of these things, but no war was ever started without ending and no war has ever ended without being followed by a period known as a reconstruction period. I well remember the predictions of many of our people made when the World War ended, as to what the effect would be. This is what is going to happen. Just stop for a minute. Hundreds and thousands of people in the reconstruction period will no doubt be put out of employment with this fund in the hands of the government, and I wonder if they feel it is safe. This fund will come in handy then for that is the time you will need it; you do not need it now when things are good, but you need the money there, and it is history that some of the funds have failed, and the employers were formerly required to pay three or four per cent, and it took 70,000 people to administer it and the fund vanished.

Now Mr. President, may I say to the members of this Senate that nobody should pass upon a bill of this character without investigation and study, nobody should say this or that or the other, unless he has the qualifications to do so. These are important matters, very important matters. Of course, many of them can be understood in a short time, but this is one that takes months, it takes years to understand what the effects are, and Senate Bill No. 80 was approved by Washington and by the Federation of Labor and by the C. I. O., and for political purposes I charge that all of the amendments that are in this bill—were taken out. Read it—take a day off and read it.

I ask every member of this Senate to believe what I say and to support me in my remarks. I thank you.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to make a very short statement.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland may proceed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, this is the place but perhaps the wrong time to give an answer to the remarks just made by the gentleman from Jefferson, but I want to assure him that the House is acting within its jurisdiction when it takes a Senate bill and attaches to a Senate bill any amendments the House in its judgment feels are justified.

I want to say further if the gentleman from Jefferson thinks the speech that he just made is non-partisan and non-political, then of course his judgment and mine do not agree. I do not think a wholesale condemnation of Democratic practices or Democratic leaders has any place in the question of unemployment compensation. I too served on the committee, I too sponsored the bill, but I disagree with the gentleman from Jefferson that everything in Senate Bill No. 80 is correct.

Therefore, Mr. President, at the proper time and in this place, I will give due answer.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Roll call, Mr. President.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

Bartlett,	Ealy,	Kephart,	Taylor,
Becker,	Edmonds,	Letzler,	Thomas,
Carr,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Tyler,

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE SENATE TO SENATE BILL No. 381, (HOUSE BILL No. 1537)

He also informed the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 381, (House Bill No. 1537), entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by authorizing the acquisition and operation of aviation landing fields and airdromes, by counties of the second third fourth fifth and sixth classes

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN THE AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 381, (HOUSE BILL No. 1537), AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 381, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by authorizing the acquisition and operation of aviation landing fields and airdromes, by counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth classes and that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar Committee of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such a committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of information.

Mr. SHAPIRO. That bill is, of course, not on the Calendar, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. No, it is not.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the gentleman ought to state to the members of the Senate what the amendments are and the objections to them. As I understand it this is an airport bill which the gentleman from Luzerne introduced himself. I would like to vote on it but I would like to know what the amendments are and what the objections to them are.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, do I take the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia as an interrogation?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Yes, Mr. President, I would like the gentleman, not as interrogation, but as a matter of information, to inform the Senators as to his objections to the amendments.

Mr. MILLER. In that respect Mr. President I can only state, at the time this bill passed the Senate we all felt it was in very good form. As a matter of fact, it passed this body by a vote of forty-eight to nothing. During the course of its procedure in the House there were four amendments inserted and I will be perfectly frank in admitting, three of them are not very objectionable, but there is one particular amendment that is objectionable and that affects very vitally the airport now under consideration, which it is hoped will be jointly owned by Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties.

I might refer the gentleman from Philadelphia to that amendment and ask that he study it and determine for himself whether or not he, as one of the legal profession, might term it inadequate for this particular bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I would be very glad to do that, if given an opportunity to do so before the bill is voted on. I am saying, now, before the bill is voted on, when I do not have the amendments before me that I cannot comply with the gentleman's suggestion.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I have no hesitancy in endeavoring to supply the gentleman from Philadelphia with my objections. I do not have the bill in front of me either, but I state that there is a portion of land involved in this particular airport that involves, to the best of my knowledge, some seven hundred odd acres, of which a portion of it, approximately sixty-seven acres, lies in the County of Lackawanna, and six hundred and some odd acres lies in the County of Luzerne.

Now, Mr. President, the amendment that has been inserted I believe has been placed in there to support or assist this particular situation. For the benefit of the gentleman from Philadelphia and the other members who might be interested, I will read it. The amendment is:

"Except that the owner of land to be condemned may, if such land is situated in more than one county, designate the Court of Common Pleas of any county in which any portion of such land is situated to have exclusive jurisdiction over the condemnation proceedings. In case such owner, after notice and request, fails to make such designation, the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal part of the land is situated, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the condemnation proceedings."

Now I say this, Mr. President, referring to the case that I have related, that as a resident of Luzerne County, I deem it unfair for a land owner whose land is under condemnation proceedings to be given the discretion to designate the Court of Common Pleas in which the condemnation proceedings are to be heard.

In other words, to be more specific, I do not see why a court of Lackawanna County should say to the taxpayers of Luzerne County "we condemn the land in Luzerne County at so much money." Sometimes those juries are rather free in setting those verdicts, which would mean an additional expense in taking expert witnesses into another county to testify, which would mean the employment of additional local legal attorneys.

For that reason, Mr. President, I have objected to this particular amendment, and I trust that will fully clarify the question asked by the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I do not think this is the time nor the occasion to go into a discussion of the merits of the amendment inserted by the House to Senate Bill No. 381. I am not going into the question of whether this is a good amendment or whether it is not, but I would like to suggest to the conferees that this is a tremendously important bill to Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties.

The Federal Government has made a survey of available land in the eastern part of the country, with a view to building what will undoubtedly be one of the largest airports outside of the metropolitan areas. I understand in the event this bill is tied up for some time in a conference committee that it will jeopardize the awarding of five million dollars from the Federal Government, so that I am impressing not only upon the members of the Senate but the conferees in particular in the event this bill is held up any length of time, the Federal Government has set a dead line for the federal grant for the erection of this airport. I understand in the event it is not settled by the last of June the Federal Government will withdraw its offer, and so I would like to join with my good friend, Senator Miller, in impressing upon the Senate that this is a tremendously important bill, and suggest that the conferees act as quickly as possible and adjust the differences existing between the House and the Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion,

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The President Pro Tempore appoints Messrs. Chapman, Letzler and Mundy, be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS NON- CONCURRED IN BY THE SENATE TO SENATE BILL NO. 588

He also informed the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 588, entitled:

An Act to protect the debtors, obligors or guarantors of debts for which judgments are entered or may be entered and owners of real property affected thereby, and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof by prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of such property and limiting the amount collectible thereafter on such judgments

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN THE AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL NO. 588 AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. COX. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 588 and that a committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar Committee of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such a committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The President Pro Tempore appoints Messrs. Becker, Watkins and Cox to be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS TO THE SENATOR FROM BLAIR

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CROWE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 18, 1941.

The name of one of the members of this Senate has already been publicly mentioned by some of the older citizens of this Commonwealth as one that should head the Republican ticket in 1944 as the candidate of that Party for the Presidency of the United States.

His tireless endeavors in the interests of the older people and the passage by the Senate of his bill to grant free hunting and fishing licenses to citizens of Pennsylvania who are over sixty-five years of age has won for him a vast army of admiring friends.

His growing popularity as an orator which began with the rendition of his historic speech on the car shops of Altoona and which was recently enhanced by his dramatic reading of a portion of the Fiscal Code on the floor of the Senate has made him available as a strong candidate for any office on any ticket.

Born fifty-two years ago today the Senator from Blair, the Honorable Charles R. Mallery graduated from Bucknell University in 1909 and from the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1913.

He began his career tutoring a Mexican boy in Mexico City and later opened a law office in Altoona from which he has since successfully advised the residents of Blair County.

He was elected to the Senate in 1934 and reelected in 1938, and during the sessions occurring since his election he has won a place of high regard and esteem in the hearts of his fellow senators and a prominent place in its deliberations; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Senate wish their colleague, the Honorable Charles Mallery, many returns of this joyous day, each one finding him happier and more prosperous and extend to him their most sincere congratulations upon his having so soon in life accomplished so much and as the years pass and reach the sum of three score and five we truly hope that he will find great joy in trudging through the wooded places of Blair County armed with his trusty shot gun or sitting on the bank of a well-stocked stream in the knowledge that his hunting and fishing license have been a gift of the Commonwealth he has so well served; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution shall be prepared by the Secretary of the Senate and presented to the Senator from Blair to find a place among his souvenirs.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Blair wishes to be recognized.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, to the press it might be stated, "he spent the day working as usual."

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. TAYLOR, from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 795, (House Bill No. 640), entitled:

An Act establishing certain public roads and streets and certain roads and streets not yet in existence in the City of Harrisburg and the County of Dauphin as a state highway and providing for their laying out opening construction and maintenance by the Department of Highways subject to certain terms and conditions.

Mr. McQUIDDY, from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 796, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. REPORT OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, at this time I submit final report of the Joint Investigating Committee appointed by virtue of concurrent resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives adopted June 5, 1941, to investigate certain charges made on the floor of the Senate, June 4, 1941, by the Senator from Fayette, Honorable Anthony J. Cavalcante.

The report was read as follows:

IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMON-WEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
FINAL REPORT of the Joint Investigating Committee appointed by virtue of the Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and the House of Representatives adopted June 5, 1941, to investigate certain charges made on the floor of the Senate, June 4, 1941, by the Senator from Fayette, Honorable Anthony J. Cavalcante.

Your Committee reports as follows:

On June 4, 1941, on the floor of the Senate and during the debate on House Bill No. 690, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, made the statement that a criminal conspiracy exists in the Legislature of Pennsylvania to subvert legislation and that cash had been put on the "barrel-head" by vicious and powerful interests to promote the introduction and passage of House Bill No. 690.

After a careful consideration of the information submitted by Senator Cavalcante, stated by him on the floor of the Senate to be the full and complete information upon which he predicated his remarks of June 4, 1941, the Committee respectfully reports to its respective Bodies that, in its opinion, the information fails to establish a prima facie case of criminal conspiracy in the Legislature or improper conduct on the part of Legislators and that there is no evidence submitted to justify or to warrant any further investigation on the part of the Committee.

Your Committee is of the opinion, further, that the charges of Senator Cavalcante were made without reasonable or probable cause and without a proper regard for the rights and integrity of the persons involved. Your Committee deplores the fact that any member of the General Assembly, under the guise of a doubtful constitutional immunity, should so far transgress the ordinary rules of parliamentary propriety and the concepts of proper ethics.

Wherefore, your Committee in making this, its final report, does so with the feeling that the Senate, by appropriate action, cause to be expunged from the Record all of the remarks made by Senator Cavalcante, on June 4th, June 9th, and June 16th, 1941, touching the premises.

Respectfully submitted

Committee

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ACCEPTED

Mr. GELTZ. I feel certain, Mr. President, it is the feeling of the members of this body that the Joint Legislative Committee conducted itself with restraint and impartiality. I think the committee has done a very excellent job and I therefore move the report of the committee be accepted.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. I rise on a point of order, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Fayette will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. This report, Mr. President, is predicated on a Concurrent House Resolution printed in the History of Senate Bills, House Bills and Resolutions in the Senate at page 300; the resolution is a concurrent resolution, which calls for the concurrence of the Senate, appointing the committee that has made this report. In addition to that resolve the resolution also contains the following resolve:

"That the said Committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases."

"Section 26. Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of both Houses may be necessary, except on the question of adjournment, shall be presented to the Governor and before it shall take effect be approved by him, or being disapproved, shall be re-passed by two-thirds of both Houses according to the rules and limitations prescribed in case of a bill."

Now, Mr. President, I have permitted the report to be read and it is now on the record, but I make the point of order that the report is not in order, because the resolution does not comply with the section of the Constitution that I have just read.

Mr. GELTZ. It is my feeling, Mr. President, the point of order raised by the gentleman from Fayette, Senator Cavalcante, comes with ill grace, since all during this investigation and the continuation of the activities of this committee, he has endeavored to work with them and they have endeavored to cooperate with him. It seems to me, after the gentleman has taken advantage of all the opportunities which the committee has permitted and which the Senate has allowed, insofar as his remarks on the Senate floor are concerned, that now he rises with ill grace to raise any question about the authority of this committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I have not, up to this time, from the floor of this Senate, questioned the grace of my colleagues who, in my absence, introduced the resolution and adopted it. I do not now question their grace in that, but I can not stand by and allow the gentleman from Allegheny to question my grace in this matter, when I did not question their grace.

Now, I am standing on what I believe to be my rights. A point of order may be raised at any time while any action is pending on this resolution, and I am now standing on the point of order this resolution gives the power to subpoena and gives the power to punish according to the laws of this Commonwealth; this is legislation that requires the approval of the Governor, as indicated in the section of the Constitution that I have just read.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair was under the impression that the committee had been appointed under a Senate resolution, but it is quite apparent that the committee was appointed under the Achterman House resolution. Of course, being a House resolution, the question of obtaining the signature of the Governor would be up to the House and not the Senate.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I merely want to submit the point of order of the gentleman from Fayette can not be well taken at this time, because it has been raised too late.

This committee has acted, and, as the Senator from Allegheny says, after a trial or hearing, the person affected can not then, after having agreed or having raised no objection until the report is submitted, complain that the committee acted without jurisdiction.

I feel sure, Mr. President, the point of order of the gentleman from Fayette is not well taken.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. In answer to that, Mr. President, I point to decisions of this Senate stating that a point of order is in order at any time during any action pending on a matter in question.

Mr. THOMAS B. WILSON. Mr. President, the gentleman, the Senator from Fayette, is estopped and would be estopped in any proceeding, to stand on this floor and object to the legality of this proceeding, because on this floor he has stated that he would be glad to act with the committee and cooperate with them and do whatever he could to further the ends of this resolution, and he is now not only in bad taste and bad standing but he is estopped from standing on this floor and raising a question as to the standing of this committee, when he has said on this floor he would act with the committee and help to carry out the purposes of the committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I trust that my colleagues believe that I am talking in all kindness in this matter. I did make the statements attributed to me by the gentleman from McKean, but I assure him sincerely and honestly that up to this time, after my last remarks were made on last Monday, that I have not been asked by the committee to cooperate or give them any advice, but I still stand on my remarks and when asked to cooperate or give advice I am still ready.

I honestly believe that the matters charged by me were not matters properly to be investigated by a committee so imposed. I stated in my remarks, and I state again, I think it is a matter that ought to be investigated by the other departments of our government which are constitutionally created for the purpose of investigating many of the matters that I stated.

I honestly believe that some department of this government that has the power ought to investigate, to see how much money was collected by the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association to promote and sponsor, as they say in the circular that I produced as evidence and which was spread on the record on the floor of this Senate, but I question, in fairness to the committee and very cautious of their integrity, I think that the committee does not have the power to investigate the matters that I have indicated, what those matters require the power of visitation by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Department of Justice and the Courts of this Commonwealth, and I trust that my remarks will not be misconstrued, and I think I am not making a misstatement when I say that the committee has not, since last Monday when I made my final remarks, asked me to appear before them or to collaborate with them or do anything with them.

Mr. THOMAS B. WILSON. Mr. President, I still say that the Senator from Fayette is estopped from now rising on any question as to the legality of this committee, due to the fact that he has not only agreed to cooperate with it but he has repeatedly spoken on the floor of this Senate in regard to it.

There is another question involved here, and that is the right of the Senate and the House of Representatives to investigate its members. This resolution is competent and legal, under that provision of the Constitution which allows us to investigate our members, and we do not have to have the signature of the Governor and we do not have to have the concurrence of the House to do it and the House and the Senate together may investigate, or the House alone, or the Senate alone, and the resolution is perfectly proper under our right to investigate our members.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair requests the reporter to read the point of order raised by the gentleman from Fayette.

(The reporter repeated as follows:

Mr. CAVALCANTE. A point of order may be raised at any time while any action is pending on this resolution, and I am now standing on the point of order this resolution gives the power to subpoena and gives the power * * *)

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the point of order has not all been read. I also stated another point upon which I base the point of order, which is that the resolution also gives the power to punish.

The PRESIDENT. In order that there may be no misunderstanding the reporter will again read the point of order.

(The reporter repeated as follows:

"Mr. CAVALCANTE. Now, I am standing on what I believe to be my rights. A point of order may be raised at any time while any action is pending on this resolution and I am now standing on the point of order this resolution gives the power to subpoena and gives the power to punish according to the laws of this Commonwealth; this is legislation that requires the approval of the Governor, as indicated in the section of the Constitution that I have just read.")

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the point of order of the gentleman from Fayette is not well taken. Section 26, Article 4 of the Constitution, appearing on page 37 of the Pennsylvania Manual, reads as follows:

"Section 26. Every order, resolution, or vote, to which the concurrence of both Houses may be necessary, except on the question of adjournment, shall be presented to the Governor and before it shall take effect be approved by him, or being disapproved, shall be re-passed by two-thirds of both Houses according to the rules and limitations prescribed in case of a bill."

This was a concurrent resolution—which originated in the House and which came to the Senate and the Senate concurred; apparently, from what the Chair can learn, it did not receive the signature of the Governor, no effort being made to obtain the signature of the Governor.

The Chair can only construe this to mean that the House and Senate—the only two bodies that can determine, not the Chair or anyone else, whether it was necessary to have the approval of the Governor—they determined that it was not—and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appointed members on the part of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House appointed members on the part of the House and this committee started to function. The allegations made by the Senator from Fayette, the only remarks the Chair can recall the Senator from Fayette made, were before this body; therefore the Chair as stated before, must rule the point of order is not well taken, as the House and Senate have by their action determined it was not necessary to obtain the signature of the Governor.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise on an additional point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Fayette will state the point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, five legislative days having elapsed since I made my remarks, and the Journal having been approved more than five legislative days ago, the remarks can not be expunged.

The PRESIDENT. The question is not before the Senate and the Chair must so rule.

The question is now on adoption or non-adoption of the report submitted by the committee and which was read to the Senate.

Are there any further remarks?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred.)

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will be so recorded.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will be so recorded.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Lancaster will be so recorded.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Blair will be so recorded.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Clinton will be so recorded.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Lebanon will be so recorded.

Mr. WATKINS. May I inquire how the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, voted.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I voted "aye" Mr. President.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, how did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, vote?

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, is not present.

Stevenson,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The motion prevails and the report is accepted.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I feel that the Senate has treated our colleague, Senator Cavalcante, with every courtesy during this matter. Unfortunately, in the remarks which were made there were named two of our colleagues and, as the committee has reported, nothing was given to them to substantiate in any manner whatsoever the charges or references made, and I feel that if we did not follow the suggestion of the committee in connection with the motion to expunge the remarks from the record, that we would not be acting towards our other two colleagues with the same manner of fairness.

MOTION THAT REMARKS OF THE SENATOR FROM FAYETTE BE EXPUNGED FROM THE RECORD

Mr. GELTZ. Therefore, Mr. President, I move that there be expunged from the record, in accordance with the report of the committee, all of the remarks made by Senator Cavalcante touching or concerning this matter.

Mr. JAMES. I second the motion, Mr. President.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Fayette will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, five legislative days having elapsed since the remarks were made, and the Journal approved, a motion to strike from the record is not in order.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Fayette have any authority to support the point of order?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is Rule 16, which relates to bills.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair fails to find any authority to support the point of order raised by the gentleman from Fayette, and therefore rules the point of order is not well taken.

The question now before the Senate is on the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, seconded by the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. James, that the remarks of the Senator from Fayette be expunged from the Journal.

MOTION AMENDED

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I wish to amend my motion by adding to the motion "and remarks of other members of the Senate," the remarks of Senator Cavalcante and the remarks of other members of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. For the benefit of the Senators will the gentleman from Allegheny repeat the amendment he proposes to his motion?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I desire to amend the motion to include the remarks of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, and the remarks of the other Senators.

Mr. JAMES. I second the motion, Mr. President.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. DENT. I rise on a point of information, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will proceed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, does the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny include the remarks of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Reed?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would not think so. Those remarks were made prior to the remarks of the gentleman from Fayette.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the remarks of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Reed, I think, if analyzed—

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Reed, made no remarks, as I recall, in connection with this matter. The gentleman from Washington, Mr. Reed, did debate the bill, but not this matter.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will proceed.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, under the motion just made by my distinguished colleague from Allegheny, to whose discretion will be left the striking from the record of the remarks—the reporters?—or will there be a sub-rosa committee appointed to hunt them out?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair believes he can clear the situation. This is a serious matter and the Chair would suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, that he withdraw the motion and the Chair also would suggest to the seconder that he withdraw the seconding of the motion, and the Chair further suggests that the motion be reduced to writing, in order that there be no mistake.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, on the amended motion I should like to suggest I do not think it is quite the proper thing to do, in the absence of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, to make a motion to expunge his remarks from the record, coupled with the report of the committee which criticizes certain remarks which were made.

I have no doubt the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Geltz, had no intention and does not want it understood there was any reflection on the other gentleman, but due to the generality of the amendment to the motion, I think it is rather unhappy this thing should be done at this time. It strikes me the proper way of doing it would be first to carry out the recommendation of the committee and then, if necessary subsequently, with the consent of those gentlemen, or on a motion by those gentlemen themselves, have the remarks expunged. I think that might be—and I offer it as a suggestion—the better way of handling it, but at this time, in the absence of the gentleman from Luzerne, Dr. Mundy, I do not think we, the Senators, should adopt such a motion, because there was no reflection on either of those gentlemen and no question raised about the remarks they made.

We must all understand in moving to expunge remarks it carries with it an implication which is not warranted in my opinion against the gentleman from Luzerne, Dr. Mundy, and the other gentlemen who spoke.

MOTION REAMENDED

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I am perfectly willing to withdraw my amendment to the motion and stand on the original motion.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, did the gentleman from Allegheny include the expunging the remarks that were made in my absence on this matter?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, as the motion now stands it includes only the remarks made by the gentleman from Fayette, Senator Cavalcante.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Roll call, Mr. President.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "present."

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Fayette will be so recorded.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, before announcement of the tally is reported by the Chair I would like to explain why I voted in the negative on this motion.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have refrained from discussing this incident entirely, due to the very delicate position in which I find myself as a result of the statements made by the gentleman from Fayette, but I do not think it is fair to expunge from the record, if at all, the statements made by the gentleman from Fayette unless the supporting data, or the remarks made by other members of the Senate, are also expunged from the record.

I think we should be fair to the gentleman from Fayette in this instance. I think this motion would perhaps have been more effective if it could have been made after the gentlemen who also discussed this incident were present in the Senate. If we are to expunge remarks from the record and pretend this never happened, then we ought to do it in toto and not leave fragments on the record so that they may perhaps embarrass the Senate at some future time, and therefore I express my unwillingness to go along with this present motion.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I would like to explain my vote on this motion.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Schuylkill will proceed.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, during the time I have been here I have heard statements made on both sides of the House that carried implications which were never proved. I do not think it is fair in this case to expunge the remarks of the Senator from Fayette from the record, and therefore I would have voted against the motion even if the matter referred to by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, were added to it.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Blair will be so recorded.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, because of my remarks pertaining to the subject of the trucking bill, I believe it would be fair for me to be recorded as voting "present" in the matter of expunging from the record; so therefore I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "present."

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Westmoreland will be so recorded.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will be so recorded.

Mr. CROWE. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Monroe will be so recorded.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I desire to inquire how the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, voted?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted, in a clear and distinct voice, "aye."

Mr. WATKINS. I just wanted to be sure, Mr. President.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Blair will proceed.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, as a matter of information, is the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, to expunge everything that has been said, or merely the matters pertaining to the remarks of the gentleman from Fayette; it is not clear to me.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands the motion only refers to the remarks of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, when I voted, "aye," I thought the motion was to expunge everything; if that had been the case I would have voted "aye." As I now understand it, the motion simply refers to the remarks of the gentleman from Fayette and I desire to change my vote to "no."

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Blair will be so recorded.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, as I interpret the answer of the Chair to the inquiry of the gentleman from Blair, the remarks made by the gentleman from Fayette, on successive days, with regard to the incident that is before us in this report of the committee, are to be expunged from the record; as I understand it, all the remarks made by the gentleman from Fayette on two or three successive days; is that correct?

The PRESIDENT. That is the way the Chair understands. Perhaps it would be well if the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, would explain just what is the intent of his motion.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, at this time I think an explanation of the motion, after the roll has been called, would be rather embarrassing and I am reluctant to ask for it, but due to the explanation just given by the Chair to the gentleman from Blair, as I interpret the motion, it was to expunge from the record all the remarks made by the gentleman from Fayette on three different days in which this incident was before the Senate, and I wonder if that was the explanation given by the Chair to the gentleman from Blair.

The PRESIDENT. In order that the Senators may vote intelligently and correctly, and that there may be no misunderstanding, the Chair directs the reporter to repeat the motion made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz.

(The reporter repeated the motion as follows:

"Mr. GELTZ. Therefore, Mr. President, I move that there be expunged from the record, in accordance with the report of the committee, all of the remarks made by Senator Cavalcante touching or concerning this matter.")

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I might suggest the motion refers to the suggestion of the committee's report, which included the dates of June 4th, June 9th and June 16th.

The PRESIDENT. Is the motion clear to all the Senators?

The Chair asks that the roll be verified. The Clerk will call the names of those recorded as voting in the affirmative.

The Clerk called the names of the following Senators as having voted in the affirmative:

Bartlett,	Ealy,	Lanlus,	Stevenson,
Becker,	Edmonds,	Letzler,	Stiefel,

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections? The Chair hears none. The negative vote stands as verified.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I now read at length and present to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1254, as follows:

He also read at length in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1255, as follows:

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

Mr. GELTZ. read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1256, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor to sell and convey certain plots of land.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I imagine from the way we are proceeding, we will probably be giving each other Christmas presents before this session is adjourned sine die.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman is optimistic. How long does the gentleman from Allegheny think we will be in session?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am the author of one resolution that is languishing in the Committee of Rules trying to get us out of here by May 23rd. We should amend my motion and have it read May 23, 1942.

Mr. President, I read in place and present to the Chair three bills, and I blush when I say this but they pertain to national defense, and I respectfully suggest to the Chair that they be referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WALKER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1257, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 1016), entitled "An act relating to aeronautics; providing for the maintenance and operation of intermediate landing fields and air navigation facilities by the Commonwealth alone or in cooperation with the United States Government or political subdivisions of the Commonwealth; providing for the execution of leases or the issuance of licenses to the United States Government or to political subdivisions of the Commonwealth for the maintenance of navigation facilities on intermediate landing fields of the Commonwealth; conferring powers and duties on the Department of Revenue with respect thereto; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by extending the powers of the department in relation to air transport facilities.

Which was committed to the Committee on Military Affairs.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1258, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Department of Property and Supplies to assist in the development of aeronautics.

Which was committed to the Committee on Military Affairs.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1259, entitled:

An Act to amend article twenty of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined," by authorizing the Department of Highways to construct, repair and maintain certain facilities of airports.

Which was committed to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1260, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance, and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act," as amended, by changing a certain route.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. MALLERY. This is also a defense measure, Mr. President.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to make a brief statement.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, yesterday afternoon there was considerable discussion concerning Senate Bill No. 522. The action taken by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, resulted in the fact that I requested that every bill be read at length until such time that the majority in the Senate would recede from their action in postponing Senate Bill No. 522.

I was told yesterday that I had been very discourteous and that I have antagonized a number of my colleagues by my actions. I might answer that, Mr. President, by saying when we enter a house of God we will find inscribed upon the walls the following words: "As ye sow, so shall ye reap."

If I have been discourteous certainly it was only because someone was discourteous to me.

Mr. President, I have no intention of receding from my position. I listened to the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, and he informed me that the reason my bill was postponed was that he was trying to obtain more votes for it. Of course, he might tell someone that, but I have been here too long to listen to such foolish and silly stories. However, he might be sincere in that, and I do not want it to be said that I will be responsible for holding up important matters that might come up before this body, although we have been dilly-dallying for months, but the day must come when we must settle down to hard work if we are going to adjourn this year, but I certainly will not stand idly by and see any of my bills that are once out of committee placed upon the postponed Calendar to die when we adjourn sine die.

I am trusting that the gentleman from Allegheny is sincere when he said he has intentions of calling my bill up and I want to be courteous to him and to my many, many friends on both sides of this house.

I would like to say in conclusion, Mr. President, so that I may recede graciously from my position, that I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, to ask him several questions.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. I will be very glad to be interrogated, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, does the gentleman from Allegheny still feel that the mere fact that my bill was placed on the postponed Calendar may bring it more votes.

Mr. GELTZ. I do not know now, Mr. President. I feel that the activities of my colleague on the floor of the Senate yesterday just lost possibly eight or ten votes for the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, then it makes no difference to the gentleman from Allegheny if I continue with my request to have every bill read at length; is that correct?

Mr. GELTZ. It makes no difference to me, Mr. President. I have nothing else to do. I have set all other matters aside pending the ending of this session.

SENATE BILL NO. 522 ON THIRD READING POSTPONED, CALLED UP

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I now call up Senate Bill No. 522 on third reading postponed, page 11 of the Calendar.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,
The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 522, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 242), entitled "An act to promote the public health and safety by providing for examination and registration of those who desire to engage in the occupation of beauty culture; defining beauty culture, and regulating beauty culture shops, schools, students, apprentices, teachers, managers and operators; conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Public Instruction; providing for appeals to certain courts by applicants and licensees; and providing penalties," by eliminating apprentices, and setting-up classification of junior operators; further regulating operators, junior operators and beauty parlors; setting-up new period for expiration of certificates issued by board permitting beauty culture schools in certain cases to charge for materials used in giving treatments to the public and imposing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the bill?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred.)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to know how the gentleman from Mercer, Senator Thomas, voted.

The PRESIDENT. The record shows the gentleman from Mercer voted "aye."

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask that the roll be verified.

The PRESIDENT. The roll will be so verified. The Clerk will call the names of those voting in the affirmative.

The affirmative votes were as follows:

Cavalcante,	Haluska,	Letzler,	Snowden,
Cox,	Jaspan,	Mallery,	Thomas,
Dent,	Kephart,	McQuiddy,	Wade,
Farrell,	Lanius,	Ruth,

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections? The Chair hears none. The affirmative roll will stand as verified.

The Clerk will call the names of those voting in the negative.

The negative votes were as follows:

Bartlett,	Crowe,	Homsher,	Stevenson,
Becker,	Deltrick,	James,	Tallman,
Carr,	Ealy,	McCreesh,	Walker,
Chapman,	Edmonds,	Miller,	Watkins,
Coleman,	Geltz,	Shapiro,	Wilson, H. I.,
Crider,	Heyburn,

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections? The Chair hears none.

The negative roll will stand as verified.

The yeas 15; the nays 22.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—15

Cavalcante,	Haluska,	Letzler,	Snowden,
Cox,	Jaspan,	Mallery,	Thomas,
Dent,	Kephart,	McQuiddy,	Wade,
Farrell,	Lanius,	Ruth,

NAYS—22

Bartlett,	Crowe,	Homsher,	Stevenson,
Becker,	Deltrick,	James,	Tallman,
Carr,	Ealy,	McCreesh,	Walker,
Chapman,	Edmonds,	Miller,	Watkins,
Coleman,	Geltz,	Shapiro,	Wilson, H. I.,
Crider,	Heyburn,

Less than a constitutional majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

SENATE BILL NO. 911 CALLED UP ON THIRD READING

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I now call up Senate Bill No. 911 on third reading, page 6 of the Calendar.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, in explanation of my motion, I should like to state I have a reservation on the 5:18 plane to go to New York to see the fight, and through the courtesy of the Majority Floor Leader he has permitted me to offer these amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 911, entitled:

An Act to fix the number of Representatives in the General Assembly of the State, and to apportion the State into representative districts as provided by the Constitution.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendments:

Amend Section 1, page 15, line 13, by striking out after the word "sixteenth" the word; "[and];" Amend Section 1, page 15, line 14, by inserting after the word "twenty-first" and before the word "wards" the words; "and twenty-third;" Amend Section 1, page 15, line 25, by inserting after the word "Carbondale" and before the word "Fell" the word: "and;" Amend Section 1, page 15, line 25, by striking out after the word "Fell" and before the word "shall" the words: "[Greenfield and Scott];" Amend Section 1, page 16, line 2, by striking out after the word "Brook" and before the word "West" the word: "[and];" Amend Section 1, page 16, line 3, by inserting after the word "Abington" and before the word "shall" the words: "Greenfield and Scott."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendments were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading, as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That said bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, may I say rather hastily—I do not want to talk myself out of this plane ride, but in this bill is included the twenty-third ward in the City of Scranton, which was created since the last reapportionment bill passed the General Assembly. Obviously had the twenty-third ward been excluded from the provisions of the bill it would have rendered it unconstitutional and therefore I have asked my colleagues to support the amendments.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE APPOINTED ON SENATE BILL NO. 80

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Fayette will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, my point of order is that the report of the Conference Committee does not state the differences committed to them and the action that they took on those differences; secondly, the report does not show in what particular they changed or amended the bill submitted to them; thirdly, the bill violates Rule No. 33 of the House.

The PRESIDENT. Rule No. 33 of the House?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Yes, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. That has no bearing in this body.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. This is a joint conference committee report Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The only rules that govern the Senate are Senate rules or joint Senate and House rules.

The point of order of the gentleman from Fayette is not well taken.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—40

Bartlett,	Dent,	Kephart,	Stevenson,
Becker,	Ealy,	Lanius,	Stiefel,
Carr,	Edmonds,	Letzler,	Talman,
Cavalcante,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Thomas,
Chapman,	Geltz,	McCreesh,	Tyler,
Coleman,	Haluska,	McQuiddy,	Wade,
Cox,	Heyburn,	Miller,	Walker,
Crider,	Homsher,	Ruth,	Watkins,
Crowe,	James,	Shapiro,	Wilson, H. I.,
Deltrick,	Jaspan,	Snowden,	Wilson, T. B.,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON SENATE BILL NO. 701 (HOUSE BILL NO. 404) RE-REFERRED TO THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Conference Committee Report on Senate Bill No. 701, (House Bill No. 404), entitled:

An Act relating to marriage and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto, be re-referred to the Committee of Conference.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I might explain to the members of the Senate the necessity for having this bill re-referred to the Conference Committee. There are a number of printer's errors in the bill, which will have to be corrected in the final report, and I understand it would be impossible to amend it unless it is re-referred, and for that reason I would request the Senate to sustain the motion to have the bill referred back to the Conference Committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Fayette will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, the Conference Committee is not in existence, as it was discharged when it made its report.

The PRESIDENT. If the gentleman from Fayette has any authority to sustain that view the Chair will sustain his point of order. Otherwise the Chair must state he has no knowledge that the committee has been discharged and therefore rules the point of order of the gentleman from Fayette is not well taken.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The vote of the gentleman from Fayette will be so recorded.

The motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS THE SENATE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask permission to address the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, with a desire to be helpful to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, and without any difference or indifference to the position of the Chair on the Conference Report on Senate Bill No. 701, (House Bill No. 404), I raised the point of order that the motion to refer the bill back to the Conference Committee was not in order. That bill, Mr. President, is a House bill and the Manual would indicate that before that bill can be re-referred to the Conference Committee it takes a joint resolution not a motion on the part of a Senator, for the reason we do not know what action the House has already taken on the report. Mr. President, I want merely to be helpful so that the procedure is kept straight and we do not get into any difficulties.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I appreciate the very constructive suggestion made by the gentleman from Fayette. I might state to the Chair that this is the procedure that we followed in asking that the bill be re-referred to the Conference Committee, which came at the suggestion of the House. A similar procedure was followed over there before they adjourned today and the bill was re-referred in the House to their contribution to the Conference Committee and when the suggestion was made as to whether or not we were still in being or were automatically discharged by the presentation of the report, I was advised that the Conference Committee is in being until the conference report has been accepted by both the House and the Senate, that the Conference Committee is still in session or in being and we are not discharged when we merely present our report.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I merely want to emphasize that there is no evidence on the record of this Senate that the House has taken any action and I am merely pointing out the procedure as I find it in the Manual, which shows that it would have to be done by merely presenting a concurrent resolution that if the House concur this bill be recommitted to the Conference Committee. It is immaterial to me. The record now shows the action that I wanted to be helpful in the matter.

The PRESIDENT. In view of the statement of the gentleman from Fayette, the Chair will add to its previous statement that the motion is to re-refer the report of the Conference Committee, and to request the concurrence of the House.

SENATE CONCURS IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS
TO SENATE BILL NO. 352

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 352.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 652, (House Bill No. 1098), entitled:

or county liability to be determined on the basis of the legal settlement of such child at the time of assumption of jurisdiction by the court.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 694, (House Bill No. 1175), entitled:

An Act to amend section six hundred fifteen of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" excepting certain repairs to school buildings from requirement of approval by State Council of Education.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 964, (House Bill No. 940), entitled:

An Act to amend section 1202 by adding clause L of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" authorizing certain boroughs to appropriate moneys for the support of hospitals

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is the bill to which I called attention yesterday and to which the Senator from Montgomery offered amendments. I suggested that he read those amendments because I did not think they helped the bill; in fact, they confused it. I hope the gentleman has read the bill because I have re-read it and I still suggest the bill is not clear.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. EDMONDS. In what respect, Mr. President, does the gentleman think the bill is not clear.

Mr. SHAPIRO. The bill begins as follows, and it does not seem to make sense: "Boroughs having a population of two thousands inhabitants and upwards to appropriate monies," and so on.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, as I understand that, it is the method of preparing the borough code in which you have a general provision in the beginning which applies to all of the sections. At the start it says they shall have authority to do thus and so, and this is a statement of just what they want to do.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Very well, Mr. President, if the gentleman is satisfied, I am. I do not understand that.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. McFall, a member from Northampton County, offered the following prayer:

O God, our heavenly Father, in humility and gratitude we approach Thy throne of Grace and offer unto Thee our prayer of thanks from contrite hearts, for the blessings that are ours.

May the priceless heritage left us by our founding Fathers take on a new responsibility of steadfast loyalty of patriotism and devotion to the birthright of American ideals. Ideals that place moral integrity, honest effort, and spiritual aspirations above worldly possessions, above selfish interest and the lust of the body. Help us to preserve the finest qualities that Thou in Thy infinite wisdom did freely give to all Thy people everywhere.

We pray that these honest petitions and desires of our hearts may be most expedient for us. We ask these favors in the name of Him who said, "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God." Amen.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 811.

Mr. VanALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 811.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. BROWN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary General to meet during the session of the House.

RESOLUTION

LIQUID FUELS

Mr. ROSENFELD offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted:

Whereas, A serious shortage of motor oils, gasoline and other liquid fuels threatens the entire eastern region of the United States; and

Whereas, The Press has carried stories that we in the east may be compelled to undergo "gaseless Sundays" because of such shortage; and

Whereas, At the present time, certain American oil producing companies are exporting liquid fuels and its derivatives to Japan and other countries; and

Whereas, The Secretary of the Interior, Harold Ickes, as coordinator of the Petroleum Products Division of our National Defense Program, has urged all such exports to cease; and

Whereas, We believe that "gasless Sundays" should occur only as a last resort; be it therefore

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requests all manufacturers and producers of liquid fuels and its products in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to immediately cease from exporting any of such products; and be it further

Resolved, That the House of Representatives commends Secretary of Interior Ickes for his request to all petroleum products producers to cease their exporting of such products; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be mailed by the Chief Clerk of the House to Secretary of the Interior Ickes, thereby conveying the desire of the House that he succeed in having such exports curtailed, and thereby avoid "gasless Sundays" in this Commonwealth.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 101

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 101, Printer's No. 1009.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 3, 1941.

Whereas, It is possible if one purchases a round trip ticket on any of the railroads of this Commonwealth for such passenger to disembark at intermediary points going to and from his destination without being compelled to purchase new railroad tickets and

Whereas, Present practice on the new Pennsylvania Turnpike is to refuse to permit motorists who have round trip tickets to leave the turnpike at intermediary interchanges and to return thereto without the payment of a new tariff and

Whereas If the practice were permitted of allowing such motorists to drive off at intermediary interchanges and to return to the turnpike without the payment of additional fares it would increase the use of the turnpike considerably and therefore add greatly to the revenue of said turnpike be it therefore

Resolved That the House of Representatives request the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to inaugurate a practice of allowing motorists holding round trip tickets to drive off the road at intermediary interchanges and to return to the turnpike without paying any additional fare and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be mailed by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.
